Prosecutor Tells How New York Other Commonwealths Block Enforcement of Prohibition

New Course of Dirigible Over Siberia Will Put Her on Line With Harbin

Globe-Girdling Liner Makes Sixty-eight-Mile-an-Hour Speed on Flight

By the Associated Press

The Graf Zeppelin, racing eastward toward Tokio through the short Siberian summer night, last night (Friday) passed the halfway mark of the second leg of her 'round-the-world flight.

At 6 p.m., (eastern standard time) a report to her home hangar at Friedrichshafen gave her position as 80 deg. east longitude, 62 deg. north latitude. This placed her about 2900 miles from her home hangar with only a slightly greater distance between her and Tokio. This position is about 300 miles northwest of Tomsk.

An unofficial report giving the same information said that the dirigible had headed for the northern end of Lake Baikal. Should she pursue that course the continuation of the straight line would carry her across Harbin, Manchuria, to the approximate situation of Tokio.

The airship left Friedrichshafen at 11:34 p.m. (E.S.T.) on Wednesday. At the time given in the report to the Zeppelin works she had thus been in the air almost forty-two and one-half hours and her average speed had been about sixty-eight miles an hour.

Hague Parley Hopes Revive

Crucial Meeting on Snowden Demands Postponed by Delegates

New Compromise Proposal Drawn and Submitted to Great Britain

THE HAGUE, Aug. 16. (AP)—The political doctors of six great powers tonight gave the moribund Hague reparations conference a new lease on life by postponing a crucial meeting of the financial committee scheduled for tomorrow to discuss the British claims for a larger share of German annuities.

Observers had all but given up hope for an agreement between Great Britain and the other principal creditor powers over distribution of the Young plan annuities when France, Belgium, Italy and Japan produced a new compromise offering Philip Snowden, British Chancellor of the Exchequer, 60 per cent of what he had claimed for England.

The meeting of the political committee was postponed until next week to give the British delegation time to study the new memorandum.

The new situation created by this offer seems to the principal delegates to impose further careful study before a final decision of the Young plan is risked.

COURSE DECIDED

Concrete proposals to Great Britain came on the eve of the session which was to have considered Mr. Snowden's resolution to revise the Young plan in the interests of England. It was decided tonight that the committee will meet as scheduled and request the chairman to adjourn.

Premier Briand of France, Senator Mosconi, Italian Finance Minister, Premier Jaspar of Belgium and the Japanese delegates assured Mr. Snowden that they are perfectly willing to go far to satisfy the British on the question of deliveries in kind by Germany. They would reduce the total to the lowest possible limit and restrict the duration of deliveries as far as possible.

On the crucial point of reparation of the Young plan annuities, they expressed the belief that it will be possible to provide part of the sum Mr. Snowden demanded.

AMOUNT OF OFFER

Their offer is said to amount to 30,000,000 marks annually (roughly $7,500,000,) in unconditional annuities which would satisfy 60 per cent of the British claims.

The four principal creditor powers propose to do it by attributing to the British part of the balance arising from payments by Germany under the Dawes plan until September 1 instead of April 1. That balance already is earmarked in the Young plan to provide for the claims of the smaller creditors, but other measures are being considered to satisfy these.

The French delegation has been negotiating with the smaller powers represented at The Hague in order to give them satisfaction in revision of the debt settlement for the sacrifices they are asked to make under the Young plan.

SNOWDEN KEEPS SILENCE

So far as is known Philip Snowden has not committed himself on the proposal of the other creditors.

The British Chancellor simply has consented to postpone the date for final decision on his resolution to revise the Young plan.

In any case the mere fact that a crucial step has been postponed serves to relieve tension at The Hague and renew hopes that a compromise may be successfully effected.

Foreign Minister Stresemann of Germany had conversations today with Premier Briand about the evacuation of the Rhineland.

Concessions to Germany on early evacuation of the Rhineland have been mentioned in the past in connection with any sacrifices she might have to make to aid a financial settlement.

Sixteen Silesia Miners Killed

The mine being usually free of fire damp, it is thought that careless handling of a blast cartridge was responsible.

GRAPE GROWERS TO GET AID

Farm Board Reported Ready to Announce Loan Under Agricultural Relief Act

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16. (Exclusive)—The Federal Farm Board is about to announce a loan to California grape growers, according to reliable information today. The board has spent several days considering the problem of the California grape industry and, it was understood at the close of today's conference, has come to a satisfactory understanding with representatives of the industry as to how far and in what way it is to share in the half-billion Federal relief fund for agriculture.

The case of the grape growers of California was presented to the board this afternoon by A. J. Mount, of the Bank of Italy at San Francisco, and John Nagel of Sacramento, of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange. There is every reason to believe that they impressed the board favorably and will obtain the loan they asked, and under terms agreeable to the growers. There has been no outside mention of the sum being sought.

The California grape growers were the first agricultural group in the country to organize a stabilization corporation and advisory board so as to take advantage of the Federal farm relief act. And, incidentally, this is the only California farm industry which to date has indicated a desire to obtain Federal relief. The citrus and walnut growers have made no move to get a share of the Federal funds. C. C. Teague of Santa Paula, president of the California Citrus Growers and Walnut Growers' organizations and now a member of the Federal Farm Board, said at the time the farm relief act was passed that his associations were not in need of financial assistance under its provisions.

The loan to the California grape industry may be announced tomorrow, but nothing more, probably, will be given out officially until the first of next week.

The loan promises to rank second among those granted by the board which up to this time has approved but one advance—$300,000 to the citrus producers of Florida to assist them over the Mediterranean fruit fly crisis. This indicates that the board has found the grape growers of California to be genuinely in need of immediate relief.

Senator Fletcher, Democrat, Florida, has asked the Federal Farm Board to consider naval stores, including turpentine and rosin, as agricultural commodities coming within the scope of the new farm relief act.

He contends that these products of trees are as much an agricultural commodity as are the fruits of trees. The farm board is understood to be reserving a final opinion on the question pending further study.

DORAN OFF ON TRIP TO CALIFORNIA

Prohibition Chief Plans First-Hand Investigation of Juice Grape Industry

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16. (AP)—First-hand investigation of the California grape juice industry will be made by Prohibition Commissioner Doran, who left today for San Francisco.

The commissioner said he will spend a few days in Chicago, conferring with the prohibition administrator there, after which he will proceed to California. He expects to be away from Washington until after Labor Day.

Investigation of the juice grape industry was begun several weeks ago on orders issued by the commissioner, who said he is interested in ascertaining whether any unusual amount of the grapes was used for illegal purposes.

In the investigation attempts also have been made to determine whether there is any evidence of a conspiracy among growers and manufacturers of grape beverages to violate the prohibition law.

Doran said the result of the survey will not be announced for some time. It is understood he wishes to go into the matter personally before making any announcement. He declined to give any details of his plans while in California.

Former Mayor of Boston Hits Asserted Charges of Liggett in Asking Quiz

BOSTON, Aug. 16. (AP)—Former Mayor James M. Curley today declared that he will seek to have national leaders of the Republican party summoned before the Suffolk county grand jury in an effort to obtain a criminal indictment against Louis K. Liggett, Massachusetts member of the Republican National Committee. Curley indicated that President Hoover may be included among those he will ask to have summoned.

Curley today visited the office of Dist.-Atty. Foley to ask permission to go before the grand jury and testify concerning statements made by Liggett about Curley's activities in the last Presidential election. He declared that there was "not a word of truth" in charges made by Liggett that Curley, a Roman Catholic, was responsible for the circulation of anti-Catholic literature during the campaign for the purpose of damaging the Republican party here.

In the absence of Dist.-Atty. Foley, Curley conferred with an assistant and arrangements were made for Foley to discuss the case with Curley next Thursday.

Curley told newspaper men that he will ask that summonses be issued for Mrs. Mabel W. Willebrandt, Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of Virginia and Dr. Hubert Work, former chairman of the Republican National Committee.

No arrests have been made by the government, however, police announced.

PAST RACE CLEWS IN BRAZIL

Explorers Find Proof of Phoenician Civilization of 4000 Years Ago in Amazon Country

RIO JANEIRO, Aug. 16. (AP)—Proof of a Phoenician civilization in Brazil 4000 years ago has been discovered on the Cumina River in the State of Para by Dr. Barbosa, one of the members of the last Rondon expedition exploring rivers north of the Amazon.

Inscriptions in Phoenician, Greek and Egyptian characters now are being deciphered by T. Tozzi Calvo, Brazilian explorer.

Mme. Coudroux in 1902 explored part of the Cumina River, but the Rondon party went to its headwaters. The spot where the inscriptions were found is thirty-five days' travel from the junction of the Cumina and Amazon at Obitos. The inscriptions were found on a cliff near the river bank and at some height. It was impossible to photograph them, and one of the party traced on paper the approximate characters as they could be seen from a distance.

Tozzi Calvo and other explorers have reported that Indians of the Tapajos which flows into the Amazon from the south not far from where the Cumina goes on north, have told of a hidden mythological Phoenician city, but the discoveries of the Rondon party and the bringing of pottery here form the first tangible evidence.

Sleeping Sparks Rekindled and Flames Again Roar on Unchecked

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16. (AP)—The commanding general of the Ninth Army Corps area at San Francisco was ordered today by the War Department to "furnish such assistance as possible" to the district forester at Portland, Or., in fighting the fire raging in the Chelan National Forest, Washington.

COAST ARMY HEAD TAKES IMMEDIATE STEPS

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16. (AP)—Maj.-Gen. John L. Hines, commanding officer of the Ninth Corps Area, today instructed the commanding officer at Fort Lewis, Wash., to communicate with the United States Forester at Portland, Or., and render such aid as available and desired in combatting the fire now raging in the Chelan Nation Forest, Washington.

Gen. Hines also instructed the commanding officer at Fort George Wright to furnish animals to haul supplies to fire fighters combatting blazes in Northern Idaho. This instruction came from a request of the United States district forester at Missoula, Mont.

FIRE LOSSES SET AT $20 PER MINUTE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16. (Exclusive)—Uncle Sam is spending more than $20 a minute these days fighting forest fires.

Forest fires in government reservations have cost the government approximately $500,000 since July 1, not including salaries paid to 2600 patrol men put on for temporary duty during the summer season. The daily expense is now $30,000.

A controversy is on between Maj.-Gen. Amos Fries, retired, chief of the chemical warfare service, and officials of the Forest Service, as to whether this expense can be reduced by the use of chemicals sprinkled from airplanes. Gen. Fries says it can. Officials of the forest service say it can not.

"The Army," Gen. Fries said today, "has demonstrated that such use of airplanes is perfectly practicable. Take carbon tetrachloride—the same chemical that is used in fire extinguishers—and sprinkle it from tanks slung under planes. Big army bombers would be ideal for the job as they could carry a maximum load and travel at high speed. One airplane would not be worth much, but a fleet of fifteen or twenty would. One plane could cover a strip of territory a mile long and twenty feet wide.

OLD PLAN CALLED BEST

"The planes would fly low—100 to 200 feet. They would be particularly valuable in brush fires, which are a large part of the great western forest conflagrations. The pilot or an assistant would work the sprinkler, as the plane traveled up to perhaps eighty miles an hour. The effect would be exactly like a sprinkling with rain, but the fire would not be extinguished as it would be with water. Fumes of this fire-extinguishing fluid choke the flames, instead of dousing them out."

But officials of the forest service cannot see the efficiency of chemicals.

"We have experimented and found them practically useless in fighting forest fires," declared one veteran official.

"The reason is they quench flames through fumes. The fumes sink to the ground and extinguish ground fires, but they leave the burning tree trunks and limbs untouched. No better plan has been worked out than the old fire line and back-fire system."

A self-extinguishing cigarette and a fire-proof match now are on the horizon of science.

Manchuria Dispatches Tell of Cavalry Invasion and Artillery Attack

Signatories of Kellogg Pact to be Notified of Soviet Acts of Aggression

TOKIO, Aug. 17. (Saturday) (AP)—Dispatches from Manchuli, Manchuria, to Rengo (Japanese) News Agency, today, said 700 soviet cavalry supported by artillery fire yesterday raided Jalainor, a station on the Chinese Eastern Railway twenty-two miles south of Manchuli. The Chinese suffered both military and civilian casualties, the Russians later withdrawing.

NANKING'S ENVOY INSTRUCTED TO ACT

LONDON, Aug. 16. (AP)—Reports from Nanking tonight are that the Chinese Minister at Washington has been instructed to notify signatories of the Kellogg antiwar pact that Russia has invaded Chinese territory in Manchuria.

This action by Foreign Minister Wang followed repeated unofficial reports during the last few days of actual conflicts with casualties between the opposing border patrols, which have been massed on the Manchurian-Siberian front for weeks since the seizure of the Chinese Eastern Railway by the Chinese.

The Russian demand that soviet railway officials be reinstated as a condition to opening peace negotiations has been refused and each government has proclaimed a "firm stand" against the asserted aggressive attitude of the other. As a result the dispute, which recently seemed on the way to peaceful settlement with the encouragement of the powers, tonight is approaching the status of an open quarrel with all negotiations suspended or broken off.

MORE TROOPS ON WAY

Additional Chinese soldiers are reported on the way to the frontier and Minister Wang is quoted as saying that the Nanking government and Chang Hsueh-Liang, who inherited the mantle of "war lord" in Manchuria from his father, Chang Tso-Lin, are in complete agreement.

The soviet government has asserted that nearly 3000 of its citizens formerly employed on the Chinese Eastern Railway have been deprived of opportunity to obtain work and that more than 1500 have been arrested by the order of the Chinese director of railways. They accuse the Chinese of hurriedly filling the vacated posts with their own nationals and last night Vice-Commissar of Foreign Affairs Karakhan gave official notice that the soviet government will not be bound by any contracts or agreement concerning the railway made after its seizure.

The railway has been operated by a joint directorate under a treaty made in 1924. The Chinese expelled the Russian officials on the charge that they had used their commercial positions for political purposes.

NEW ALARM SOUNDED

Renewed alarming aspects of the Chinese-soviet crisis are reported in Reuters dispatches from Mukden, Manchuria. Other sources relate continued clashes, although apparently of minor character, along the border between Russians and Chinese and Russians and White Russian emigres.

A Reuters Mukden dispatch says Chang Hsueh-Liang, head of the three Manchurian Provincial governments, has ordered 60,000 Fengtienese troops to the Siberian border, half to be commanded by Marshal Wang Shih-Chen at Manchuli and half to be stationed in the east at Suifenho (Pogranichnaya) under Gen. Ho Yu-Kwan.

It is said that 300 Russian marines occupied two small towns on the lower Sungari River and were driven off, six Russians and two Chinese dying in the conflict.

NOOSE'S HORROR DESCRIBED

Rum-Runner "King" to be Hanged in Florida Today for Two Murders Writes Farewell Thoughts

(Copyright, 1929, by the New York News)

FORT LAUDERDALE (Fla.) Aug. 16. (Exclusive)—How does a man feel when he knows he will be dead at the end of a rope before the hands of the clock have marched swiftly once more around its face?

J. H. Alderman, so-called king of the Florida rum runners and the only bootlegger ever condemned to death in the history of American prohibition, answered this question here today in a remarkable letter to the Chicago Tribune Press Service.

The most desperate sea criminal of modern times, Alderman killed two Coast Guardsmen and a Federal secret service man, captured a Coast Guard patrol boat and almost succeeded in blowing it to fragments before he was laid by the heels.

He declared in his subsequent confession, that he intended to make the survivors walk the plank if his plan had been successful.

A gallows erected in the United States Coast Guard seaplane hangar here will claim the free booter's life tomorrow in circumstances of the strictest secrecy. The press will be excluded, and the government's bulletin will be confined to the bare statement that Alderman is dead.

Written in his cell in the Miami jail, just before he was whisked away to the place of execution, Alderman's letter reads, in part:

"Sitting alone in a cell, spending my few remaining hours on earth, the ghastly shadow of the noose seems to hang ever above me. I try to look out over the deep blue sea, but I only bring back a picture which during the last few months I have tried to erase forever from my memory.

"With the precious moments flitting away, the picture becomes

DRY FORCES' HANDS TIED WITH NO LOCAL SUPPORT

Mrs. Willebrandt Explains Why Prohibition Succeeds in Some States and Fails in Others

ing the job solely to the Federal government, there are between 2000 and 3000 State police, and there are more than 16,000 city police; there are 112 Supreme Court State judges and sixty-two county prosecutors. All of these agencies might be enlisted to reduce the crime and lawlessness that flow from disregard of the prohibition law, but they are now and have been inactive as to prohibition since New York State repealed its own enforcement act.

Certainly a few hundred Federal agents and nineteen Federal judges, with four United States attorneys, cannot hope to enforce the prohibition law with any great degree of success, in a State containing about one-tenth of the nation's population, with practically no help from the sheriffs, the policemen, the State prosecuting officers, or the State courts.

The metropolitan newspapers, therefore, are entirely correct and truthful in telling their readers of the "wringing wetness" of New York, and other States which have dodged enforcement responsibility, such as Maryland, Montana, Wisconsin, Nevada and New Jersey. But they are all wrong in editorially using the facts about wetness to prove that "prohibition is unenforceable." I do not deny that there is bootlegging on a vast scale in New York City and New York State.

STATE WIDE OPEN

Liquor running over the Canadian border has multiplied; places that used to operate secretly and with a certain degree of caution operate openly with bars and brass rails; hundreds of night clubs in Manhattan are just a new form of the old-fashioned saloons that Tammany used to protect—and to use for pay-off stations on election day in times gone by. The night clubs have open bars and yet they can exist only so long as they can keep their licenses from a "liberal" city administration. Of course the law is not being enforced in New York; it is being evaded and nullified.

But the responsibility is not solely that of the President of the United States nor of the Attorney-General. It is the responsibility of the people of New York. They get just the same kind of prohibition enforcement that they get of State law enforcement. No one blames the Federal government for the lack of enforcement in New York of the penalties against murder. Yet notorious gamblers, not subject to Federal jurisdiction, are shot down from time to time, and the murderers go unpunished. And the number of murders exceeds those of all of England.

GRAFT IN RUM

There is graft in the sale of intoxicating liquor, prohibited by Federal law—and there is likewise graft in the letting of contracts for sewers, authorized under State laws.

The celebrated night club hostess who joked with the judge and the jury and tried to make her trial into a vaudeville show was not any more contemptuous of the authority of the United States government than she was of the people of New York State and New York City.

Because the New York newspapers have been giving so much publicity to the "wetness" of the city and State, the situation there has come to be regarded by many honest, law-abiding people as proof of the unenforceability of the prohibition law.

But let's see what the situation in New York was long before anyone even seriously thought that there might sometime be a national law against the sale of intoxicating liquor. Let's use as a witness a man whose truthfulness and credibility were never questioned.

ROOSEVELT'S WORDS

In other words, let us see what Theodore Roosevelt said about the New York liquor situation in 1895, more than a third of a century ago and thirty years before the adoption of the Eighteenth Amendment. He said:

"All of our cities have been shamefully misgoverned in times past, and in New York the misgovernment has been perhaps more flagrant than anywhere else. The most wealthy saloon keepers have possessed so much influence with the city officials that the police have not dared to interfere with them. The politician has been continuously more corrupt and the saloon keeper more defiant of law. Thousands of arrests were made every year, but the worst offender, the man with the pull, never was arrested while the man of small means was prosecuted without mercy. The city authorities, notably the police magistrates, the police department, and the District Attorney's office were in league together and the saloon keeper alternately profited and suffered by their willingness that he should violate the law."

Couldn't the same general statement be made about liquor conditions now under the Eighteenth Amendment in New York State, and, that being so, can it be truthfully said that the prohibition law is any more unenforceable than State laws?

OTHER SIDE OF PICTURE

Now let's turn to the other side of the picture and see what can be done when the State and local communities do what the Eighteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution contemplates: exercise their concurrent authority to enforce.

In the State of Kansas, which had an effective law of its own for prohibition enforcement long before the Eighteenth Amendment was adopted, the Federal government has had comparatively little to do since enactment of the Volstead law. In one year, for instance, we had to handle only twelve liquor cases in the Federal courts of Kansas. But they were important cases, and the government won all twelve of them. The cases instituted in Kansas range from few or none some years to nineteen, which is the highest number, in 1928. Contrast this with the situation in New York State, where the Federal government has been obliged to prosecute from 600 to 1800 cases a month, and then only scratches the surface. It is not the difference in the size of the two States that counts; it is the difference in the attitude of the local enforcement authorities, largely influenced by the press. The situation, in this aspect, is the same in Philadelphia, Chicago and New York as in hundreds of small towns and cities.

For instance, at Trenton, Fla., we recently obtained the conviction of the Mayor, one of the members of the City Council, and an ex-constable and deputy sheriff. They were indicted with others for violations of the prohibition act, and upon conviction were sentenced to terms of fifteen months and a year and a day in the Federal penitentiary.

VIRTUAL LICENSING

In some of the smaller towns in the country, we have found evidence of virtual "licensing" of bootleg establishments by local authorities. The practice at Silverton, Colo., in the mining district, for instance, was to fine regularly those who operated what amounted to open saloons, the fines being used for municipal purposes instead of raising tax rates on the property of the law-abiding citizen! As long as fines were paid regularly, the bootlegging establishments were allowed to continue operations without any interference by the local, municipal authorities.

On the other hand, where the State or city uses its power to curb liquor violations, the results are worth while. In Pennsylvania, for instance, the State Alcohol Permit Board works in close co-operation with the Federal prohibition administrator. Applications for Federal permits are referred to the State board and applications for State permits are referred to the Federal authorities for past records. Violations by permittees are reported to each other. Violators are prosecuted under State and Federal laws. All records, reports, witnesses and assistance are provided by each to the other in bringing actions to a successful and prompt termination. The language I have used in describing the co-operation is that of the State board itself in its annual report. The result has been a reduction of almost one-third in the number of permits issued in two years for the handling of alcohol and liquors.

PERMIT REVOKED

On reports of Federal prohibition agents, a manufacturing company at Reading, Pa., was deprived by the State Board of its permit to operate a brewery or cereal beverage plant, and its $10,000 bond forfeited. Injunction proceedings also were brought and the brewery premises padlocked. This was only one of several like cases, where the State authorities took action on evidence furnished by Federal prohibition agents.

When Col. S. O. Wynne, Federal prohibition administrator for the fifth district, located in Philadelphia, appealed to the Attorney-General of Pennsylvania for aid in the enforcement of prohibition laws, a special State Deputy Attorney-General was assigned to conduct padlock proceedings. On one day sixty-five cases were instituted by the State Attorney-General, and fifty-two places involved in these cases were ordered padlocked. Six other places were restrained and the character of business changed.

How different this is from the situation in New York State. One of the United States District Attorneys in New York has called attention to the fact that the two Federal judges in the western district of New York State have sole power to try prohibition cases in a territory populated by approximately 2,000,000 people. Necessarily, therefore, the pressure of work encourages bootleggers, little and big alike, to enter pleas of guilty rather than hopelessly congest the court dockets with untried jury cases. Is it prohibition that is a failure in New York State, or is it government by the people of New York State that is failing!

CO-OPERATION URGED

I have from time to time—many times—urged that United States attorneys, marshals, and key men in charge of investigative agencies be called to Washington for zone conferences at which a definite policy of approach to State and local officials could be worked out. After that, each of the Federal men should go back to his respective district and take the initiative in approaching governors, State Attorneys-General, mayors, chiefs of police, and try to work out a scheme of co-ordination and exchange of information where authorities overlap.

This will enable the Federal government to turn back to the State the responsibilities for prosecution of many minor offenses that now congest Federal dockets. On the other hand, the State could and should call upon and receive help from the Federal government in dealing with criminals where their operations are of extended or politically intrenched nature.

COUNTIES ASSIST

Such co-operation can be obtained even in States which are considered "wet." For instance, Maryland has no State prohibition law and has never even ratified the Eighteenth Amendment. But Maryland does have a high degree of county government, and practically all of the counties of Maryland, outside the one where the city of Baltimore is located, have local option statutes. When the prohibition administrators and United States attorneys have called upon these county officials and worked out a means of sharing responsibilities, the counties have taken over a substantial share of the load. This is also true of many counties in Florida where, during the long period of time when there was almost a complete breakdown in Federal enforcement, prohibition agents took their cases directly to county Sheriffs and the offenders were tried in the county courts.

The arm of the Federal government is long and strong, but it needs to be re-enforced and aided by the numerous arms of the State and municipal government. With all those arms of the law reaching for the lawless, the bootlegger's chance of escape would be slight indeed. It would be comparatively easy by systematic appeal to obtain local and State co-operation, and would yield rich returns in reduction of lawlessness.

REFUELING OF SUN GOD DIFFICULT

Spokane Plane Seeking Record Has Trouble in Taking Gas in Wyoming

ROCK SPRINGS (Wyo.) Aug. 16. (AP)—Two breaks in a refueling hose in four contacts here tonight permitted passage of only 165 gallons of gasoline to the Spokane Sun God plane being flown across the continent from Spokane by N. B. (Nick) Mamer and Art Walker in an attempt to set a new long-distance and endurance refueling record.

Another refueling attempt is to be made later. This is expected to take about forty-five minutes.

Information of the failure to deliver the expected 350 gallons of gasoline in the four contacts made earlier tonight was revealed when the refueling plane, piloted by N. B. Wilson, landed. Wilson said the hose broke on the first and last attempts.

Wilson said the men were so busy endeavoring to make the refueling contacts the radio broadcast advising Mamer and Walker the weather East was clear was not received. The two in the Sun God will be informed by Wilson of the weather and directions to proceed East at the next refueling contact, he said.

more vivid. I can see the utter folly of my deeds. I cannot remove the memory of the courtroom, the trial, and that terrible moment when the judge sentenced me to be hanged by the neck until dead.

"The first few months were nightmares of torment and misery, but since I have come to know there is a life beyond the grave I became happy. I am ready to meet my Maker with a smile which will never fade.

SMILE AT LAST

"If it were not for my family and the loved ones, I must leave behind, I might say that I anticipate death, for after all, the final ordeal will be merciful and expeditious.

"There are many who will believe that I am shamming, but it really makes no difference now what anyone thinks. God knows I am sincere.

"During the last few days I have been the calmest person in the jail. I was known as a bad man—a rum runner—and a killer. But violation of the law does not pay. I am ready to pay.

"I have been asked if I would not prefer death by electrocution rather than hanging. I have not given the matter much thought, for after all the principal punishment in a death sentence is the ordeal of waiting, while the shadow of death creeps nearer. Were it not for the peace in my heart, I do not know how I could stand it. I have only one more word to say and that is, I am going home with a smile on my face."

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16. (AP)—William P. Kenney, vice-president of the Great Northern Railway, today announced his road will come directly to San Francisco, provided the Interstate Commerce Commission approves its plans for extension of its lines into California. Revenues of the States from the licenses totaled more than $9,300,000, an increase of $1,144,465.

GROSS WILL GO TO NICARAGUA

Former Army Chief at Port Here Gets Huge Task

Will Head Work of Making Survey for Canal

Large Engineering Force to be Under Command

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16. (Exclusive)—Maj. C. F. Gross, who for several years was the engineer officer in charge of Los Angeles Harbor matters for the War Department, now is at Camp Humphreys arranging mobilization of a battalion of three engineer companies to complete the first real survey of the new Nicaraguan canal. The actual work there will start about November 1 and will be pushed as rapidly as possible. Larger forces of engineers will be added if Congress increases the appropriation. Adequate medical and surgical service for the men on this work has been provided by the Surgeon-General of the Army.

The Secretary of War has approved the recommendation of the former chief of engineers, Lieut.-Gen. Edgar Jadwin, regarding the survey of the Nicaraguan canal and has issued instructions for the organization of a battalion of engineer troops to furnish the necessary personnel for carrying out this survey.

SAVING EFFECTED

The use of the army to make this survey effects a saving to the government since the employment of civilians would be more expensive, and the appropriation for the survey is quite limited. This battalion will be made up of troops drawn from the Twenty-ninth Engineers at Fort Humphreys, Va., the First Engineers at Fort Du Pont, Del., and the Eleventh Engineers in the Canal Zone. For the present the companies to go to Nicaragua have been curtailed in number to effect economy.

At this time those to come from the Twenty-ninth Engineers at Fort Humphreys will be one company, having a strength of five officers and thirty-five enlisted men, and a headquarters and service platoon, with a present strength of seven officers and thirty-three enlisted men. The personnel from the First Engineers will consist of one company of five officers and thirty-five enlisted men, specially organized for the work in hand. The Eleventh Engineers in the Canal Zone will furnish one company, reorganized for this work, which will consist of three officers and 110 enlisted men. If more funds become available later these companies may be increased to full strength.

WILL SAIL AT ONCE

The commanding general, Panama Canal Department, has been directed to send the company from the Eleventh Engineers on a transport sailing from Balboa, Canal Zone, on or about the 27th inst., and the troops from the United States will sail from New York on the army transport sailing about October 15. All troops upon their arrival at Corinto, Nicaragua, will report to Maj. Dan I. Sultan, Corps of Engineers, who will sail from New York the 20th inst., as the officer in charge of the Nicaraguan survey and representative of the engineers.

CAR MEN IN STRIKE CITY FACE COURT

New Orleans Line's Head and Others Charged With Wiring Up Safety Devices

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 16. (AP)—Herbert B. Flowers, president of New Orleans Public Service, Inc., and twenty-seven motormen were charged in Recorder's Court here today with violating the city ordinance regulating safety devices for street cars.

Affidavits were filed as the aftermath of the death of a 3-year-old child under a street car and investigation by city authorities of reports that safety devices on the street cars have been wired up.

All of the accused were released under bonds of $250 each to be arraigned within the next few days.

In explaining the asserted wiring up of the devices, E. S. Myers, assistant to the vice-president of the company, was quoted as saying this was done "to prevent derailing of cars by bricks or other objects placed on the tracks by strikers. When the fender drops it frequently curls up and derails the car.

Tunneys Visit Shops in Paris

PARIS, Aug. 16. (AP)—Gene Tunney, former heavyweight boxing champion, and his wife, the former Polly Lauder, arrived here today from Brioni in the Mediterranean for a ten-day visit.

Lindbergh Hits 112-Mile Pace in Motor Car

DETROIT, Aug. 16. (AP)—For a man who crossed the Atlantic in a day and half, 112-miles-an-hour is not so fast, but Col. Charles A. Lindbergh did that on a Detroit automobile company proving ground track yesterday. After a half-hour of driving around the concrete oval in an eight-cylinder car, he could scarcely be persuaded to stop.

The flying colonel averaged 108 miles over a 2 1-2 mile track with banked curves but hoisted his speed to 112 miles an hour on the stretches.

A visit to the proving grounds to test the new Packard diesel airplane motor gave Lindbergh the opportunity to do his speeding. He took the Diesel-powered plane up for several minutes' flight.

Packard Motor Car Company officials said he is the first, except Packard test pilots, to fly a plane powered by the oil-burning engine.

Fruit Grower Groups Enter Pact on Sales

SAN JOSE, Aug. 16. (AP)—O. A. Harlan, general manager of the California Prune and Apricot Growers' Association, today announced his organization and the California Peach and Fig Growers' Association have concluded negotiations whereby the prune and apricot growers body will have an exclusive sales contract for products of the peach and fig body.

Harlan said this is a progressive step, equally advantageous to both parties, and will result in a saving of overhead expenses. The prune and apricot growers are to be recompensed in return for the selling by a brokerage charge, he said.

"This agreement is not a merger, but merely an agreement whereby one co-operative agency acts as a sales agent for another," Harlan said. "Both organizations will remain intact, and each will do its own processing."

(AP)—Charles Goldtrap of Phoenix, airways official, and a woman companion, whose name was not divulged, were held up and robbed of approximately $700 in cash and jewelry by three armed bandits on the Bisbee-Osborn Road, four miles south of here, at midnight last night, according to the Sheriff's office.

Mrs. Nichols was arrested recently at Salinas for illegal entry into this country.

TROOPS CALLED TO FIGHT FIRE

Coast Chief Instructed to Give Assistance

New Blazes on Many Fronts Raging Onward

setts, scientists at the Bureau of Standards, in a six-months' test of nine popular brands, have evolved a "safety cigarette." Its fire protection factor lies in an inch-long cork tip, lined with waterglass—air-excluding sodium silicate.

Their interest increasing as the work progressed, the scientists also have developed a fire-proof match, coated with waterglass within a half inch of its head.

Tossed aside as a fag-end, the self-extinguishing cigarette was found in tests to go out quickly enough to reduce the fire hazard some 90 per cent as compared with the untreated cigarette. Possibilities of accidental fires were reduced approximately one-third by the fire-proofing matches.

INCENDIARISM PROOF DECLARED FOUND

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 16. (AP)—Positive evidence of incendiarism in the outbreak of two forest fires, one in Colusa and the other in Calaveras county, was reported to the State Forestry office here late today by fire wardens called to extinguish the conflagrations.

Shortly after they had extinguished a fire that burned over a wide area on the corner of a Colusa, Lake, Yolo and Napa counties fire fighters reported to Deputy Forester William Rider this afternoon that a new blaze had started a mile away and that they saw a man running from the fire. The rangers found fires set in four places. The wind whipped the flames into action and beyond control before fire lines could be established.

After a fire that burned over considerable ground near Applegate, Calaveras county, was brought under control, fires broke out in four places on a near-by ridge, Rider was told. The fires swept down a slope beyond control before the near-by fire lines could be switched.

A house, barn, $450 worth of stored hay and 2000 acres of brush and pasture land were reported burned at Mokelumne Hill, Calaveras county, last night by a fire that still was burning today, according to dispatches to State Forester M. B. Pratt here.

Damage wrought by the flames, which were considered under control this morning with a heavy patrol of men on the fire line, is estimated will reach $3000.

Another fire is burning near Applegate, where several thousand acres of grass and brush are reported burned over. Fire-fighting forces patrolling the blaze believed they have it under control, Pratt stated.

SUBDUED FIRE BREAKS OUT AGAIN

WOODLAND, Aug. 16. (AP)—A range and grass fire which was thought to have died down after burning over approximately 1500 acres, broke out anew late yesterday and today was fast approaching valuable cultivated crop areas. Fifteen men were assembled to fight the flames.

CALAVERAS COUNTY BLAZE UNCONTROLLED

STOCKTON, Aug. 16. (AP)—More than 10,000 acres of brush land already have been burned over by fire raging uncontrolled today near Mokelumne Hill, Calaveras county. Two hundred men, led by forest rangers, have been giving battle since yesterday. The fire broke out on the J. J. McSorley ranch. Its origin is a mystery.

HUNT FOR MISSING PAIR IN FIRE ZONE FAILS

SEATTLE, Aug. 16. (AP)—Hope for the safety of Douglas C. Ingraham, Portland, and Ermannie S. Luise, Chelan youth, faded today as 150 men and an airplane failed to locate the two missing in the Camas Creek forest fire since early Wednesday.

Although conditions over the State of Washington are believed to have improved some during the day, some new fires over the Northwest were being reported and a vast army of men still is diligently opposing all efforts of the flames to advance.

"'Untin" Bowler Crew on Final Lap of Journey

WINNIPEG (Man.) Aug. 16. (AP) The crew of the amphibian plane "'Untin" Bowler are on their way to Chicago today from the Far North, where their plane was lost in the ice.

Robert Gast and Parker Cramer, pilots, were marooned with Robert Wood, aviation editor of the Chicago Tribune, at Port Burwell, a Canadian radio station on Hudson Bay, a month ago while attempting a flight from Chicago to Germany by way of Greenland.

Their plane broke from its moorings and was crushed in the ice during a storm. After a wait of three weeks they went from Port Burwell on the Canadian hydrographic steamer Acadia to Port Churchill, northern terminus of the Hudson Bay Railway.

They arrived here from The Pass, Man., and boarded a train for Chicago.

APACHE LINES PLAN NEW PLANE SERVICE

PHOENIX, Aug. 16. (AP)—Apache Airlines will inaugurate daily airplane service between Phoenix and the Globe-Miami district September 1, next, according to announcement by Ralph G. Vaughn, president of the company, following issuance of an order by the Corporation Commission authorizing the new air line. Passengers and express will be carried on a regular schedule between these towns, thirty-five minutes being required for the trip.

FIRE IN FOREST "BAD MEDICINE"

But Poor Lo's Impressed to Fight Wyoming Blaze Against His Will

SHERIDAN (Wyo.) Aug. 16. (AP)—Crow Indians, filled with superstitious fear of forest fires, believing that columns of smoke arising from them are infested with evil spirits, were being impressed into service today to help fight a stubborn fire in Lodge Grass Canyon, seventy miles northwest of here.

HOOVER TO BE FETED BY VIRGINIANS

Town of Madison Will be Host Today as He Motors from Fishing Camp

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16. (AP)—President Hoover left the White House late today for a week-end of relaxation at his Virginia mountain fishing camp. The usual quiet program of his stay will be broken by his attendance tomorrow at a celebration at the near-by town of Madison, in appreciation of his selection of the locality as the scene of his vacation trips.

The Chief Executive and a large party of guests who accompanied him from Washington by automobile for the week-end will motor tomorrow morning to Madison, fifteen miles from the camp. At the celebration there Gov. Byrd of Virginia will present to Mr. Hoover in an address the gratitude of Madison county and of Virginia over the President's choice of the region for his fishing preserve. Mr. Hoover will respond with a brief speech and then will return to his camp.

At the fishing camp the President was awaited by Mrs. Hoover and their son, Allan, who have now spent the past two weeks there so that the latter might obtain the rest necessary to complete recuperation from a recent attack of stomach trouble.

ZEPPELIN FAR INTO SIBERIA

Angeles Steamship Company actually has been appointed freight agent for the German dirigible Graf Zeppelin, now over Asia en route to Los Angeles and around the world.

While elsewhere no active drive was made for freight on this trip of the dirigible, indications are that oranges and perhaps other typical Southland cargo will go out from here late this month on the airship's return to Germany.

The time is declared dawning when lighter-than-air craft will afford an important superexpress service for freight as well as passengers. William Montague, representing Hamburg American Line, is passenger agent here for the Graf Zeppelin.

MAY SEND MAIL

Angelenos who want to place letters of postcards aboard the 'round-the-world Graf Zeppelin on its scheduled arrival here can do so for 60 cents an ounce on letters to Lakehurst, N. Y., and $1.80 to Friedrichshafen, Germany, it was announced yesterday by Postmaster O'Brien.

Postcards will go for half rate. Letters, however, cannot exceed one ounce, the postmaster stated.

Letters and postcards should be addressed and bear the additional directions, "By German Airship L Z 127 (Lakehurst or Friedrichshafen.")

LARGE FORCE ENGAGED

Eleven hundred men, 300 sailors from the San Diego naval base and 800 local members of the National Guard, will be charged with the task of bringing the Graf Zeppelin safely to earth at Los Angeles Municipal Airport, it was unofficially announced yesterday at a Graf Zeppelin reception committee meeting in the Chamber of Commerce yesterday.

Tentative arrival date of the Graf was set forward a day to the 25th inst., although the local landing day will depend on the airship's progress to Tokio and then across the Pacific Ocean.

FUEL AND MAST READY

Col. Harcourt Harvey, chairman of the local Graf executive committee, stated that the National Guardsmen are in readiness to report at the airdrome any time and that they probably will be organized early in the morning of the 25th inst. Woodruff De Silva, acting director of the city's landing field, stated that he has been promised co-operation of navy authorities and that the sailors will be on hand in time to help with grounding the 'round-the-world air liner.

The sixty-foot stub mooring mast, anchored on the northeast corner of the airdrome, will receive finishing touches today, while equipment to refuel the Graf with Blau motor fuel gas and hydrogen lifting gas practically is in readiness at the field.

Nobile in Berlin Believed to Plan New Expedition

BERLIN, Aug. 16. (AP)—Gen. Umberto Nobile, Italian explorer, arrived here today and it is conjectured that he is planning another Arctic expedition. He left for Gotha to meet several scientists. Yesterday he conferred with Berlin aeronautical experts.

Gen. Nobile declined to discuss the disaster which overtook his last venture into the Arctic regions.

"I am convinced that the truth about the catastrophe rapidly will become known after publication of my book."

To the question whether he will undertake a third polar flight he replied: "I am 44 years of age and have studied aeronautics for sixteen years. I have constructed fourteen dirigibles and for four years have endeavored to find new land for Italy. I am still young enough."

G.O.P. LOWERS SUGAR TARIFF

STATE'S PROUD OF PINEAPPLES

California-Grown Fruit Will Be Placed on Display at Sacramento Fair

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 16. (Exclusive)—California-grown pineapples will be exhibited for the first time at the Diamond Jubilee State Fair and Western States Exposition the 31st inst. to September 9, Charles W. Paine, secretary of the fair, announced today.

The pineapples will be a feature of the San Diego county exhibit. They were grown on the A. H. Anthony ranch at Fallbrook, where the plants have been nursed along for four years.

Paine called attention to the fact that it is just seventy-five years ago that the first California oranges were exhibited at the State Fair. They were grown by William Wolfskill of Los Angeles on the site of the present Southern Pacific station in that city.

he added, "there is nothing new in the present situation. Communications similar to those received this year were received in 1921 when the present Tariff Act was under consideration by Congress and the Department of State has always been the medium of transmission to the Appropriate Committee of Congress."

Referring to communications from the five Latin-American countries, Mr. Stimson said all of them touched upon agricultural products "for which there is a generally recognized need for protection."

Quoting from a report declaring that there was hardly a European or South American country that had not made vigorous protest against the tariff, the Secretary said this obviously was incorrect, for Uruguay was the only South American country to have addressed a communication to the United States.

RUTH BRYAN IN FLORIDA PROTEST

NEW YORK, Aug. 16. (AP)—Representative Ruth Bryan of Florida today sent to the Senate Finance Committee, which is framing the tariff bill, a protest against inclusion in the bill of a seasonal tariff clause affecting fruits and vegetables raised in Florida.

The proposed seasonal tariff would remove protection from those fruits and vegetables during December, January and February, permitting Cuban and Mexican growers to come in and compete for the northern trade.

Writ to Release Bandit Refused

CHICAGO, Aug. 16. (AP)—Judge Miller today dismissed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus for the release of Willie Doody, notorious bandit and asserted killer, on the ground that Doody technically is in custody of Federal authorities and outside the jurisdiction of a judge of the Criminal Court.

Doody is held in the Cook County Jail on a charge of having shot and wounded Postal Inspector Evan L. Jackson when the latter tried to arrest him in a North Side hotel several months ago.

Brooklyn Lad Hangs Himself

NEW YORK, Aug. 16. (Exclusive) George Stein, 12 years of age, public school and Hebrew school pupil, yesterday committed suicide by hanging himself with a clothes line to a chandelier in his home in Brooklyn. His family attributed his act to depression brought on by overstudy. George is said to have been a brilliant student and a lad who took no interest in the sports popular with most boys of his age.

ENGLISH BOY SCOUT COMING TO AMERICA

PARENTS AGREE TO GIVE HIM UP SO HE CAN GET HOME AND EDUCATION HERE

LONDON, Aug. 16. (AP)—Reginald Bonham, 14-year-old Boy Scout and son of an English street-car conductor, shortly will go to the United States where a home and education are awaiting him in St. Louis.

Dr. F. Staly, St. Louis Physician, who accompanied the "Spirit of St. Louis" troop of Scouts to the recent world Jamboree at Birkenhead, asked Reginald to take part in a baseball game he was trying to teach English boys.

The doctor liked the boy, asked him to come to America and his parents consented. He will sail tomorrow as a member of the St. Louis troop. The American troop also is returning with first prise for its camp in the American contingent and a collection of rare snakes which the London Zoo presented in return for a collection of American reptiles the boys brought as mascots.

STRIKE OF COOLIES IN SAMOA AT END

APIA (British Samoa) Aug. 16. (AP)—Coolies who have been on a strike here for several days returned to work yesterday. No concessions were made by the employers. Four of the strikers were shot and wounded and ten others less seriously injured in a clash between the police and 250 of the coolies last Sunday. Several of the policemen, consisting of Europeans and Samoans, were injured by flying stones, but finally dispersed the mob.

SLAYER FOUND GUILTY

LAMAR BANDIT SUSPECT HELD

San Andreas Man Arrested for Colorado Crimes

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 16. (AP)—Herbert L. Royston, 36 years of age, was brought here tonight from San Andreas, Calaveras county, where he was arrested by authorities today as a member of the gang that held up the First National Bank of Lamar, Colo., on May 23, 1928, shot and killed three of its officials and a doctor and escaped with more than $100,000.

Royston was arrested at his home in San Andreas this afternoon. He is said to have admitted that he is the man who fired five shots at A. N. Parrish, president of the bank, during the hold-up and that Parrish in turn shot him through the jaw. Royston declared none of his bullets were accountable for Parrish's death, it is said.

CHILD-SLAYING QUEST FUTILE

Maze of Clews Fails to Help in Hunt for Strangler

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 16. (AP)—An overabundance of clews poured in on police who scrambled through a maze of leads tonight in an almost frantic manhunt for the slayer of 12-year-old Dorothy Aune, but none of them apparently has brought detectives much nearer solution of the crime.

Six of twenty-one men taken in custody for questioning as to their movements last Tuesday, the day the little victim was kidnaped, attacked and then strangled to death, still are held in jail without charge tonight.

Tentacles of the case stretched outside the city today for the first time as a dock worker in Duluth confessed the slaying and then immediately repudiated his story, and an automobile was found at Hopkins, ten miles west of here, containing a gunnysack, some heavy twine, a wig and a torn piece of blue cloth.

REVOLT VESSEL BEING DETAINED

Ship Used for Venezuelans' Foray Now in Trinidad

Officers and Crew Protest at Action as Coercive

Rebel Leader Says Fighting Was in Liberty's Cause

PORT OF SPAIN (Trinidad) Aug. 16. (AP)—The German steamer Falke, which last Sunday landed Venezuelan revolutionists at Cumana, State of Sucre, Venezuela, is held in an undefined status today with charges of piracy on the one hand and protestations of coercion by officers and crew on the other.

The government forbade any intercourse between local merchants and the steamer and as a result of the failure to receive supplies the ship has been held up. The Venezuelan government has asked that it be considered as a pirate. It is not known what will happen if its officers ask for clearance papers to leave the harbor.

A Colon (Panama) dispatch said that Guillermo Egea Mier, described as "commander of the rebel gunboat Falke," sent a message to Dr. Jose R. Wendehake, president of the Venezuelan Center in Panama, asking him to proclaim to the world that the men who attacked Cumana were fighting only for liberty.

The Falke apparently is of German origin.

WIFE OF GENERAL OFFERS GEMS TO CAUSE

NEW YORK, Aug. 16. (AP)—Senora Luisa Elena Delgado, attractive wife of Gen. Ramon Delgado-Chalbaud, who is reported to have been killed leading the revolt in Venezuela, imitated Queen Isabella in offering her jewels for a cause dear to her heart.

Senora Delgado also offered her husband and 18-year-old son to the cause of Venezuelan liberation from the Gomez regime. Gen. Delgado is supposed to have been killed, but the son escaped to Granda, a British island.

Gen. Delgado is said to have been the chief leader of the revolutionary movement. Gen. Delgado at one time was in President Gomez's Cabinet and was head of a great transportation company.

Sixteen years ago he was thrown into prison. Two years ago he was released and went immediately to Paris, where plans were laid for the movement against the present regime in Venezuela. He had the assistance of his wife, who was regarded as one of the handsomest women in Venezuela and had suffered so much because of her husband's imprisonment that she shared his hatred of the Gomez government. Senora Delgado still is in Paris.

Two Venezuelan generals who were graduates from West Point—Francisco Linares Alcantara and Rafael Maria Carabano—also participated in the attack on Cumana. Alcantar was Minister of the Interior under President Castro and Carabano for a time was a member of President Gomez's Cabinet. Alcantara escaped but Carabano is reported to have been wounded and captured.

PASADENAN CLIMBS HIGH ANDES PEAK

Caltech Expedition in Ecuador First to Scale 17,000-Foot Mountain

GUAYAQUIL (Ecuador) Aug. 16. (AP)—An expedition from the California Institute of Technology led by Robert O. Moore of Pasadena has climbed for the first time the volcanic peak of Sangay, which rises more than 17,000 feet in the Ecuadorian Andes chain.

Messages today from Rio Bamba described the feat and told of the scientific successes of the expedition. The absolute summit was reached, the crater unexplored and many photographs taken. Important new zoological species were obtained from the region hitherto explored by scientists.

The expedition endured hardships for a month. It met with continual rain and snowstorms. The Indian porters deserted and equipment and carefully estimated food supplies were lost.

The previous high point on the volcano was attained by George Dyott, who led an expedition into Brazil to search for Col. Fawcett, British explorer. Dyott was stopped by crevasses after months of effort. In describing his climb for the National Geographic Society in Washington he called Sangay "the flaming terror of the Andes."

The California expedition bore out all of his statements of the difficulties on the climb.

Airway Offices Raided in Fraud Stock Clean-up

NEW YORK, Aug. 16. (AP)—Under instructions from the Federal Attorney's office ten postoffice inspectors today raided the offices of Coastal Airways, the Airvia Corporation, Hadley & Co. and the Howland Holding Company. Grand jury subpoenas were served on all persons found in the offices and demand was made for production of all books and papers.

Coastal Airways, which operates an air line to Albany, and Airvia, which runs one to boston, recently merged.

The raids were ordered by Chief Assistant Federal Attorney George J. Mintzer, who is engaged in a campaign against bucket shops, tipster sheets and other organizations of the type he has characterized as "financial speakeasies."

Just before they started on their flight to Rome Roger Q. Williams and Lewis Yancey were named president and vice-president of Airvia but they resigned and severed all connection with the company upon their return to this country.

'Shooter' Plans to Curb Gasser

SAN ANGELO (Tex.) Aug. 16. (AP) Declaring he has an "easy job" ahead of him, Tex Thornton of Amarillo, famous Texas oil-well "shooter," today prepared plans in an effort to extinguish the Landreth Production Company's No. 1 University, which has been a blazing gasser since Wednesday.

The "shooter" worked throughout last night dragging debris from the well, near McCamey. He plans to use tubes of nitroglycerine to bring the flames under control.

Alec Bradford, one of the men helping Thornton, burned the soles off his shoes when he stayed near the well too long.

MEXICO'S PLANS STIR ESPEE'S IRE

Titcomb Scores Proposed Labor Legislation

Says Law Likely to Reduce Road's Efficiency

His Statement Approved by Directorate Board

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 16. (Exclusive)—The first statement from an American major corporation operating in Mexico in complaint of the new proposed labor law is that made public today by H. B. Titcomb, president of the Southern Pacific of Mexico, a $65,000,000 investment that is considered of vital importance to the trade relations between the west coast of Mexico and California, and which if the law as it is now drafted is enforced "may make it impossible for this company to continue its present service and to give the employment that it is now giving."

Titcomb's statement is issued with the full approval of the board of directors of the Southern Pacific lines and after careful consideration had been given by the board to the possible effect this "ultimatum" may have on the company's relations with the Mexican government.

TITCOMB STATEMENT

Titcomb says in part, "To try to force the company to do something by law that means its ruin financially does not help anybody. It makes it impossible for it to borrow money for further development and indeed may make it impossible for it to continue its present service and to give employment that it is now giving. I look with grave apprehension upon the proposed labor law now being studied by Congress."

Development of the west coast of Mexico largely is dependent upon the company's transportation service, Titcomb declares, and "adverse legislation that will stop this development or cause the country to go backward with respect to any of its industries means, of course, that additional employment cannot be given and that a great many Mexico citizens will be thrown out of work. The proposed labor law is such that if made effective the expenses of the railroad will be increased more than 2,000,000 pesos annually, or at the rate of 35 per cent more each year than the total in 1928. Southern Pacific of Mexico cannot borrow any more money to continue its program of improvement and giving additional service under such a law."

REVIEWS DAMAGE LIST

Titcomb reviews the Southern Pacific's long list of damages suffered by revolutionary conditions in Mexico during the twenty-six years that it has been established in the country and the inability of the Mexican government to meet its claims fully. He speaks of the harmony that has and does exist between the company and its employees who have been acquainted with and realize the company's financial condition.

Titcomb adds "to meet the estimated increase of 2,000,000 pesos each year would involve such an increase his passenger, freight and express rates that the public could not afford it."

"The interests of all the West Coast industries and "indeed the whole population would be seriously and adversely affected by the passage of the new law," Titcomb declares.

OTHER OBJECTIONS

In the wake of various statements from capital quarters complaining against the new law as ruinous not only to their own interests but to those of labor as well comes the complaint from the convention "prolabor law," now in session, claiming to represent 1,500,000 workers, that the law as drafted is "too lenient."

In the opinion of the majority of the speakers at the convention the drafted law does not satisfy the ambitions of the Mexican workers. Special objection is raised to that portion of the law which curbs labor's strike privileges, and that clause of the law which, it is affirmed, does not bind the employers to engage union men is the subject of severe criticism. Resolutions and recommendations adopted by the convention will be forwarded to Congress for that body's consideration in deliberations of the law along with similar objections and suggestions being prepared by capital.

Wife of Indian Fights to Keep Liberty Bonds

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16. (AP)—Denial of charges brought in the District of Columbia Supreme Court by Elmer S. Bailey, as next friend of Jackson Barnett, wealthy Indian, to recover $200,000 in Liberty Bonds held by a Washington bank is made in the answer filed today by Anna Laura Barnett, wife of the Indian, and her daughter, Maxine Sturgess.

The Federal government has intervened in the suit, claiming the fund as belonging to a ward of the government.

The defendants deny in their answer that Barnett was of unsound mind at the time of his marriage. Mrs. Barnett says he proposed to her after telling of his intention to become married and that both voluntarily entered into the nuptial contract. She also denied that she married the Indian to obtain control of his property or that she had any intention of kidnaping him.

She asserts the $200,000 trust fund was agreed to at a conference with government officials.

Passenger Ship Movement for Week-end Heavy

Chamber Hawaii Delegation Due to Return Today

Bait Boat for Fishing Fleet Scheduled for Test

BY WAYNE B. CAVE

A pretentious movement of passenger liners features the week-end at Los Angeles Harbor, led by the Lassco liner City of Honolulu due this morning from Hawaii. The delegation of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce is returning from its fourteenth excursion, swelling the list of travelers to 434, appreciably higher than last year's corresponding trip.

Yesterday saw the Japanese liner Anyo Maru in from the Near West, as the Orient now is called, and she will continue with 300 through passengers today for South America. Tomorrow the Dollar globe-girdling liner President Polk berths from New York with 120.

Tomorrow also will see the Mongolia in from San Francisco for the Panama Pacific Line, and on sailing for New York Monday she will have 330 travelers, including Mrs. M. S. Kinmonth, niece of the late Leland Stanford, and James Carnegie, former superintendent-engineer of International Mercantile Marine.

Tonight will witness the departure of the Panama Mail liner Columbia with 100, bound for Central America and New York. Among the travelers will be Judge George L. Genung of the New York Municipal Court; Dr. C. A. Ainslie, head of the American Hospital at Guatemala City; Millie Bennett, writer, and Mrs. Emilia de Melendez, sister-in-law of a former President of Salvador.

The coastal liners Yale, Harvard and H. F. Alexander were carrying 400 to 500 each both in and out, and the Ruth Alexander last night sailed for Ensenada with 300 members of the Southern California Dental Association.

Tomorrow the Lassco liners Yale and City of Honolulu will carry hundreds of members of the American Legion to San Diego for the department of California convention.

NEW CRAFT SOON TO JOIN TUNA FLEET

The Geneva, an eighty-two-foot refrigerated bait boat, will be given her trial trip tomorrow, preparatory to taking her place among the thirty larger-type tuna craft constructed for the local industry in the last year.

She was built by Al Larson at a cost of $37,000 for Capt. Y. Masuno, who will fish for the California Packing Corporation, giving the latter sixteen of the large refrigerated craft.

The Geneva is propelled by a 200-horsepower Atlas Imperial Diesel engine of six cylinders and directly reversable; is insulated with cork and equipped with a two-ton refrigerating unit, two bait tanks, and has a capacity of eighty tons of iced fish. Liberal fuel tanks will give her a cruising radius of 4000 to 5000 miles. She will be manned by a crew of nine.

Following her trial trip she will proceed to Turtle Bay or Magdalena Bay, 500 miles south, where yellowfin and skipjack are in the midst of their northern migration.

Charles D. Clinch, vice-president of C. G. Clinch & Co., coastal dealers in marine paints, visited the company's local representative, A. R. Pegg, yesterday. Mr. Clinch came by plane and train from New York last week, following the death of an uncle in Los Angeles. He proceeded to San Francisco last night, and will go east again tomorrow.

William Higgins, longshoreman, 34 years of age, of 448 Fourteenth street, San Pedro, was fatally injured by a hatch cover on the Dutch freighter Benghalis at the outer harbor yesterday morning. An empty cargo sling caught the cover, which fell into the hold, fracturing Higgins's skull. He died two hours later at a harbor hospital. He leaves a bride of two months.

A record cargo of refined petroleum for ports in India is scheduled to go out on the Norwegian motorship Gisla due here from New York the 26th inst. The ship will take on 130,000 cases and 3000 drums of gasoline at Berth 57, all supplied by the Richfield Oil Company. McCormick Steamship Company is representing the ship.

Marking her second intercoastal voyage for Mallory Line the steamer Maltran arrived yesterday from the east coast to drop 1600 tons of steel and newsprint. The Malchee of the same line will follow out to the East Coast to drop 1600 tons of nitrate of soda, half for transhipment to Arizona, according to Capt. A. R. Paulsen, local representative.

News of Ships and Sailings at Pacific Ports

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16. (AP)—Indicating renewed activity in the redwood lumber industry, four large steamers are scheduled to call at Humboldt Bay within the next few weeks and load lumber for offshore ports. The steamer Point San Pablo will call at Eureka next Monday to load 450,000 feet of redwood lumber and ties for the West Indies. She will be followed by the Golden West, in September, which will take out 1,500,000 feet for New Zealand; the Kastelholm, which will load 1,400,000 feet, and a Japanese steamer which will take out 1,400,000 feet for the Antipodes.

With an unusually heavy summer passenger list of 330, and laden to the hatches with a valuable cargo of varied California products, the liner Mongolia, in command of Capt. George V. Richardson, will sail from here tomorrow for New York by way of Los Angeles, the canal and Havana.

PORTLAND (Or.) Aug. 16. (AP)—Products of the Far East, discharged from the Japanese steamer Rhyne Maru, are to be loaded aboard the steamer Dorothy Luckenbach, which arrived here tonight. The shipments are consigned to the east coast. Canned apples, wrapping paper, flour, seed and Northwest wool make up the balance of the Dorothy Luckenbach's cargo, Harry S. Eaton, district manager of the line, said.

Allotment of space on the steamer Hawaiian of the American-Hawaiian Line, which originally measured 3500 tons, has been expanded to 5000 tons, F. N. Mills, district manager, announced. The Hawaiian is scheduled to proceed to Longview and Astoria tomorrow for additional consignments of paper and salmon.

Pan-American Congress Told So by Hoover

Friendly Parleys Cementing Relations, He Says

Western Hemisphere Road Center of Discussions

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16. (Exclusive)—That an international discussion of highway problems and policies of the countries of the Western Hemisphere will be of great economic value and contribute materially to "further cementing the friendly and helpful relations that exist between the countries of the two Americas," was the belief expressed by President Hoover in a letter read to the delegates of the second Pan-American Congress of Highways, which opened at Rio De Janeiro today, according to cable advices received by the Pan-American Confederation for Highway Education.

The letter was read by J. Walter Drake, chairman of the United States delegation and formerly assistant Secretary of Commerce while President Hoover was chief of that department.

The present congress will be in session for two weeks and is being attended by delegates from virtually all Latin-American countries. The first congress, which also was attended by a large number of delegates, took place in Buenos Aires in 1925.

"The four years which have passed since the initial congress at Buenos Aires," the President further said in his letter, "have seen much progress made in the direction of improved highway transportation in all the countries of the New World and it is gratifying to know that the work of that congress and thereafter the efforts of the Pan-American Confederation for Highway Education have contributed materially to this result."

Much of the discussion is expected to center about the construction of additional links to the Pan-American Highway, the highway that will eventually connect the capitals of all countries in the Western Hemisphere, although the technical phases of highway building and economic policies involved will not be overlooked. The American delegation is expected to supply much information gained from road-building experience in the United States.

Undue Influence to be Charged in Snook Plea

COLUMBUS (O.) Aug. 16. (AP)—A charge that one or more of the jurors who sentenced Dr. James H. Snook to death by finding him guilty of the murder of Theora Hix was "unduly influenced" will be made when arguments are heard Monday on a motion for a new trial, his attorneys said today.

One of the jurors had decided against the 49-year-old defendant before they retired for their deliberations, E. O. Ricketts, one of Snook's attorneys, declared. The jury found him guilty on the first ballot, without a recommendation for mercy. The verdict was read twenty-eight minutes after the trial ended.

Other arguments for a new trial will be that the jury was prejudiced and that an outburst of applause which followed the final argument of County Prosecutor John J. Chester, Jr., was planned.

TWO TOURISTS BURNED

BUFFALO (Wyo.) Aug. 16. (AP)—Mrs. C. A. Callison and her niece, Betty Callison of Oswego, N. Y., were burned seriously when a specially built touring car was burned in a fire that started from explosion of a gasoline camp lamp last night.

LAKE RUM NAVY TO LOSE CANNON

Heavier Armament Will be Taken Off Vessels

Washington to Respect 1817 Pact With Canada

Machine Guns, Rifles and Pistols to be Kept

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16. (Exclusive)—Heavy guns carried by eight of a new fleet of twenty-four Coast Guard cutters ordered to the Great Lakes to combat the inflow of Canadian liquor will be removed at once in compliance with the American-Canadian treaty of 1817, it was learned at the Treasury Department tonight.

Arrivals of the new fleet on the waters of Lake Huron, Erie and Ontario will bring the American rum navy up to well above 100 armed vessels of various sizes.

Reports that Coast Guard vessels on the Great Lakes will be stripped of machine guns and rifles were denied tonight by Seymour Lowman, assistant Secretary of the Treasury in charge of customs, prohibition and Coast Guard.

TAKE OFF LARGE GUNS

Mr. Lowman said, however, that the eight vessels will be stripped of all guns above the caliber of the machine gun and the rifle and revolver. The seventy-five-foot vessels are armed with rapid-fire one-pounders, capable of sinking small rum runners which do not heave-to when ordered.

Assistant Secretary Lowman denied that the guns are being removed following the receipt of a protest from the Canadian government. The assistant Secretary asserted that none of the vessels now on the lakes carry guns larger than machine guns as the heavier armament had been removed when the Coast Guard cutters were first assigned to lake duty.

Mr. Lowman flatly denied that American rum chasers operating on the Great Lakes will be unarmed.

"We will not send Coast Guard cruisers out to combat rum runners unarmed," Mr. Lowman said. "The larger cutters will go armed with machine guns, regular rifles and revolvers. The smaller craft will have rifles and revolvers. Only the one-pounders and the heavier guns will be removed."

The Lowman statement was issued after reports had been received from Buffalo and Cleveland stating that all machine guns, cannon and rifles will be removed from the Coast Guard cutters operating on the lakes. Investigation disclosed that Commander Rasmussen, the officer in charge at Buffalo originally had ordered all machine guns and cannon removed from the eight vessels now on the lakes on their way to lake ports.

As soon as the Rasmussen order arrived in Washington, Capt. B. M. Chiswell, assistant commandant of the Coast Guard, issued an order directing that the machine guns and rifles should be retained. Capt. Chiswell acted on orders from Mr. Lowman.

Arrival of all of the twenty-four additional Coast Guard cutters at lake ports will provide the largest Great Lakes rum armada ever organized to fight the importation of liquor in that area.

OLD TREATY CITED

"Most of this furore over the disarming of Great Lakes Coast Guard cutters has arisen as a result of the orders calling for removal of the heavy ordnance from the eight large cutters which are now on the way to reinforce Coast Guard forces on the Great Lakes," Mr. Lowman said. "We have no intention of removing the machine guns. We thought, however, that it would be in violation of the old 1817 treaty with Canada, which forbids the use of armed naval vessels on the Great Lakes, if we allowed the larger Coast Guard cutters to use one-pounders, or other ordnance used on the ocean rum front. That is the reason for the order removing the larger guns. These weapons will be stored and replaced on the cutters when they return to the Atlantic."

Although Washington officials denied that the Canadian government has protested against the use of machine guns and cannon by Coast Guard cutters on the Great Lakes, it is believed that protests uttered in the Canadian Parliament some six months ago may have had something to do with the Treasury's decision.

TRUCK DRIVER'S FEELINGS HURT

"Usual Attentions" Paid Car at Curb Before Noting It's His Own!

CHICAGO, Aug. 16. (Exclusive)—William Kelly, a truck driver, appeared before Judge Burke today seeking an injunction restraining his wife from driving the family flivver. Kelly was late for dinner last night, he told the judge, so he drove home in the truck.

"I saw a flivver parked at the curb," Kelly told the judge, "but I didn't pay any more than the usual attention to it. I didn't notice until I had knocked the right fenders off that it was my own car."

The judge persuaded Kelly to go home and argue the matter out with his wife.

QUEST FOR FRUIT FLY DATA AIDED

Dr. Quayle to Get Federal Assistance in World Trip Tracing Dreaded Pest

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16. (Exclusive)—Dr. Henry J. Quayle, entomologist of the University of California, will have the close co-operation of the Federal government in the world-wide search for data on the Mediterranean fruit fly on which he soon is to embark, Dr. C. L. Marlatt, chief of the Bureau of Entomology, said today.

Dr. Marlatt said that Dr. Quayle left Riverside today and is expected here early next week to confer with him and other government officials on final plans for the trip which will start at New York the 25th inst. A statement giving the details of the cruise and of the government's part in it is being prepared by the Department of Agriculture for release Monday or Tuesday.

The expedition under Dr. Quayle's direction will remain away one year and will take in all Mediterranean points offering ground for study of the citrus-fruit pest. A vessel for the cruise has been leased from private owners and has been fully equipped with scientific apparatus. It will be a floating laboratory and the scientists on board will track the fruit fly to his native lair and there endeavor to learn facts which will assist in the campaign of eradication in this country.

ARSON PLOT CASE FOILED BY SUICIDE

Kansas City Man Shoots Self as Indictments Near for Fire Tragedies

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 16. (AP)—Dady M. Carey, indicted for first-degree murder as director of an asserted arson plot which killed three firemen and mentioned in connection with other property destruction, today took his own life with a revolver.

The indictment, by a special county grand jury, followed the appearance before that body of Charles J. Frederick, a city detective. In a signed statement Frederick charged Carey was responsible for the asserted arson blast on the 5th inst., for which he was indicted; for an explosion in June, 1925, which destroyed the Gillis Theater and killed six persons, and for other asserted arson acts.

Carey inflicted the fatal wound in a room in a downtown hotel a few minutes before three indictments were returned.

Late today two asserted companions of Carey in the most recent arson plot were arraigned on first-degree murder indictments. The men, Arch Glover and D. L. Piggott, previously had been charged in a State warrant with the same crime. They pleaded not guilty and were held for trial the 26th inst.

Two other men, Durwood Dailey and J. L. (Pat) Crowe, have not been indicted but are held without bond on State murder charges.

CHURCH OF J. F. NORRIS AFIRE AGAIN

Fort Worth Institution Has Been Dogged by Flames for Number of Years

FORT WORTH (Tex.) Aug. 16. (AP) The Educational Building of the First Baptist Church was damaged by fire of undetermined origin today. Dr. J. Frank Norris, fundamentalist, is pastor of the church.

The main church building was destroyed by fire last January, and workmen have been removing the ruins preparatory to erection of a new structure.

Virtually all fire-fighting equipment in the downtown section was called out to fight the flames. Police lines were established to control the crowd.

The church property is in the heart of the downtown business area.

Fire in past years persistently has pursued the fortunes of the First Baptist Church. In 1912 the main church building was burned and Dr. Norris was indicted and tried on charges of arson. After one of the most bitter court trials in the history of the State, he was acquitted.

American Tour Party Takes Poll on Recognition

Only Third Unqualifiedly in Favor of Such Action

WARSAW (Poland) Aug. 16. (AP)—The delegation of Americans who have been touring soviet Russia for business and professional observations, now that they are out of the U.S.S.R., have expressed their opinions as to American recognition of the ten-year-old Communist republic.

A poll taken among members of the junket after their twenty-five-days' tour, in which they covered 4000 miles, showed that only 33 1-3 per cent are unqualifiedly in favor of American recognition of the soviet union.

Sixty-six and two-thirds per cent insisted upon various conditions to that recognition. Fifty per cent made payment of the Czar's debts one of the conditions and 66 2-3 per cent made payment of the Kerensky regime debts another of the conditions.

Eighty-three per cent of those favoring recognition insisted on indemnification for American property confiscated during the revolution; 86 per cent insisted on guarantees against Communist propaganda in the United States.

Forty-three per cent of the total unqualifiedly believe soviet Russia offers a safe investment for American capital; 50 per cent believes American investments in soviet Russia will be safe only if the United States accords recognition to the soviet government; 14 per cent consider that American capital will not be safe in soviet Russia even if the American government decides to recognize the union.

LOVIN' MAN HAS HYMEN COMPLEX

Three of Irate Wives Go to Court, One's Missing and He's Engaged Again

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16. (AP)—Samuel Berger, 35 years of age, of Cleveland, was held under $2000 bail today after three of his four wives appeared in Police Court to tell of their romances with him, and police told about his fourth wife and his engagement to a prospective wife No. 5.

Berger's first wife, known as Mrs. Stella Berger, was the only one who did not appear against him. Police told Magistrate Oswald he married her in Denver in May, 1915.

Wife No. 2, Mrs. Gertrude Belfolb Berger of New York, told the court she married Berger in Los Angeles in October, 1925. Mrs. Rose Katz of Washington, D. C., said she was wife No. 3, and married Berger in Baltimore in December, 1927. Mrs. Beatrice Kuntz Berger of Philadelphia said she was Berger's latest spouse, and they were married in this city May 8, 1928.

A detective told the magistrate that Berger's plans to marry wife No. 5 in New York were disrupted by his arrest.

Berger, an interior decorator, told the court that lonesomeness led him into marital troubles.

"You see," he said, "I have to travel in my work and every time I got into a strange town I got lonesome. Whenever I got lonesome I went out and met a girl, and then I didn't stop until I married her."

SENATE CREDIT INQUIRY LIKELY

Fletcher Wants Committee to Survey Situation

Stock Market Deals Said to Warrant Action

Congress Probably Will Act on Issue This Session

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16. (AP)—The upward trend during the summer of loans to brokers by Federal Reserve member banks promises to lead to some sort of Congressional inquiry into the credit situation this fall.

Senator Fletcher of Florida, ranking Democrat on the Senate Banking Committee, today declared in favor of a survey of Federal credit conditions by the committee along the lines proposed in the pending resolution of Senator King, Democrat, Utah.

The King resolution, proposing a broad inquiry into stock market transactions and into the credit situation generally, is before the committee, which has held the view heretofore that the Federal Reserve Board already has power to curb loans for speculative purposes.

The Florida Senator, whose rank on the committee gives his views considerable influence, shares with Senator Glass, Democrat, Virginia, and Chairman Norbeck, the opinion that the board by stringent policies can check excessive use of Federal funds by stock market speculators. He believes, however, that the situation warrants a Senate inquiry.

He approves the recent decision of the reserve board sanctioning the rise in the rediscount rate of the New York Federal Reserve Bank to 6 per cent. He believes that is one method of curbing the use of Federal funds in stock market transactions. Since ample warning of such a rise was given, he feels it cannot be regarded as a penalty to legitimate business.

Chairman Norbeck is expected at the Capitol late in the month along with other members of the committee. If any action is taken, it is not expected before September.

Meanwhile, the reserve board has announced a decrease of $68,000,000 in the amount of loans to brokers and dealers by the New York Federal reserve member banks for the week ending the 14th inst. The loans to that date amounted to $5,952,000,000.

The amendment of Senator Glass to the tariff bill proposing a tax on stock market gains resulting from transactions of less than sixty days' duration very likely will bring the whole issue before the Senate during the extra session.

While there seems little likelihood that the Finance Committee will consider the Glass amendment there is no doubt the Virginian will press for a vote on it by the Senate when the tariff bill is up for action. Some Republican independents have announced their support of the proposal.

BELL TELEPHONE BUILDING 1929

THE BELL SYSTEM IS BUILDING AHEAD OF THE GROWTH OF THE COUNTRY

This is the telephone's job and goal

THE United States is developing a new civilization. The telephone is an indispensable element in it. The Bell System is building ahead of the growth of this civilization. In 1929 the telephone budget for land and buildings is 54 million dollars, with new buildings rising in 200 cities. New equipment for central offices will cost 142 millions; exchange lines 120 millions; toll lines 119 millions.

The Bell System's total expenditure for plant and service improvements this year will be 559 million dollars.

This outlay is required because the telephone is a universal servant of this democracy. Business uses it to create more prosperity. Homes use it for comfort and protection, for keeping friendships alive and enriching life. Its general use enables each personality to extend itself without regard to distance.

The telephone ideal is that anyone, anywhere, shall be able to talk quickly and at reasonable cost with anyone, anywhere else. There is no standing still in the Bell System.

Despite her beauty, charm, and wealth, an aristocratic Tacoma woman found herself hopelessly out of things—avoided alike by men and women.

Then, one day, she received a letter. Anonymous! Insulting. Enclosed was a Listerine advertisement on the matter of halitosis. Across it was written "Wake up." Today there is no happier or more popular woman.

People won't tell you when you have halitosis (unpleasant breath). It's too delicate a subject. They let you go on offending others—hanging yourself.

Since you, yourself, cannot tell when you have it, and since very few normal human beings escape it, why not play safe and use Listerine as a mouth wash 3 times a day? Thus you will be certain not to offend others.

Full strength Listerine ends halitosis instantly. Being an active germicide* it first attacks the germ conditions that so often cause odors and then being a powerful deodorant, destroys the odors themselves.

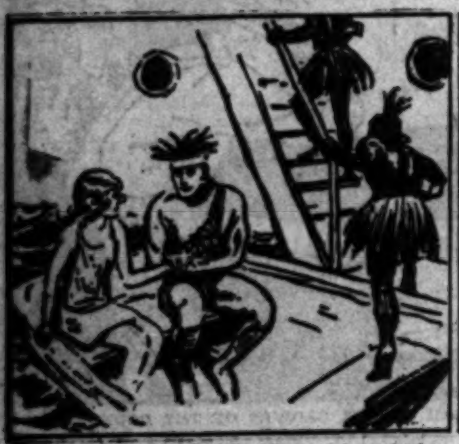
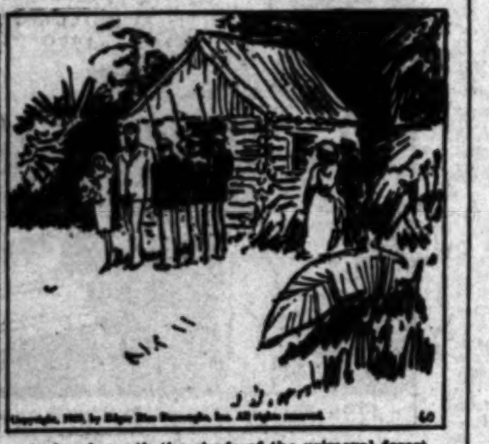
THE RETURN OF TARZAN

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

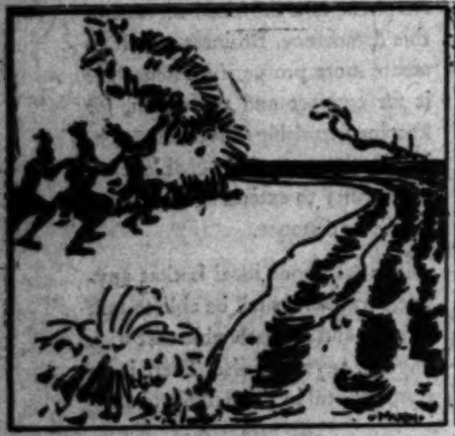


The next morning as they prepared to embark upon the cruiser, Tarzan said to Jane: "Wild beasts are supposed to be devoid of sentiment. But nevertheless, I should like to be married in the cabin where I was born, beside the graves of my mother and my father, and surrounded by the savage jungle that has always been my home."



Copyright, 1929, by Edgar Rice Burroughs, Inc. All rights reserved.

And so beneath the shade of the primeval forest there was a double wedding. For Lord Tennington had won the hand of Jane's friend, the American heiress. Afterward, as the cruiser got under way, Tarzan, immaculate in white, leaned against the rail, a graceful girl beside him. Filled with happiness, the forest-god bent down and kissed his mate upon her lips.



Twenty naked, black warriors, waving war spears above their heads, shouted farewell to their king as he departed on the "great canoe." And Tarzan, waving good-by, said to his wife: "I should hate to think that I am looking upon the jungle for the last time, dear, were it not that I know I am going to a new world of happiness with you forever."

Tarzan of the Apes Did Not Know That Already a Plot Was Being Hatched Against Him. Because of It He Again Went to His Beloved Jungle.

Visitors Rally in Ninth for Two Markers

BROOKLYN, Aug. 16. (AP)—Fine pitching by Ray Moss caused the Cubs to pause, if only momentarily, in their pennant journey this afternoon. The young Brooklyn hurler shut out the Bruins for eight rounds and survived a ninth-inning rally to triumph over Charley Root by 5 to 2.

Charley Root

The battle was scoreless until the home seventh, when Brooklyn batters fell upon Root for three runs after being held to two hits up to that point. In the next round Johnny Frederick hit a homer with one on base. Stephenson's single and doubles by Grimm and Hartnett made up the dying rally of the Cubs.

The defeat, coupled with the victory of the Pirates in Boston, reduced the margin of the Cubs to seven and one-half games. Score:

MINNEAPOLIS (Minn.) Aug. 16. (AP)—Jack Dempsey, his near ring double, Max Schmeling, and Joe Jacobs, the German heavyweight's manager, will meet in a conference tomorrow in Chicago, Jacobs announced today, and a proposed bout between Schmeling and Dempsey to be held next summer may be agreed upon. Another rumored plan that may be discussed at the conference is that Schmeling box under the direction of the Manassa Mauler, in case they do not meet in a fight. Jacobs believes that a match between the two heavyweights would draw a gate of $2,000,000.

New Rochelle Netter Gains Revenge Over Britisher

RYE (N. Y.) Aug. 16. (AP)—William T. Tilden of Philadelphia and Francis T. Hunter of New Rochelle gained the final round of the eastern grass-court tennis singles championship today. They will meet tomorrow afternoon for the title won last year by John Doeg of Santa Monica, Cal.

BILL TILDEN.

Tilden eliminated Doeg in the semifinals today, 6-3, 3-6, 6-4, 6-4, after Hunter had defeated the English crack H. W. (Bunny) Austin, 6-4, 3-6, 6-2, 1-6, 6-1.

During the first set and part of the second of his match with Doeg, Tilden displayed the sort of tennis expected of him. He was pitted against a youngster who possesses a service more severe than Tilden's and the national ranking star had to attend strictly to business to make sure of his games. Doeg's service was so effective in the first set that during the fourth game he shot over three lightning-like shots in a row of service that scored perfect aces on Tilden and produced snickers and laughter from the gallery. Games in this set followed service until the eighth, when Tilden broke through for a 5-3 game lead and then took the next on his own cannon-ball service.

In the second set, games again followed service until the fourth game when it was Doeg's turn to break through and take the following game for a 4-1 lead. Games then again fol-

Ed Baecht, the Jack Keefe of the Angel mound corps, made Ike Boone, Fuzzy Hufft and the rest of the Mission sluggers roll over and play dead out at Wrigley Field yesterday while his mates banged the combined offerings of Herman Pillette and Caster for an easy 8-to-2 victory. Baecht let the slugging Reds down with seven hits and shouldn't have had a run scored off him until the ninth when Ike Boone hoisted a high fly that just dropped into the right-field bleachers for the circuit. champions were today when the curtain was run down on the ninth annual Southern California Yachting Association after four days of the most spirited competition in West Coast sailing history.

Today's series in the eight-meter R, six-meter Star and an arbitrary handicap for larger boats wound up the regatta program and like each of the preceding days, the sailing contests were as thrilling as any ever staged in this beautiful harbor.

The battle in the I class and the six-meter division was most outstanding here this afternoon as these two classes were up in the air until the final gun. Owen Churchill clinched the matter in the R class by taking today's race with as nice a sailing performance on the Friendship as has ever been given. HONOLULU (T. H.) Aug. 16.—Honolulu turned out en masse today to welcome Los Angeles Junior Olympic champions. Officials, newspaper men, private citizens and a Hawaiian girls' band were on hand to greet Robert San Jose, Vane Baker, Fernando Ramos and Jerry Deal when they stepped off the steamship City of Honolulu onto this playground of the Pacific.

Just one hour later the four champion athletes and the writer were frolicing in the clear waters of Waikiki Beach trying to master the none-too-gentle art of surfboarding. Speedy Dado, the Filipino buzzsaw, received stiffer opposition than expected from Tommy Hughes, Cleveland flyweight, but he carried off the decision after ten exciting rounds in last night's Hollywood Legion arena.

SPEEDY DADO

A packed house turned out for the battle and witnessed three knockdowns. Hughes was floored twice by the "Brown Doll of the Philippines," but got some satisfaction out of dropping Dado once. Dado came out of the scrap credited with winning six rounds, Hughes

FIELDS MAY ACCEPT DATE FOR OLYMPIC BOUT SOON

Jackie Fields may appear at the Olympic the third week in September. This was the announcement made by the club yesterday.

JACKIE FIELDS

It would be the new champion's first bout since he won the world's welterweight title from Joe Dundee in Detroit last month.

His opponent would be the winner of the Dummy Mahan-Gorilla Jones bout slated for next Tuesday night. The bout would be over the weight and be held inside. Matchmaker Wad Wadhams has a conference scheduled with Gig Rooney today.

Dan Thomas, who saw the negro work yesterday at the Manhattan Gymnasium, says he is a black ringer for Jimmy McLarnin in style and hitting.

The Olympic expects to sign Ace Hudkins this morning to box Vincent Forgione September 10. Hudkins is taking the place of Joe Anderson. Jimmy Dougherty signed for Anderson two days ago and did not know the Kentuckian was out of commission, due to a bad eye. Hudkins is getting a guarantee, it is said.

Forgione has beaten Homer Sheridan, Joe Roche and Eddie Burnbrook in a row. The Italian is one of the toughest men ever to come to the Coast from the East.

Wadhams talked to William Neal by long-distance phone in Seattle and learned that Wildcat Carter's bout with Billy Townsend has been set back to the 28th inst. Neal said he and Carter would fly to Los Angeles the following day by plane in

JONES DUE WEDNESDAY

Bobby Coming from Atlanta in Private Car to Play Exhibition at Los Angeles Saturday

BY EDWARD LAWRENCE

Robert Tyre Jones, Jr., national amateur golf champion, will arrive in Los Angeles at 2:15 Wednesday afternoon.

Bobby will make his headquarters at the Biltmore Hotel, but outside of an exhibition match with Charles "Chick" Evans, George Von Elm and Jack Neville over the north course of the Los Angeles Country Club on Saturday, he has made no definite plans for his stay here.

BOBBY JONES.

In a recent letter to D. Scott Chisholm, sponsor of the exhibition match, Bobby has explained his position in reference to entertainment as follows:

"I shall be, of course, delighted to attend the dinner of the California Golf Writers' Association at the Biltmore Hotel on August 23, but I wish you would tell your scribes to inform your very hospitable citizens who have kindly sent me hundreds upon hundreds of invitations to play golf and dine how impossible it will be for me to attend any functions in Los Angeles outside of your dinner and the exhibition match. It is truly a terrific strain to be entertained all the time and when the good people of California realize that I am going west to defend my title and also to see your country, they will realize what an awful strain it is to accept invitations.

"I do not wish to be rude to anyone, but the mental and physical strain which a national golf championship calls for is about the most nerve-wracking thing in all the world. Please tell your people all this in a nice way."

BOB JONES.

Bobby, or Bob as he signs his letters, is coming west in a private car, surrounded by his personal friends. In the party will be Mrs. Jones, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Jones. O. B. Keller of the Atlanta Journal and his wife, and a few other close friends.

After seeing as much of Los Angeles as his limited time will permit, Jones plans to motor north on Sunday to Pebble Beach. He will probably stop at Santa Barbara for a short time to look over the La Cumbre Country Club course, scene of the national P. G. A. championship in December, and other points of interest along the way. This is Bobby's first trip west, and he wants to make the most of it.

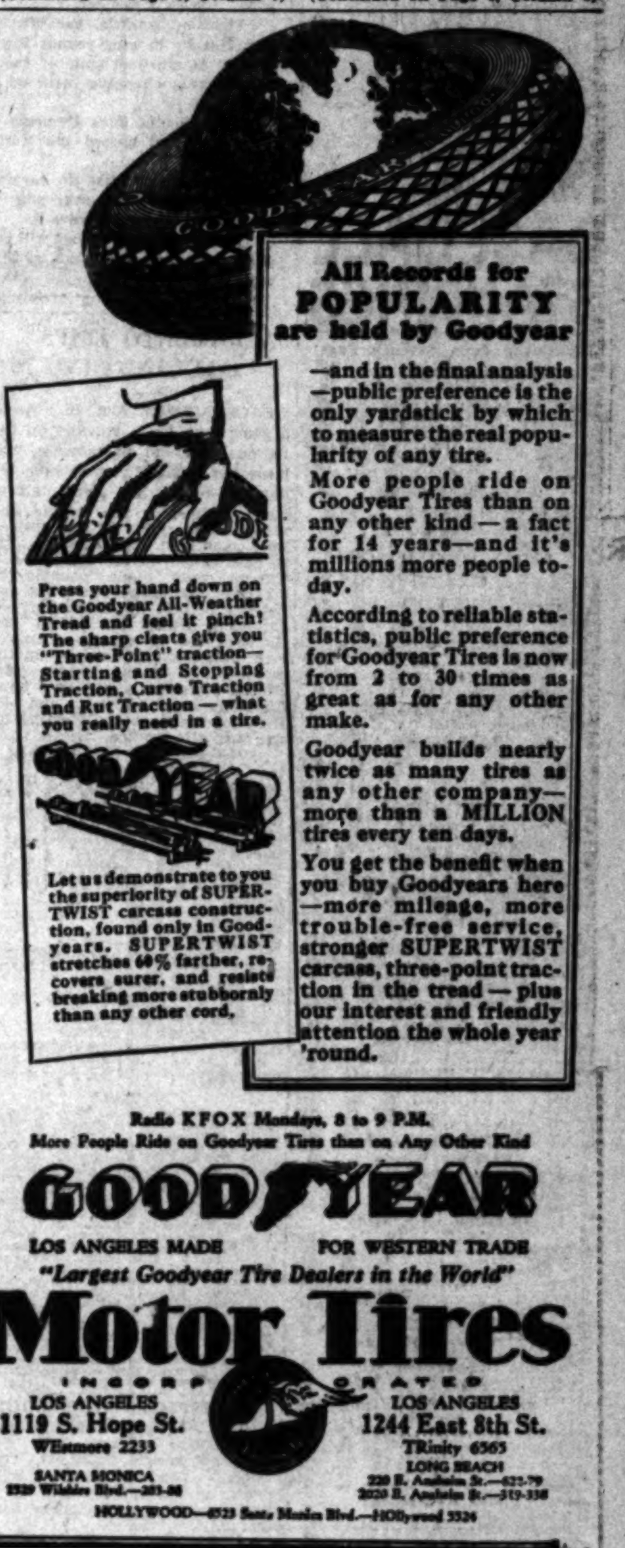
GERMAN SKIPPERS LEAD AMERICAN YACHTSMEN

MARBLEHEAD (Mass.) Aug. 16. (AP)—The German skippers went into the lead over their American rivals in the national square-meter class yachts series for the President Hoover and Marblehead cups today by taking the third of the five races being sailed off here.

This morning's race went to the visiting yachtsmen, 11 points to 10, the score by which the Americans won yesterday's race. The afternoon victory was more decisive. Germany capturing both first and second places and scoring 12 points to the Americans' 9. Germany now has 33 points to the Americans' 30.

The Kickerle, with Wilhelm Rattsch at the helm, was first over the line in both of today's contests. The Hathi, sailed by Johannes Theede, insured a German victory in the third race when she glided across the line in second place.

Although she was the last home in the morning, 18-year-old Elizabeth Hovey of Brookline, the first woman international racing skipper, brought the Oriole in third in the afternoon, finishing ahead of the other two American yachts.



All Records for POPULARITY are held by Goodyear

Walt Spence, Holder of Three World's Titles May Compete in Times Pre-Olympic Sw

AQUATIC STAR COMING WEST

Champ to Race in National Meet in Bay City

Deauville Club Swimmers Enter En Masse

Hilda Curtis, Miss Lowe File Entries

Walt Spence, holder of three world's swimming records, probably will compete in The Times pre-Olympic swim. This was announced yesterday by Charley Keppen, director of the race, who stated he had received a telegram from Spence asking for a chance to talk over the event on his arrival here Tuesday from New York.

WALTER SPENCE

Spence is flying west to compete in the national championships at San Francisco. He leaves New York tomorrow and will arrive Tuesday. The races in the north start Thursday.

Spence holds world's records in the 100-meter, 200-yard and 200-meter breast stroke events, and won the all-around indoor swimming championships this year.

Practically every member of the Deauville Beach Club swimming team will be entered in The Times classic, Tom Peirce, coach of the club natators, announced yesterday. Peirce is staging a long-distance event one week following the Times swim, which is scheduled for September 1, and he intends to have most of his stars enter the Times event as a practice swim, as well as a chance to take the pre-Olympic honors.

Outstanding members of the Deauville team are Sheldon and Jack White. The former was an early finisher in the Silver Gate swim at San Diego, and took fifth place at the Lake Arrowhead.

The Deauville swim will be somewhat longer than the Times' event. The September 1 contest will be seven-eights of a mile, while the September 8 swim will be about two and one-half miles. The latter event will start at the Sea Breeze Club, and the course calls for three laps from the Sea Breeze to the Deauville, back to Sea Breeze and to the Deauville again. Entries are now being accepted from all A.A.U. registered swimmers.

Acceptance of three more entries—two of them from women—was also announced yesterday by Keppen. Hilda Curtis and Marjorie Lowe are the first two women to sign up. Most of the local feminine natators are on their way back from Honolulu where they competed in the national championships. It is freely expected that they will file their entries on their return. The entries to date:

1—Austin Clapp, H.A.C.
2—George Harris, H.A.C.
3—Frank Walton, H.A.C.
4—Weston Kimball, H.A.C.
5—McGowan Miller, H.A.C.

PADDOCK AGAIN

MR. CHARLES W. PADDOCK seems to have the A.A.U. gasping for air. His latest charges against that august body in the current issue of a national magazine have brought the colored gentleman in the woodpile out into the open again.

Mr. Avery Brundage, president of the A.A.U., gallops into print with a statement that the one-time "fastest human's" article is full of inaccuracies and untruths.

And he further says that such an outburst is just what might have been expected from one who has repeatedly capitalized his athletic fame.

Such a frank statement leads one to suspect that Mr. Brundage might be equally frank in clearing up the "payroll charge" that Ray Barbuti, America's only winner in the flat races at Amsterdam, told about last winter.

But Mr. Brundage has glossed over this matter with such disarming forgetfulness that nobody but Paddock's sworn enemies—and he has legion in A.A.U. ranks—will pay a great deal of attention to Mr. Brundage's broadcast.

One of Paddock's charges that he was purposely unplaced in the Olympic 100-meter tryouts at Boston last summer I have heard verified a number of times.

This was in one of the semi-final heats. The original announcement was Quinn first, Paddock second and Bracey third. This shut out Jackson Scholz, who really finished ahead of Bracey. But the judges changed their ruling and gave Paddock's place to Scholz and left Bracey in the lists.

This was said to have been done with the intention of keeping Paddock off the Olympic team.

He had trained exclusively for the 100 meters and did not figure on running the 200 meters, but did so later to make a place on the squad after being shut out in the 100 meters.

GODFREY AND HAWKINS

AT last we have a solution for handling the fistic difficulties between those Senegambian giants, the Messrs. Godfrey and Hawkins, both of whom were unable to keep their punches elevated at the Olympic the other night.

For there is to be another fight—here, there or somewhere. The situation demands it. Here is Godfrey, who has been strutting around with the black heavyweight championship of the world and challenging all the white heavies. And here is Hawkins, who won on a foul from him and who was more than holding his own the other night.

So there is bound to be another session, particularly when both of these dusky gents has a manager capable of doing considerable talking about the matter.

But the point is this—the fight must not end in a foul.

And the perfect way of preventing it is the use of pneumatic abdominal guard which has been approved by the boxing commissions of both New York and Connecticut.

Put one on each boxer and then let them slug it out.

Let it be a fight to the finish. Anything goes—low blows or high blows.

Since the adoption of this guard by the New York commission the foul-blow epidemic in that State has fallen off appallingly.

The guard cannot be dented by the heaviest blow of a boxer's glove.

Mr. Joe Waterman, who runs a fight club in Seattle with Nate Druckman and has handled boxers for many years, says it is the greatest invention in boxing history.

So strong is Mr. Waterman for the guard that he says he is willing to put one on and let Mr. Frank Moran hit him with all his might with his famous "Mary Ann."

The pneumatic guard in question is the invention of a Yonkers (N. Y.) man named Kennedy.

It is an affair that the State Athletic Commission could well afford to investigate.

A PAMPAS PROSPECT

ANOTHER Luis Angel Firpo?

Well, I wonder.

Victorio Campolo, the 6ft. 7in. giant from Argentina, stopped Tom Heeney in nine rounds the other night, but Heeney never did amount to much in spite of the fact that he was selected by Gene Tunney as a chopping block on which to write his valedictory last summer.

Firpo fought Jack Dempsey when the Manassa Mauler was in his prime, and missed the world's heavyweight bauble only by a whisker.

Campolo may have the earmarks, but he will have to show something besides victory over poor old Tom Heeney, the broken Rock from Down Under, to prove it.

At any rate his victory will give the scribes something besides the daily "yes" and "no" stuff of Max Schmeling and his managers to write about.

SACRAMENTO TRIPS OAKLAND NINE, 10-9

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 16. (AP)—In a game that was a travesty on the national pastime Sacramento won from the Oakland Acorns here today, 10 to 9. Six errors, all of which figured in the scoring and made life miserable for the hurlers, were committed. The Oaks appeared to have sewed up the game with a six-run rally made possible by an error by Hoag, but Silva donated a boot to the Solon cause in the same frame, the eighth, and the Sacs tied the game up. Dumovich walked Gould to force in the winning run in the ninth after Fenton overthrew second on a bunt, filling the bases. Edwards and McEvoy for the Oaks and Keating for the Sacs also worked. SAVAGE FAVORED TO WIN OVER BOROLA

George Savage, who has the Coast's longest list of knockout wins, has been made a favorite over Joe Borola, Mexican 130-pound star, in tonight's battle at the Main Street Athletic Club. Borola gained local fame by twice beating Kano Nakamura, Japanese southpaw. Savage has kayoed Wendell Long, Tiger Napoleon, Nash Calderon, Johnny Burd, Frankie Abendino and scores of others.

Gus Paranaque, Filipino puncher, and Bobby Garcia, 120-pound "Mexican Mickey Walker," clash in the other half of the double wind-up. Another Filipino, Pablo Alejo, meets Manuel Trevino at 122 pounds in the semi-wind-up. Three other bouts complete the program.

Chicago Signs Thirteen Year Old Ball Star

NEW YORK, Aug. 16. (AP)—The Cubs set a new Major League record today by signing a player just thirteen years old. He is "Red" Solomon, manager and third baseman of the New York Kiwanis Club team. Despite his extreme youth, an agreement was entered into between the boys parents and manager Joe McCarthy regarding the contract. Waite Hoyt, signed by the Giants in 1915 at the age of sixteen, previously was the youngest major league recruit.

NEW YACHTING KINGS CROWNED

windward leg and she was never headed. The Maribel finished second and Joe Jessop's Angela, third.

By virtue of today's victory, one on Wednesday, and a third place last Monday, the Friendship took the series with 13 1-2 points. Lee Brawner was second with 12 points, and Jessop's Angela, third, with 10 1-4 points.

The heady sailing of that sly fox from San Francisco, Arthur Rousseau, again counted for the six-meter championship of the sloop Maybe. Rousseau, winner of the San Diego Lipton yesterday, was forced to take second to Al Rogers's Synnov in the last of the series staged here this afternoon, but the Maybe had rolled up enough margin in the other two races to nose out the Southland yachts for the title. The Maybe, flying the burgee of the Corinthian Yacht Club of San Francisco, rolled up a total of 10 1-4 points to 9 1-4 points for Tommy Lee and his Harpoon, of the California Yacht Club, which finished third in today's race. Rogers's Synnov was third, with 7 1-4, and Doc Wilson's Clio, fourth, with 4 digits to her credit.

Al Rogers swung out in front with Synnov and aided and abetted by a southwester which kicked up a twelve-mile blow, he held the lead throughout the twelve-mile reach. Rousseau skippered the Maybe into second place. Tommy Lee was behind him, and the Clio followed bringing up the rear.

RUNAWAY RACE

Walton Hubbard and his Gold Star Tempe III, made a runaway of the Star boat race this afternoon, winning a convincing victory over a field of twenty-two starters. Tom and Bob Webster finished two seconds ahead of the Plumb boys' Westward in their Tom Robin.

The Plumb youngsters, by taking third today, cinched the series and the championship, nosing out Hubbard by three-fourths of a point. The Westwind had 57 1-4 and the Tempe III, 56 1-2. K. Coffey's Maystar was next, with 45 points.

Owen Churchill's King of Spain trophy holder, the Babe, again demonstrated that she is a better eight-meter than the Monidah of San Francisco, by copping her third straight victory over the Bay City rival.

The Babe had the eight-meter championship tucked away on Thursday, so today Ted Conant took over the Monidah with his crew and Stuart Haldron went over to the Churchill boat. The Babe showed that she can almost win without any help by beating her San Francisco rival again with a strange skipper aboard. To give the Monidah credit she did put up a better fight of it in today's race. The San Francisco eight-meter actually had the lead on the Babe for awhile, but when they leveled out for the final finish line, Churchill's little racing yacht just took her sailing bit in her mouth and breezed home in front by a boat length.

PRETTY PICTURE

The eights presented a pretty picture as they raced over the twelve-mile triangular course, leaving everything behind them. They passed some of the bigger boats which were racing in an arbitrary handicap, like an express train goes by a slow freighter.

C. Reynolds's Wetona took the event for schooners, yawls and ketches. Bayadere, owned by C. Dabne, was second; Mitchell and Wiman's Wimich, third. Spaulding's Westward, the scratch boat in this event, found her handicap too much, finishing eleventh.

The power boat championship in Class C, was decided here this morning. H. M. Hap Hazzard's Zip won both heats on the waters of Montecito Bay to romp off with a title. Don Miller, one of Knute Rockne's famous horsemen of Notre Dame, took his turn in Mrs. Scott's Whippet to cop second prize. Miller copped one third and one second. At one time it looked as though he was trying to carry the boat around end for a touchdown. Miss Lottie Trumbull, in her Sunkist Kid II, found the going rough, but able to gather in a third-place prize.

Zip's time for the first heat was 8m. 57.5s., with Kegolivitch's Black Mist second, and Miller, third. Miller might have gotten second but he was trying to figure out how the skipper of the Black Mist spelled his name and lost his chance.

Zip's winning time in the second race was 11m. 45.2s. Galloping Don made this a real race only losing the lead on the last lap. His time was 11m. 55s. Jack Burhart's Phantom was third, in 14m. 55.5s.

BRESSLER SUSPENDED FOR INCITING RIOT

BROOKLYN, Aug. 16. (AP)—President John Heydler of the National League notified Rube Bressler of the Brooklyn club today, that he had been suspended for five days, for inciting the near-riot at yesterday's game with the Cubs here.

ed his own cause by lacing out two singles and a double in four times at bat. Walter Berger, performing before the critical eyes of Jack Doyle, the Chicago Cub scout, also got three hits, one of his blows clearing the left-field wall for a his thirtieth homer of the season. All of which would indicate that beaning Berger received Thursday didn't interfere with his batting eye. The young Cherub outfielder was again hit today by Caster, but this time the ball caught him on the wrist as he was dropping to the dirt.

Bobby Jones, who has been hitting the ball hard since he got back into the regular line-up, also assisted the Angel cause with three solid smacks, and reached first a fourth time on Sherlock's error.

KILLEFER SUSPENDED

Radiant Red Killefer, the Mission manager, was among those not present. Killefer was handed an indefinite suspension by President Harry A. Williams for his set-to with Umpire Cady in Thursday's clash. Eddie Mulligan handled the Reds during Killefer's absence.

The Angels found Pilette's offerings much to their liking and had big Herman taking a shower after four innings. Six runs and eight hits were collected off Pilette during his short tenure on the mound and the other two scores were made off young Caster in the fifth. After being presented with a good margin to work with, Baecht never had to worry.

Fred Haney started the Angels off on a two-run splurge in the opening inning by blasting a single to right. While Slade was tossing Statz out at first, Haney streaked all the way to third for an exhibition of fancy base running. Webb's out scored Haney and then Berger homed over the left-field fence.

With one away in the second Jones slapped a double down the right-field line and scored on Baecht's timely single to left. There were two away when the Angel chucker delivered the first of his three safeties.

REDS GET EASY RUN

Webb lost Hofmann's fly in the sun and it fell for a double to start trouble in the Mission third. Pillette finally fanned after spending about five minutes fouling off three-and-two pitches, but Hofmann got to third when Baecht let loose a wild pitch. Haney tossed out Rodda to hold Hofmann at third, but Finn, who is giving Dick Kinsella, Giant scout, something to look at, came through with his second hit of the game to bring the Mission catcher home. Another wild pitch put Finn on second, but Webb speared Boone's line drive for the third out.

The run seemed to make the Cherubs mad, for they came back with a trio of tallies in their half of the third to practically ice the encounter. Statz, Webb and Berger led off with singles for a run and Tolson's bunt sent runners to second and third. Jacobs hit a sacrifice fly to Hufft that brought Webb home. Jones slapped a hot one back to Sherlock, who made a poor throw to Pillette as the pitcher came over to cover first, and Bobby was safe and Berger scored. Sandberg generously ended the round by grounding out, Slade to Sherlock.

TOLSON HITS HOMER

Caster started pitching in the fifth and Berger greeted him with a single. Slug Tolson followed with a "spite" home run over the left-field wall and the Angels had completed their scoring for the afternoon. Tolson smiled broadly, doffed his cap to the press box as he rounded the bases, which evidently proved that he read a note in one of the morning papers which wondered when Slug last hit a ball in the general direction of left field.

The Reds threatened after two were out in the seventh when Clown Christensen singled and Slade doubled, but Baecht retired Hofmann to end the round scorelessly.

Boone, first up in the ninth, dropped one into the right-field bleachers for his fourth homer of the series and the final Mission run.

Bert Cole will try to southpaw the Seraphs into submission today, while either Augie Walsh or Clyde Barfoot will came back at the Reds. Score:

ISLANDS GREET OLYMPIC KINGS

and immediately started the welcoming celebration.

Al Wesson, purveyor of publicity at the University of Southern California, who is visiting his father here, was another who was on hand to welcome the boys, and has arranged a "luau" for Sunday night at the boys' school of which his father is the head. A "luau" is a type of native festival.

During their stay in the islands the boys are the guests of the Waikiki Tavern. All hands announced that the trip on the palatial liner was the "best ever." No one suffered any ill effects, while Baker, Deal and Ramos won prizes in deck sports. All four boys proved immensely popular with the passengers on the ship, while Ramos was the chief figure in the local celebration. Fernando was born in the Philippine Islands and lived here for some twelve years before his family moved to the mainland.

DADO DEFEATS TOMMY HUGHES

taking three and the other being rated even.

Dado first floored Hughes with a right to the chin in the second, but Tommy bounded right up. In the seventh Dado went down momentarily from one of Hughes's punches. Dado's best round was the ninth, when he dropped Hughes for the count of four and later caught him on the chin with a left hook that had Tommy groggy at the bell.

Clayton Gouyd, Hollywood favorite, and Jackie Caston, San Francisco bantam, battled six rounds to a draw in the semi-wind-up. There was plenty of windmill swinging, but neither boy was able to gain an advantage. In a previous bout between the two Caston copped the decision.

Herbert Turchi, an L.A.A.C. product, took the nod over Art Molino, local 128-pounder, in the six-round special event. In the other bouts Frankie Diaz had Frankie Abendino out on his feet in the second round and was awarded a technical kayo by Referee Dolan, and Jimmy Jones stopped Manuel Victorio in the third round of the curtain-raiser.

JOE CORDOZA FOULS BARBOUR IN SEVENTH

Red Barbour, hard-hitting Navy middleweight, won from Joe Cordoza, Los Angeles middleweight, on a foul in the seventh round of last night's scheduled ten-round main event at Ventura. In the other bouts Kenneth Johnson trimmed Eddie Ruckman in the six-round semi-wind-up; Robert Edwards beat Jimmy Lyle in the six-round special; Oliver Brockman won over Leon Manson in a four-rounder, and Henry Marscal kayoed Robert Gray in the second round of the opener.

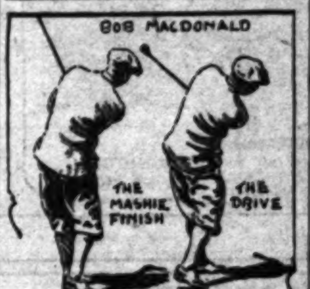
Shot Finishes Differ



BY SOL METZGER

Many readers write me wanting to know why the finish of a wooden shot should be different from an iron. That is not a difficult question to answer. In the first play the shafts of your woods are longer and you play the ball a greater distance from the feet. You also use a more square stance. So you have to swing the clubhead out, through and around to your left.

The iron shots—let's take the mashie for an example—are played from a closer lie and a much more open stance. You swing more compactly, that is, straight down and through, throwing the clubhead at the flag. As the club's shaft is much shorter you can do these things. Incidentally, there is not the same tremendous effort. Result, with the mashie the club swings through and follows after the ball. As the effort has been less the clubhead does not come around as far. As the swing is straighter, the club follows more directly ahead.

BOBBY JONES IS DUE WEDNESDAY

filed to date for the annual $1000 Spreckels Cup championship, which will be played over the Coronado Country Club course next week, and prospects are good for a field of approximately 125. Entries will be accepted until 6 o'clock tomorrow night, at which time they must be in the hands of Bob Simpson, Coronado professional.

The Spreckels cup event annually draws a number of low handicap players from Texas. Among those from the "Lone Star" State this year are K. D. Harrison of San Angelo, Tex., southwestern amateur champion, who is considered to have an excellent chance of winning the silverware. Other out-of-State entrants are Bobby Goldwater, one-handicap man from Phoenix, and Logan L. Van Vant of Tulsa, Okla., who plays to a two-handicap.

In practice rounds recently, Jack Gaines of Girard, the defending champion, and Warner Edmonds of Stanford have both equaled par figures with 72. Ward Edmonds, three times San Diego county champion, registered a 73 yesterday.

Play starts Monday with the first eighteen holes of the qualifying round. The second eighteen will be played Tuesday, and the low sixteen for thirty-six holes will make up the Spreckels Cup flight.

Match play starts Wednesday. All matches will be 18 holes except the semifinals Saturday and the finals Sunday, which will go 36 holes.

Local golfers have annexed the cup every year since the event was inaugurated in 1924. Willie Hunter, former British amateur champion, now professional at Montebello Park, was the first winner. Allen Moser brought the trophy back in 1925 and 1926. Fay Coleman won in 1927, and Gaines was returned the victor last year.

WORLD'S DRIVING CHAMPIONSHIP PLANNED AT DEL MONTE

Who is the world's longest driving amateur?

If it is found possible, a contest may be held at Pebble Beach during the national amateur championship at Pebble Beach two weeks hence to decide that question.

Practically every amateur who has any claim to that distinction will be on hand for the classic. Among those who "sock the ball a mile" are Cyril Tolley, the British amateur champion, who is generally accepted as the longest driver in the world; Francis Brown of Honolulu, a noted long hitter; Phil Finlay and Dave Martin, two Southern California representatives; Chuck Hunter of Seattle; Jess Guilford, and last but not least, Bobby Jones, who hits terrific woods.

MERCURY DIVERS OFF FOR BAY CITY EVENT

Three diving stars of the Los Angeles Athletic Club leave tomorrow for San Francisco, where they will compete in the 1929 men's national outdoor championships, scheduled for the Fleischacker pool the 22nd to 25th inst.

The three, who will be accompanied by Coach Fred Cady, are Mickey and Johnny Riley and Harold (Dutch) Smith. Riley is the present holder of every men's diving title and will defend two of them at San Francisco. Smith was runner-up to Riley in two events during the indoor championships at New York in April and will again be favored to grab off two seconds at San Francisco. Johnny Riley, brother of Mickey, will be entering his first national meet at San Francisco. He sprang into fame recently when he finished second to Mickey and ahead of Smith at the Mile High Lake Arrowhead meet.

MIXED FOURSOME EVENT SCHEDULED FOR RANCHO

Invitation mixed foursomes will be featured at the Rancho Golf Club today and Secretary Leon Keller announced yesterday that prospects are bright for a banner turnout. As usual, Rancho will have a large representation of its members. There is, however, a dearth of feminine partners, and Keller has promised to provide partners for all members of the women's auxiliary who care to play in the event.

The tournament will be followed by a dinner-dance in the evening.

SOUTHLAND PREP STARS ENROLL AT CALIFORNIA

BERKELEY, Aug. 16. (Exclusive) Southern California contributed heavily today to the University of California's freshman football team for 1929 when the second day's registration was undertaken for the fall semester. Heading the delegation of football lights from the Southland was Dick Tozer, the 200-pound, six-foot end from Venice. Tozer was all-Southern California prep end in 1924 when his Venice High School team worked its way to the semifinals of the Southern California championship.

Through the efforts of Tozer largely the Venetians defeated Santa Monica High School for the first time in the thirteen years of competition between these two institutions. Tozer is a wonder on the receiving end of forward passes on account of his height and agility. He is a mountain to overcome on the defensive and aside from an intuitive knowledge of the way a play is going it is impossible to wear him down.

Bov Flavel from Oneonta High School is also from the south as are John Wilkinson, a tackle, and Hector Makenzie, an end. Santa Monica sent up "Brick" Barnum, a heavy set hard-hitting guard. In addition to these, promising men from the sunny south, Coach Clarence (Brick) Mitchell is looking for good work from Bob Casey, Taft; Augustus Castro, San Luis Obispo; Doug Powers, Rusty Jacobs and Ernie Steadman, all from Oroville.

Mel Ord, brother of the University of Oregon quarterback, has registered from Turlock, where he is credited with running the 100 in close to ten seconds. Although he is registered with the Golden Bears, Louis De Martini, the flashy backfield star from Stockton High School, will be unable to turn out for football immediately because he is still under doctor's care for an appendicitis operation.

CHICAGO COPS

CHICAGO, Aug. 16. (AP)—The White Sox beat Washington, 8 to 6, in a free-hitting game this afternoon. Tommy Thomas was touched for sixteen safeties over the nine-inning route, but a pair of errors and an accident to Rice in the eighth defeated the Senators.

Burke and Hadley divided the pitching burdens. The White Sox collected a total of thirteen hits, one of which was a home run into the left-field stand by Carl Reynolds.

Rice was injured when Cissell's triple bounced off his glove and struck him in the face. He was taken from the game painfully hurt.

BOSTON BOWS

BOSTON, Aug. 16. (AP)—The Pirates came out of their batting slump today, hammering two Boston pitchers for fifteen hits, and won their second victory of three games here, 9 to 3. Manager Bush shifted the Pittsburgh line-up, sending Paul Waner to first base and Fred Brickell to right field.

Traynor had a perfect day at bat, hitting two singles and two doubles, and drove in three runs. Brickell, with a three-base hit and two singles, drove in four runs. Lester Bell of the Braves got a home run to start the fourth inning.

By winning while the Cubs lost to Brooklyn, the Pirates reduced Chicago's lead to seven and a half games. The score:

ATHLETICS BUILDING STANDS FOR SERIES

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16. (AP)—While the management of the Philadelphia Athletics is shooing away all applications for world's series tickets on the ground that the team has not yet won the American League pennant, preparations for the October classic are in evidence. Photographers' stands are being built on the right and left field sides of the grand stand and the work is being pushed.

lowed service until Doeg ran out the set, 6-3.

Tilden raised his game a few notches to gallop away with the third set and then romped away with the fourth and deciding one as well. Doeg fell into a bad slump, his service failed him and he made so many errors that Tilden had nothing to do but wait for the youngster to beat himself.

Hunter and Austin played another rather colorless match, but it was redeemed by Hunter's exhibition of tireless energy in driving off forehand with all his strength for five full sets without a single resort to soft stroking.

Austin's handling of Hunter's forehand drive and the surprising speed he put on the ball raised the match a bit above the ordinary, but it was exciting only in spots. Although carrying more strokes than Hunter the Englishman never was in a position to make full use of his repertoire. Hunter kept Austin away from the net because the Briton has a fine volleying game and this strategy, coupled with his own terrific driving game, gave him the match.

In the women's division, Sarah Palfrey, 16-year-old conqueror of Mrs. May Sutton Bundy, continued her brilliant play by eliminating Mrs. L. A. Harper of San Francisco in straight sets in the semifinal round, 6-3, 6-3. She will meet 18-year-old Mary Greef of Kansas City in the final round on Sunday. Miss Greef reached the final round by crushing Ethel Burkhardt of San Francisco, 6-2, 6-2.

BANDINI PROFITS FOR JULY TOLD

Earnings Before Taxes Equal Annual Rate of $6.73

Machris Interests Charge Depreciation Directly

Company Owes Indebtedness to Wilshire Oil

Net profits of the Bandini Petroleum Company for the month of July, last, amounted to $271,139.72 after expenses, but before taxes, equivalent to the annual rate of $6.73 a share on the 662,500 shares of $1 par value capital stock outstanding, George Machris, president, announced yesterday.

Charges for depreciation and depletion are written directly off property account which was valued at $10,000,000 on the last balance sheet issued by the company March 31, last.

Gross sales for July amounted to $445,367.05 and compare with sales of $170,594.96 for June. The net profits in June after expenses was $142,162.30. The results for August, Mr. Machris stated, will be materially ahead of July figures principally because of an established production from wells only recently completed.

The present daily production of the company is in excess of 30,000 barrels and is obtained from eight wells in the deep sands at Santa Fe Springs and four wells in the shallow sands. Four more wells are drilling ahead all below 6000 feet.

Wilshire Oil Company, controlled by the Machris interests, does the drilling for the Bandini company and is paid back in oil. The amount due the Wilshire company for drilling operations totaled $800,000 six weeks ago and since that time has been substantially lowered, he said.

On the last Wednesday of this month directors will meet and discuss the advisability of renewing dividends on the stock, which were discontinued last November to aid the drilling campaign. Mr. Machris declined to state what action would be taken, but was of the opinion that directors would wipe out all indebtedness before a regular rate would be established.

Fageol Motors Adds New Unit

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16. (Exclusive)—Fageol Securities Corporation has been formed with $2,000,000 capitalization, consisting of 100,000 shares common and 100,000 shares preferred, both of $10 par. The common will be held by Fageol Motors Company and the preferred will be offered to the public at par. The same officers of Fageol Motors are officers of this company.

The company will rediscount auto paper now held by the Fageol Motors Company. Headquarters of the new company will be in the Fageol Building and no rent will be paid until $100,000 in contracts is held.

Investing Unit Plans Increase

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16. (Exclusive)—Stockholders of Pacific Associates are asked to approve an increase in the capital structure from $500,000 to $2,000,000 in letters mailed to them by De Lancey Lewis, president. An increase in the board of directors from five to nine members is also proposed.

As the present issued stock consists of 50,000 shares, the proposed increase in stock will make 150,000 shares available for development and expansion, which upon issuance will increase the capital account of the present market basis approximately $5,000,000, the letters stated.

OIL FLURRY DAY'S FEATURE

Holders of Petroleum Shares Excited by First Move in Months; Economic Status Improved

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Spring street was in its element yesterday. The long-awaited move in the oils apparently got under way, and the people who have been packing stocks like Union, Standard, Richfield, Rio Grande and others for months and years were moving through the financial district in a happy frame of mind. Some of them were quick to take small profits, but the majority seemed to feel that the best is yet to come.

On the Los Angeles Stock Exchange the brokers had their best day since January, and in New York the interest in the oil group overshadowed the high-priced favorites of recent weeks. Predictions were freely made by some prophets that oil stocks will successfully sweep into leadership of the market.

From the volume of trading in the principal oil stocks it was evident that organized buying engendered the movement. Investment trusts, professional pools and large operators were undoubtedly responsible for the activity, and not the individual trader. It is still a question, however, whether the advance is genuine and is intended to discount improvement in the industry, or is merely a professional operation for the short turn.

EARNINGS HIGHER

Aside from the expectation that the California gas-wastage law, which goes into effect the 20th inst., will correct the maladjustment in crude-oil production, there is an economic basis to warrant higher prices for stocks in the favorable nature of the earnings reports turned out by the oil companies. Virtually every company of importance is earning more money than last year, yet the stock market has remained indifferent.

Comparative six months' earnings of ten representative companies follow:

	1929.	1928.
Barnsdall	$1.83	$ .80
Houston	2.04	1.83
Pacific Western	1.56	x
Richfield	2.03	1.75
Rio Grande	2.48	.50
Signal	[illegible]	x
Sinclair	[illegible]	2.06
Skelly	[illegible]	.41
Tidewater Assoc.	[illegible]	.13
Union	1.72	1.33

x—Data not available.

Oil shares, however, have been weighed down by an extensive short interest, chiefly the work of eastern traders who have been persistently pessimistic over the efforts to curtail crude-oil production. Probably a good part of yesterday's advances in prices represented a scramble by many of the short traders to cover a portion of their lines.

As soon as the speculators came down and saw the behavior of the oil shares in the New York market, the inevitable merger rumors began to fly. Standard Oil of New Jersey, which has assumed the leadership of the group, was connected with Standard of California in a story of consolidation negotiations. Union Oil was named with Richfield and Standard of California; Barnsdall and Rio Grande were linked up again, and Tidewater Associated was mentioned in connection with the new Continental Oil Company.

MERGERS RUMORED

Gossip over the wires also rumored the organization of another investment trust or trading corporation to specialize in the oil stocks. It has been reported for the last several weeks that some of these large investment companies have been accumulating the oil shares and have been responsible for the stronger tone in prices. The Petroleum Corporation of America, the investment company in which the Bancamerica-Blair, Arthur Cutten and other large interests are active, has called for payment the balance of $14 a share due on stock subscriptions, which suggests that this company is ready to add to its holdings of oil shares.

Everything seems to hinge on the success of the California experiment in seeking to control the wastage of natural gas. If this law is effective, there is little doubt, in the opinion of competent oil men, that the State's crude-oil production will be reduced by approximately 200,000 barrels daily. With California output curtailed and regulated, the belief prevails that national maladjustment will be corrected.

Usual Summer Dullness Absent in Trade Status

NEW YORK, Aug. 16. (AP)—Dun's Review tomorrow will say:

Even aside from the unusual speculative and monetary aspects, which have recently attained still greater prominence, the existing situation is distinguished by numerous points of special interest. The status of commercial conditions is exceptional in some respects, and the traditional summer contraction of activity, although visible in varying degree, remains less marked than had been generally expected. With August more than half over, moreover, the period is approaching when a fresh stimulus will be derived from a change in seasons, and some branches of business are already beginning to reflect this influence.

The tenor of reports from textile and footwear markets, to cite two instances, indicates a widening preparation for future needs, while the position of retail stocks in different lines has been bettered by sustained demands under the impetus of continued warm weather over a large area of the country. It is that development which has had no small effect in supporting confidence and increasing the disposition to provide for future requirements, and the adherence to close regulation of production to consumption in most quarters continues to form a bulwark against possible sudden and disturbing readjustments.

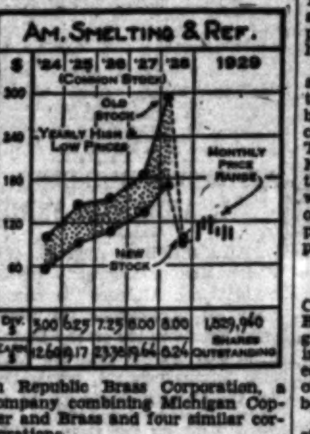
WHAT'S BEHIND YOUR STOCK

AMERICAN SMELTING AND REFINING COMPANY

The American Smelting and Refining Company is the world's largest concern engaged in smelting and refining of metals, and is also an important producer of copper, lead, zinc, silver and gold. The company manufactures a wide variety of metal and chemical products.

During 1928 it acquired over 90 per cent of the stock of Michigan Copper and Brass Company, which it exchanged late in 1928 for stock in Republic Brass Corporation, a company combining Michigan Copper and Brass and four similar corporations.



Net income in 1928 totaled $18,586,200, a record, and in view of the upward trend in metal prices during the first quarter of 1929 and activity of general business a continuance of earnings at a high level is indicated for 1929.

Capitalization: Funded debt, $37,782,100; preferred stock (7 per cent cumulative,) $50,000,000; preferred stock (6 per cent cumulative,) none; common stock (no par,) 1,829,940 shares.

Current data: Recently it has been reported that the full dividend requirements for 1929 were understood to have been more than earned by the company in the first six months of the current year and a new peak net income record for any half-year period likely would be established.

Continental Oil Turns Loss to Net Earnings

PONCA CITY (Okla.) Aug. 16. (AP) The Continental Oil Company at the end of the first six months after its merger with the Marland Oil Company showed a net income of $2,200,526.83, as compared to a loss of $1,787,526.77 over the same period last year, according to a report made public today, covering the six months ended June 30, last.

The report of the Consolidated Continental Oil Company of Maine and subsidiary companies and the Marland Oil Company of Delaware and its subsidiary companies was based on the combined figures of the old Marland company and the old Continental company.

The second quarter, ended June 30, 1929, showed the greatest increase. The net income for the three months ending on that date showed a net income of $3,842,081.11 for the present organization.

Its net income for the three-month period ended June 30, 1928, based upon the figures of the merged companies, was $654,004.89.

For the three months, ended June 30, 1929, the report shows a net income of $2,015,603.77 for the Marland company and, for the full six months, an income of $1,142,107.18.

The statement of the former Continental Company of Maine for the second quarter of this year shows a net income of $1,826,477.34 and for the full six months ended June 30, 1929, shows a net income of $1,058,419.85.

Coons, manager, and his staff will keep open house in celebration of the event and the doors will remain open until 10 p.m. to receive the public. The bank has been in operation since 1924, but the growing importance of the Wilshire-La Brea business center forced it to erect its new structure which presents a striking appearance with its exterior finish of black terra cotta and gold.

EXTENSIVE OIL COMBINE SEEN

Standard Units May Revert to Old System

California and New Jersey Merger on Foot

Move to Offset Competition of Shell and Texas

NEW YORK, Aug. 16. (Exclusive) The Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, parent company of the old Standard Oil group and the Standard Oil Company of California, are preparing for the largest consolidation in recent history of the petroleum industry, it was reported today in Wall-street oil circles. Total assets involved amount to about $1,700,000,000, of which nearly 90 per cent are held by the New Jersey company.

Stocks of both companies today tore loose from their moorings on the New York Stock Exchange, where they have been practically inactive this year because of the depression in the oil industry. Standard Oil of New Jersey shot up to a new high point at 70 3-4 and closed up 7½ points to 70⅛. The previous high was 63¼. Standard Oil of California spurted 3 7-8 points and closed at 77 3-8. Its high for the year is 81 7-8.

It was reported that the market action of the stocks, which carried the entire oil list up with it was based on tentative plans for an exchange of stock, share for share. The low mark for Standard Oil of New Jersey this year was 48 and the low for Standard of California was 74, indicating the rapid climb of Standard of New Jersey toward parity with the California company's stock.

REPORT DENIED

At the offices of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey at 26 Broadway, no encouragement was given to the report. Officials and interests close to the company stated that no negotiations were going on and that no arrangements had been made to enter into a merger.

Oil men who have studied the situation pointed out that a merger of Standard oil companies generally was made necessary by the intense competition being offered by the Texas Corporation and the Shell-Union Oil Company, the only two companies to have complete national distribution of their products through their own organizations. In an effort to broaden out on a national scale the Standard of Indiana recently absorbed the Pan-American Petroleum and Transport Company. The Standard of New York and the Vacuum Oil Company are negotiating the final details of a merger which was started early this year.

The Standard of New Jersey centers its distribution principally on the Atlantic seaboard, in Pennsylvania and in Ohio. The Standard of California operates mainly on the Pacific Coast. Reports early this year connected Gulf Oil in a prospective merger with Standard of California.

POLICY REVERSED

The past year has seen a complete breakdown in the old marketing lines of the Standard oil companies indicating a reversal in the old policy of restricted marketing territory. Standard Oil of New Jersey has invaded the territory of Standard of New York through the acquisition of the Beacon Oil Company of Boston, which is an important factor in the New England territory.

Through the formation of the Standard Oil Company of Pennsylvania Standard Oil of New Jersey has begun strong competition with the Atlantic Refining Company, an old Standard Oil unit, in its home territory and the Atlantic Refining Company has invaded the home territory of the New Jersey company in turn.

Oil-Strip Suit Draws Answer From Companies

In answer to Washington dispatches yesterday relative to the pending hearing before the Department of the Interior on the application of E. W. Lloyd for patent rights to a strip of land near the Elwood Field at Santa Barbara, officials of the Rio Grande and Barnsdall oil companies issued a joint statement pointing out that the strip in question is a narrow plot along the tide lands, and is protected by a heavy title guarantee policy.

The statement also points out that suits of similar character have been lost before the Supreme Court of the United States because, the oil officials state, the interpretation put on grant descriptions in the past has been that the property line runs to the mean high-tide line.

Outlining the history of the property, the statement, which was issued by L. E. Lockhart, president of Rio Grande; E. B. Reeser, president of Barnsdall Corporation, and R. A. Broomfield, president of Barnsdall of California, contains the following excerpts from the abstract of title:

> In 1842 the Mexican government granted property to Nicholas Den embracing the territory from the seashore to the high mountains, and this grant was confirmed by the board of land commissioners representing the Congress of the United States. In 1858 the United States District Court by decree reconfirmed the grant. In 1876 United States Surveyor-General certified that the grant had been surveyed. A certificate again reciting the boundaries as being from the seashore to the high mountains and a patent was issued to Den and his heirs. Den and his heirs have been in undisturbed possession of the property from 1842 to present date. The land at issue is a strip along the tideland ranging from forty to 400 feet in width and along the entire grant frontage of more than twenty miles.

OFFICERS RE-ELECTED

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Paraffine Companies, Inc., held on the 14th inst., the retiring directors were re-elected and at the subsequent organization meeting the incumbent officers were re-elected for the ensuing year, R. H. Ohea, secretary, announced yesterday.

WISCONSIN OUTLOOK BRIGHT

Governor Expresses Faith in State and Lays Plans for Industrial Expansion

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

[Copyright, 1929, in all countries by North American Newspaper Alliance.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 16. (Exclusive)—When I asked Gov. Kohler of Wisconsin the other day if it was true that industries were moving out of Wisconsin because of high taxes, he referred to the fact that the State of Wisconsin has no bonded debt in contrast to that of nearly every other State in the Union which have huge ones, and to the further fact that his own company, the Kohler Company of Kohler, Wis., had just announced the building of an addition to their factories for the manufacture of pottery to cost about $1,000,000. It will be the only pottery in Wisconsin making clay plumbing fixtures.

"We expect to add to our pay roll from 600 to 700 men in this pottery division alone," said Gov. Kohler. "We will get our ball and China clays from Cornwall, Eng., in small steamers of 1200 to 1500-ton capacity. It will require about thirty days' passage from there to the docks at Sheboygan, Wis., where the steamers are unloaded for delivery to our plant. These steamers will come through the Welland Canal and on into Lake Michigan. This shows our faith, too, in the value of the all-water transportation of the St. Lawrence waterways."

"Then, in your opinion, Governor, the business men of Wisconsin are moving ahead with their plans and programs?" I asked.

The Governor talks in a quiet even unemphatic way.

"Yes that's true. You see the investment in our own pottery division with this unit completed is in the neighborhood of $3,500,000. This is aside from the other manufacturing units — foundries and enameling works, brass works and electric lighting plant works.

"Yes, I have faith in the future of Wisconsin—I do not believe any business man who examines the matter carefully can come to any other conclusion than the one I have. That answer your question?"

I wonder how many of us realise that at the present time 76 per cent of the wood of a tree is wasted. Really, only 24 per cent of it is converted into useful products. For many years, attempts have been made to increase the amount of usage and decrease the waste.

At the American Chemical Society meeting in Chicago, Dr. Jacques C. Morrell and Dr. Gustav Egloff reported that Douglas fir tar produces an excellent antiknock fuel. Already hardwood tar may be used to manufacture low boiling power acid phenols, and fine tar products are available for solvents and paint thinners.

But this new development in the Douglas fir field has a very deep significance for it will provide a source of motor fuel for the future under the direct control of man, himself. When the oil fields become exhausted, man can turn to this type of manufacture and supplement the dwindling supply of petroleum.

These experts declare that from an annual average yield of 7,500,000 board feet of Douglas fir the equivalent of 2,500,000 cords is available for destructive distillation.

Now look what this yields: 8,500,000 gallons of turpentine and light oils; 70,000,000 gallons of tar; 9,780,000 gallons of wood alcohol; 187,500,000 lbs. of acetate lime, and over 2,000,000,000 pounds of charcoal.

And this from only one kind of wood. The scientist truly is a friend of man.

TRADING ON WOOL MART HOLDS FIRM

Prices Remain Steady for All Grades as Stocks in Country Decline

BOSTON, Aug. 16. (AP)—The Commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say:

"There has been a steady wool business again this week, although not of big proportions, and prices are firmly maintained for all descriptions, with a slight tendency against the buyer. Country operations have been small with stocks rapidly dwindling.

"The manufacturing position appears especially sound and the mills are using a very considerable weight of wool.

"Tariff considerations, while interesting, have not interfered with business to any extent. Further modifications of the wool schedule are expected to be made.

"Foreign markets are still dull but a little more business is reported from Bradford in tops at lower prices.

"Mohair is in very moderate request at hardly changed rates.

"The rail and water shipments of wool from Boston from January 1, 1929, to August 15, 1929, inclusive, were 110,143,700 pounds, against 100,786,000 pounds for the same period last year. The receipts from January 1, 1929, to August 15, 1929, inclusive, were 225,134,685 pounds, against 246,555,100 pounds for the same period last year."

MELLON OIL INVESTMENT UNIT LOOMS

Wall Street Predicts Huge Management Trust to Hold Family Stocks

NEW YORK, Aug. 16. (Exclusive) Security holdings of the Mellon family in Pittsburgh are about to be pooled through the formation of a large investment trust, according to reports which persisted in Wall street today. The Mellons' stock in the Gulf Oil Corporation and in the Aluminum Company of America will be the first included, it is understood.

Report that J. P. Morgan & Co. was interested in the organization of such a trust or holding company proved to be unfounded, but in informed quarters it was said that the plan was being seriously considered by the Mellon interests. The scope of the company may be enlarged to take in large blocks of stock in a number of oil companies besides the Gulf.

For some time it has been rumored that the Morgan banking house was planning to form an investment company for oil securities similar to the United Corporation and the Allegheny Corporation.

The Mellons are reputed to own close to 90 per cent of the stock of the Gulf Oil Corporation. The shares of the Gulf soared more than 10 points on the curb today, closing at 291. At that figure the 4,504,921 shares outstanding had an aggregate market value of more than $900,000,000. W. L. Mellon is president of the Gulf.

Allis-Chalmers Stock Split-up Due Next Month

NEW YORK, Aug. 16. (Exclusive) A special meeting of stockholders of the Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Company has been called for September 20 to vote on increasing the authorized number of shares from 500,000 to 2,000,000 so that in place of the 266,000 shares now outstanding there will be issued four shares of new stock for each share now held.

The volume of the company's business is increasing and if the stock increase is approved, it is expected that in the near future a limited amount of the unissued shares of new stock will be offered for sale to the stockholders.

It is believed that dividends on the new stock will be at the annual rate of $2 per share, equivalent to $8 per share on the present stock as against the present dividend rate of $7 annually.

Seligman Forms New Trust Unit

Formation of a second investment corporation to be known as the Tricontinental Allied Company with an initial paid-in capital of about $50,000,000 was announced yesterday by J. & W. Seligman & Co. A feature of the new organization will be the holding by Tricontinental Corporation of warrants to purchase 500,000 common shares and the immediate purchase of 150,000 common shares for $3,750,000 in cash.

An offering of unit certificates representing preferred and common shares is planned for early next week. The banking house and its associates will buy for cash 100,000 shares of common stock of the Allied Company. Tricontinental Corporation will manage the new company and the board of directors of the Allied Company is expected to be substantially identical with that of Tricontinental Corporation which now consists of fifteen members of whom six are partners of the Seligman concern.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, Aug. 16. (AP)—Continued reports of deterioration in the condition of the crop, together with the encouraging Manchester mill news and relatively steady Liverpool cables, seemed responsible for advances in the cotton market today. After selling about 14 to 19 points net higher, the market met considerable realizing and there were partial reactions. Trading was quiet around 2 o'clock, with active months ruling about 5 to 12 points net higher.

LOS ANGELES CURB

Oil shares, following the lead of the parent board, attracted the chief interest yesterday on the Los Angeles Curb Exchange and on strong support moved substantially upward. The trend of the balance of the list was uncertain, but at the close gains exceeded losses.

Mexican Seaboard Oil was the most active trader on the board and on the rapid turnover spurted 2½ points to a high at 40 3-4 and ended at 40½. Hancock Oil was well played and shot up to a high at 58, but selling brought the close down to 56 3-4, off 1-4 net. Bandini, Exeter, Italo, United States Royalties and Universal Consolidated all figured prominently in the advance.

DRIVE CARRIES PRICES UPWARD

as a local adjustment. A wide assortment of industrial specialties, rails and several utilities displayed exceptional buoyance, but coppers and motors failed to make much headway.

Among the leaders were General Electric, rising 9 points to touch 400 for the first time, and Standard of New Jersey, soaring nearly 8 points to a new high at 70 3-4. American Machine and Foundry was bid up about 16 points to a record price at 210.

NEW TOPS HIT

Consolidated Gas, Continental Oil, Erie, General Asphalt, Gillette Safety Razor, Newport Company, New Haven, Pan-American B, Pere Marquette, Simmons, Union Pacific, Worthington Pump and Paramount were among other issues reaching new tops. Westinghouse Electric and Baltimore and Ohio duplicated their peak prices, and Chesapeake and Ohio sold close to its record level. Allied Chemical, Allis Chalmers, Du Pont, Atchison, Montgomery Ward, National Biscuit, Union Oil of California and Wright Aero were among issues rising 4 to 6 points.

Some week-end profit taking appeared in the final dealings, and several issues slipped off 1 to 3 points from their best levels of the day. United States Steel rose more than 4 points, but closed only about a point higher. General Motors and Bethlehem each sagged a fraction, and Lambert, Greene Cananea and Youngstown Sheet and Tube were among isolated soft spots, closing 2 to 5 points lower. Adams Express, appearing on the tape for the first time since Monday, traded at 575, off 57 points.

The commodity markets were firm to strong. Wheat futures soared 4 cents a bushel on bullish harvesting reports from Canada, and corn mounted a cent or two on unfavorable weather. The decline in cotton was checked and closing quotations were 20 to 55 cents a bale higher, influenced by reports of crop deterioration.

Foreign exchanges were somewhat firmer. The French franc mounted 3-16 of a point to 3.91 3-16 cents. Sterling cables held at $4.84 3-4, still below the gold import point.

Up to the present depth, no oil sand has been penetrated, it is said.

Pacific Western's fifteen-mile road to Gibraltar Dam, where its Gibraltar Dam No. 1 will be drilled, is being graded. This highway extends northeast from Santa Barbara. Several locations for the proposed test are being considered by the company.

Progress Steady

The Keystone Petroleum Company's True No. 1 on a 500-acre lease, about three miles south of Surf, in Santa Barbara county, is drilling ahead in brown shale below 2125 feet. At alternating depths showings of oil sand and tar oil have been in evidence, along with considerable gas in the hole.

Keystone's Paderewski No. 1, about three miles southeast of Santa Maria, is milling ahead in hard sand formation and boulders, with bottom of the hole below 700 feet.

Drilling Ahead

The Gaviota Oil Company's Marietta No. 1 wildcat, situated on a 600-acre lease about one mile south of Surf, has just spudded in. This project is two miles north of the Keystone Petroleum Company's True No. 1 wildcat.

Gaviota recently abandoned its old Summerland test, having failed to find a productive formation in its No. 1 test below 1000 feet.

Acre Produces Enough Feed for Ten Cows

CONWAY (Ark.) Aug. 17. (AP)—Feed sufficient for a herd of ten cows has been grown on a tract of one and one-third acres this year by B. D. Moix, 74-year-old farmer.

One acre is planted in alfalfa and a third of an acre in oats. Each day he cuts just enough for two feedings, and the crop has more than filled his needs. As one subdivided plot is cut, another is maturing.

Kinner Stock Rumor Spiked

Rumors that the recent stock market activity in Kinner Airplane and Motors Corporation was the result of operations of outside interests that were seeking control met with a denial yesterday from Robert Porter, chairman of the company, who stated that as far as his associates could learn the buying had been principally for investment purposes.

The Kinner company shipped 112 motors in the first two weeks of August, against a total of 142 for the full month of July, Porter stated. The latest addition to its list of customers include the Monocoupe of the Allied Aviation Company, one of the largest builders of small planes; the Arrow Airplane Company of Havelock, Neb., and the Crown Aircraft Corporation of Los Angeles.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, Aug. 16. (AP)—Revival of speculative activity and strength in the oil shares featured the resumption of a broad upward price movement in today's curb market. Week-end profit-taking cut down some of the gains, but prices generally closed higher, with at least a score issues pushed to record high levels. Trading was fairly heavy in volume, the sales running well over 2,000,000 shares.

Merger rumors and a growing belief that the oil industry has definitely "turned the corner" provided the groundwork for the advance on the petroleum shares. Gulf of Pennsylvania was the individual feature, soaring more than 10 points to 204, or within 2 points of the record high.

Imperial of Canada and Transcontinental preferred moved into new high ground, and net gains of 2 points or more were registered by Cosden, Devonian, Humble, Penn-Mex, Standard Oil of Indiana and Vacuum.

Electric Investors retained its position as the leader of the investment trust, holding and trading corporation groups by soaring 13¾ points to 280. Trans-America Corporation ran up more than 6 points to a new high at 147½, but lost more than half its gain. Prudential Investors advanced more than 4 points to a new high at 33¾. National Investors ran up 8 points.

Electric Bond and Share was the leader of the public utility division, closing 8 points higher at 150⅛ after having touched a new high at 151⅝. Central States issues rallied briskly on the inauguration of dividends on the new common stock. American and Foreign Power warrants, American Gas and Electric and Duke Power "rights" each advanced about 5 points, the last named touching a new high.

New peak prices for the year were established by American Cigar Machinery, Budd Company, Donner Steel, Hood Rubber, U. S. Asbestos and U. S. Gypsum. Fanny Farmer sank to a new low.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low, and both low and close when same as the high.

BAY CITY CURB

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16. (AP)—Due possibly to substantial decrease in brokers' loans, the majority of the issues rose during the day to show increases for the most part at the closing sales. However, in some of the issues, losses of considerable extent were taken on the Curb Exchange today.

Southern California Edison rose to show a gain at 76, but towards the close it was the target for considerable short covering and the stock closed with no change at the opening price of 75½. Gains were also taken in this group by Cities Service at 48, American Telephone and Telegraph at 283½, Pacific Gas and Electric 5½ per cent preferred at 24¾, and Arkansas Natural Gas at 16.

Following is a selective list of transactions on the San Francisco Curb Exchange to noon today:

EIGHT TAKEN IN CAPITAL LIQUOR NET

Washington's Largest Bootleg Ring Believed Broken by Arrests

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16. (AP)—Eight men have been arrested and four are being sought by prohibition agents and police in a round-up of what they describe as the largest liquor ring that ever operated in the capital.

All are charged with conspiracy to violate the prohibition act, and seven of those arrested are at liberty under bonds ranging from $2500 to $5000. Six, including Herbert Glassman, proprietor of a rent-a-car service and two garages, surrendered upon learning they had been named in the warrants.

Glassman's garages are asserted to have been used as depots for reception and distribution of intoxicants.

He and the others are accused in the warrants of conspiring between April 1, 1928, and August 14, 1929, to violate the provisions of the Volstead Act by bringing whisky and other intoxicants designed for beverages purposes into the District of Columbia in trucks and automobiles which were received at the garages.

Possession, sale and transportation of liquor are charged, and nine overt acts are asserted to have been committed by different members of the group. Preliminary hearings have been set for next Thursday.

The Glassman garages are prominently situated at 2101 Fourteenth street, northwest, and 1319 L street, northwest. The round-up of asserted conspirators was accomplished without employment of raiding methods.

Gangster Feud Believed Cause of Utah Shooting

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 16. (Exclusive)—A Pacific Coast underworld feud is believed to have reached its climax here today when Tony Espino, 27 years of age, was "taken for a ride" and shot three times while in Ogden Canyon. He is near death but steadfastly refuses to clear the mystery. Rugga Zuccgua, 26, and Tony Tedesco, 27, of San Francisco, were arrested at the California rooming house here on suspicion of committing the crime. They deny the charge and will be taken before the victim for identification.

At 3 o'clock this morning R. W. Wilcox and E. L. Ford, who reside in Ogden Canyon, heard a man crying for help. They found Espino lying wounded and took him to an Ogden hospital. Dr. Junior Rich found that two bullets had entered the abdomen and a third wound was discovered in the right arm.

Finding Bride's Body Leads to Murder Theory

BARABOO (Wis.) Aug. 16. (AP)—The body of a young woman, bruised and with the skull fractured, was found in Devil's Lake today and immediately set authorities to work on what appears to be a honeymoon murder mystery.

The young bride, Mrs. James Parillo of Chicago, disappeared with her husband the 8th inst. The next day an empty boat was found with clothing in it identified as Parillo's. Authorities assumed the couple had accidentally drowned and started to drag the lake. Tonight the husband's body had not been found.

After an examination of the woman's body by Coroner F. E. Tryon, Dist.-Atty. Moss telegraphed Chicago police as follows:

"Please investigate. Young woman was to have become a mother in five months. There was no water in her lungs. Her skull was fractured. We believe she was murdered."

NEW YORK, Aug. 16. (Exclusive) Shep, a collie dog belonging to Policeman Leo Williams of Brooklyn, was credited with the capture of a bandit suspect today.

Lonergan told the police he had been out of work for about six months.

La prueba se hizo a larga distancia, la mayor a que se ha experimentado en este país para comunicaciones de esa clase: Paul Goldborough, vicepresidente de la compañía, habló desde el escritorio de su oficina en San Luis con uno de sus aviones, que a la sazón volaba sobre la ciudad de Nueva York.

El Delegado Prohibicionista Doran Rumbo a California

WASHINGTON, Agosto 16.—El señor Doran, delegado de la Prohibición, ha salido hoy para San Francisco. Va a instruir, personalmente, una averiguación sobre la industria del mosto en California.

La averiguación de que se había fue iniciada hace varias semanas por orden del delegado, quien se manifiesta interesado por establecer de modo cierto si se distrae para fines ilícitos alguna cantidad grande de uva.

Trátase también de averiguar en esta investigación si existen pruebas de alguna conspiración entre cosecheros y fabricantes de bebidas de mosto para violar la Enmienda Decimaoctava.

Se Alegará que Fueron Influidos Indebidamente los Jurados de Snook

COLUMBUS (Ohio), Agosto 16.—Declaran los defensores del doctor James H. Snook que el lunes, cuando presten sus alegatos en solicitud de nuevo juicio para su defenso, formularán el cargo de que alguno o algunos de los jurados que sentenciaron a muerte al referido doctor, declarándolo culpable del asesinato de Theora Nix, fueron indebidamente influidos en su voto.

Algunos de los jurados, al decir de unos de los defensores de Snook, ya habían resuelto votar contra el reo desde antes de entrar a deliberar. El jurado falló la culpabilidad en el primer escrutinio, sin recomendación alguna de clemencia para el acusado. Leyóse el veredicto veintiocho minutos después de terminada la vista.

Entre otros argumentos en favor de un nuevo juicio se citará el de que el jurado iba ya predispuesto, y el de que fue planeado de antemano el aplauso que se oyó al terminar su requisitorio el procurador del condado, John J. Chester, Jr.

ALL-METAL AIRSHIP SET FOR FLIGHT

Navy Men Spectators at Trial of Freak Dirigible Near Detroit Monday

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16. (AP)—The first all-metal dirigible, the ZMC-2, will attempt its initial flight Monday from the Detroit Aircraft Factory at Grosse Isle, Mich., before a group of naval aircraft experts.

The dirigible, which was built for the Navy through the approval of Congress, is to undergo severe tests before it is finally accepted because it involves numerous innovations in airship construction.

No naval men have been instructed to participate in the tests until the craft meets specified requirements. This precaution is taken because the Navy, which did not sponsor the experiment, does not desire to submit its experts to any unnecessary hazard.

Lieutenant-Commander W. K. Harrill of the Naval Board of Inspection and Survey, and a number of experts from the naval air station at Lakehurst, N. J., are to witness the flight.

The ZMC-2 is a departure from the principles embodied in rigid and blimp styles of lighter-than-air craft. It has eight fins instead of rudders and elevators for controls; is built of an alloy metal called alclad, is 150 feet long and fifty-two feet in diameter and is filled with 200,000 cubic feet of helium gas. It will carry a crew of four and is expected to make sixty-two miles an hour.

Business Man of Mystery Must Post High Bail

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 16. (AP)—Elmer S. Huckins, Sr., head of a mysterious business enterprise in which hundreds of Middle-Western investors are reputed to have placed large sums at an interest rate of 26 per cent, surrendered today at the United States District Attorney's office. Huckins was closeted with United States Marshal Walters. He was accompanied by his attorney, Walter J. Barncrever of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and appeared self-composed. He made no attempt to dodge cameramen.

He was arraigned soon after his surrender before United States Commissioner Kellogg on a charge of using the mails with intent to defraud.

Varney Given Mail Contract

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16. (AP)—The Varney Air Lines, Inc., of Salt Lake City, Utah, today was awarded the contract for the air-mail route from Pasco, Wash., to Portland and Seattle, and from Pasco to Spokane.

The company now operates the line from Salt Lake City to Pasco and the route on northward will constitute an extension of the present service.

ROBESON TO MAKE FIGHT, WIFE AVERS

Humane Department Head Will Resist Ousting in Absence, Declares Spouse

Declaring that she was speaking in behalf of her husband, Rodman Robeson, now on sick leave, Mrs. Robeson yesterday asserted that her husband will never resign his position as general manager of the Humane Department while under fire, as requested in a resolution passed by a 3-to-1 vote at a secret meeting of the Humane Commission. The commissioners' resolution requested Robeson to resign with the alternative of facing charges.

"They have no charges that they can truthfully bring against my husband," Mrs. Robeson said. "It is significant that the board unanimously gave him leave of absence because of sickness without mentioning the matter to him. After he left for the mountains, women members on the board started proceedings during his absence that they did not have courage enough to do while he was present."

Robeson, seeking health in the Sierras, as yet knows nothing of the effort to remove him, according to Mrs. Robeson, who asserts that he will fight the move before the Civil Service Commission.

Isaac H. Bryson Funeral Rites Set for Today

Funeral services for Isaac H. Bryson, wealthy Los Angeles pioneer and for many years owner and president of the Bryson Building at Second and Spring streets, will be conducted in Grace Chapel, Inglewood Park Cemetery, today at 10 a.m. The Bramble Funeral Home will be in charge. The body will be cremated in the Inglewood Park Cemetery Crematory.

Mr. Bryson was for many years a dominant figure in Los Angeles business circles. His death came suddenly last Thursday at his residence, 1310 Arapahoe street. He was 85 years of age. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Susan Bryson. The couple had expected to celebrate their sixtieth wedding anniversary in about two months.

THAT for flaming youth! Snap!

"I always thought the young ones in America had more fire, more vigor," the Senorita Amalia Dugo, niece of Tomas J. C. Otero, who arrived in Los Angeles a few days ago from her uncle's rancho in the Argentine, said yesterday. She is a little disappointed.

"The young ones here, of course, have different customs than we in the Argentine, but they seem blank," she explained.

It seems that the word "chicas," meaning young ones, is the word for flappers.

"And I always thought they had so much life and color to them," Miss Dugo said. "The Americans have so much liberty; they go to dances alone and still they are not as lively as the girls of the Argentine."

But after all, Miss Dugo explained, Argentine youth does admire and try to understand the American from a distance. She said there is little difference in the dress, education and ambition of the two, but thinks that the contrast in temperment is more difficult to describe.

Miss Dugo and her mother own one of the largest cattle ranches in the Argentine and she has come to Los Angeles with her uncle who has brought fourteen polo ponies for exhibition and sale to equine enthusiasts. The Otero party arrived five days ago at the Ambassador and Miss Dugo said that perhaps when she knows the "chicas Americanas" better, she may change her mind.

"We like them now and I hope I will know the young people here better," she said. "You see it is hard for me when I don't speak English, but they all seem so quiet. I have invitations to see some of the studios in Hollywood and we will see more of the United States for we are going to New York soon."

Perhaps it's the humidity or something else unusual with the weather, but anyway Amalia is a little disappointed and wistfully looking for a little more vim and vigor.

IT'S DIXIE DAY TODAY

This is Dixie day at the picnic grounds in Sycamore Grove Park, where former residents of Texas, Kentucky, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee and Louisiana will gather for their annual midsummer reunion. Each State will have its own individual section at the park, where county registers will be open to all. Edgar Baume will represent the Kentucky Blue Grass Club, Lyston S. Black will speak for the Texans, and Hugh L. Dickson will deliver an address in behalf of Mississippi.

JAIL'S CLOSING ACTION FAVORED

Health Commissioners Ready to Back Parrish

Committee Will Investigate Conditions Today

Rental of New Quarters for Police Advocated

Willingness to institute abatement proceedings against further use of the Central Police Station and jail as a menace to the health of the occupants and the city, as recommended by Dr. Parrish, city health officer, was expressed by Commissioners Kleinberger, Wilkes and Harvey at the regular meeting of the Health Commission yesterday. The alternative is for the City Council to lease some suitable building for police headquarters and a jail pending such time as the city will vote a bond issue for a permanent and appropriate structure.

Vice-President Kleinberger, presiding during the absence of D. W. Pontius, delegated Commissioner Harvey, Dr. Parrish, his assistant, Dr. Porter, and City Councilman Williams of the Health and Sanitation Committee, who was present, and agreed, as a committee, to investigate the jail and police headquarters this morning to verify the conditions complained of.

PARRISH'S REPORT

Lack of space and improper ventilation and light are the chief grounds presented by Dr. Parrish for the proposed abatement. His report, in part, stated:

"Men and women remain from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. in these rooms, working day after day under artificial lights, never seeing the daylight, and seldom getting a whiff of fresh air. No human being can do a decent day's work under such circumstances. Almost all complain of headache, loss of appetite, nausea, etc. Man power is only 50 per cent efficient after a few hours of such torture. No private industry in the city would be permitted to operate in such a 'dump,' and in open defiance of our State housing laws.

"For ten years the Health Department and the Police Department have implored the public to give the police a new and modern home, but all in vain. It is my belief that the Central Police Station as it now exists is a health menace of the worst kind, not only to prisoners, but to the 1000 police officers and the women clerks who are employed there.

LEASING URGED

"I, therefore, ask that the Health Commission instruct the City Council and the Police Commission to take immediate steps to acquire by lease some new and more modern structure to act as a temporary jail and headquarters until such time as the city feels it can afford to own a permanent building of its own. It is further recommended that an official notice of abatement or vacation of the present structure be served on the proper official by the Health Department, giving ninety days to act and vacate."

Formal action by the commissioners is expected to be taken at the next regular meeting of the board, following the report to be made as the result of the investigation this morning.

The board passed a resolution to notify the Health and Sanitation Committee of the City Council, which meets Tuesday, that under a new State law providing for twenty-four-hour service by a physician in jails containing more than 200 persons, it will be necessary for the City Council to provide seven physicians for the Central and Lincoln Heights jails at approximately from $240 to $260 a month for each.

Dollar Bills Still Coming In

And still the dollar bills come!

Two more fluttered from an envelope addressed to The Times yesterday to help swell the fund started by compassionate policemen in aid of a mother and three children from Texas who were found stranded, penniless and hungry, ten days ago.

Yesterday's bills were sent anonymously, being accompanied only by a blank sheet of writing paper and a Times clipping, recounting the case; hence The Times takes this means of expressing to the contributors the acknowledgement of the grateful mother and children.

They'll Name Investigating Groups

Speaker Levey and Lieut.-Gov. Carnahan

STATE INQUIRIES DISCUSSED

Lieutenant-Governor and Speaker of House Confer and Will Announce Committees Soon

The final conference of a series for the selection of members of the Legislature to serve on ten committees to investigate various subjects during the next eighteen months was conducted yesterday by Lieut.-Gov. Carnahan and Speaker Levey. The pair, who are the presiding officers of the Senate and Assembly, met in Mr. Carnahan's office in South Broadway.

Mr. Levey, who lives in San Francisco, returned to his home last night after spending three days in Los Angeles.

LIST OF COMMITTEES

The committees to be chosen are on taxes, street improvement laws, mechanic's lien laws, water resources, allocation of highway money, regional planning along the ocean front, utilization of prison labor, control of billboards and advertising signs along highways, aerial navigation and narcotic control.

Each of these subjects received considerable discussion during the past session of the Legislature, but it was felt that additional study should be made of them, wherefore the Legislature ordered the investigations.

TAX GROUP IMPORTANT

The tax committee is regarded as the most important to the State as a whole. It is likely that the present patchwork plan of State taxes will be discarded for an entirely new plan. The matter of revising the street improvement laws is regarded as a distinctly Southern California problem, and for that reason it is expected that most of the members will be from south of the Tehachapi.

Mr. Carnahan and Mr. Levey said yesterday that the announcements of the appointments will be forthcoming in a few days, as after the selections are made it will be necessary to await the various acceptances.

NEW BLOW AT BARGES IMPENDING

Asserted Gambling Ships Scrutinized as Possible Menaces to Navigation

The barges Johanna Smith and Monfalcone, may or may not be engaged in providing places for gambling, but the United States government yesterday interested itself in whether they are a menace to navigation.

It was brought out yesterday that United States Attorney McNabb has been advised that the two ships are anchored in steamship channels. The Johanna Smith is said to be anchored nine miles off shore from Huntington Beach and the Monfalcone twelve miles off Long Beach. This report is said to be under investigation by Capt. A. F. d'Otte, commander of the California section of the Coast Guard.

It was intimated that should the two vessels be declared a menace to navigation, they will be seized by the government.

FIRST COMPLAINT UNDER NEW STATE LAW

Marking the first complaint of its kind to be issued under the new State law which went into effect last Wednesday, making it a misdemeanor to transport persons from the shore to gambling ships anchored offshore under certain conditions, George Byson, declared to be the operator of a water taxi, yesterday was named in a complaint issued by the office of City Prosecutor Nix.

According to the complaint, in which Frank M. Morey, of 735 Lime avenue, Long Beach, is named as the complaining witness, Byson is asserted to have transported persons from the city limits of Los Angeles to the ship Monfalcone, asserted gambling retreat, riding at anchor off Long Beach.

ILLINOIS GROUP TO PICNIC

An all-day picnic and reunion of former residents of Peoria county, Illinois, will be held tomorrow at Sycamore Grove Park. Mrs. Norman Lewis will be in charge.

City Scheduled for Continued Warm Spell

Moisture-laden warm weather will continue here today and tonight, it was predicted by the United States Weather Bureau last night.

Yesterday's maximum temperature, 85 deg., was 3 deg. above the normal for August, while the relative humidity also was higher than usual, records showing 45 per cent saturation yesterday noon. At dawn the temperature was 68 deg., the coolest during the twenty-four-hour period.

Although the humidity here is high, fire hazards in surrounding mountainous areas have not been reduced, and further warnings were sounded by the Federal weather men.

FINAL ORDINANCES PASS

The City Council yesterday adopted the final ordinances for the improvement of the Upperton-avenue and High-street district, the improvement of Van Nuys Boulevard between San Fernando Road and Kalmia street, the improvement of Male avenue between Ninety-second and Ninety-ninth streets, and the sewering of the Alvarado-street and Ewing-street district.

JURY CONVICTS RUSH MEADOWS

Verdict Returned After Five Hours of Deliberation

Ex-Grid Star Found Guilty on Eleven Counts

Osborne Pardon-Fraud Trial Long Drawn Out

RUSH MEADOWS

George Rush Meadows, former football star, charged with eleven counts of grand theft, involving an asserted swindle in connection with the parole or commutation of John F. Osborne, Los Angeles promoter, was found guilty on all counts last night by a jury, which returned its verdict in Superior Judge Fricke's court after five and a half hours.

The jury of nine men and three women brought in their verdict of guilty at 8:30 o'clock after a dinner recess, which followed two hours of deliberation in the afternoon when the case was given to them at 3 o'clock. The trial had been in progress twenty-three days.

ELEVEN COUNTS

Meadows was charged originally with twelve counts of grand theft of sums ranging from $100 to $5000 from relatives of the promoter, who was convicted in Federal court and sentenced to ten years' imprisonment in connection with the promotion of Valhalla Memorial Park. During the course of the long trial one count was dismissed and the jury yesterday was instructed to bring in verdicts on the remaining eleven counts.

Following the reading of the verdict Judge Fricke said he would entertain a motion for a new trial and Attorney Cooper, one of the counsel for Meadows, then formally made such a motion. After a brief discussion the deputy district attorneys and Attorney Cooper agreed to argue the motion next Thursday at 9 a.m.

At the same hearing Meadows will receive his sentence from Judge Fricke. The sentences to be meted out can run concurrently on each conviction, or consecutively. Meadows was returned to jail.

STATE'S CHARGES

The case was submitted to the jury following closing arguments by Defense Attorney Cooper and Dep. Dist.-Atty Menzies. Opening arguments were delivered Thursday by Defense Attorney Stutsman and Dep. Dist.-Atty. Penney, who was associated with Menzies in the prosecution of the case.

The State charged Meadows obtained the money from Osborne's relatives by representing to them that it was to be used to employ prominent attorneys and pay other expenses incident to procuring a parole or commutation of sentence for Osborne.

Meadows, who testified in his own defense, denied there was any fraud in his dealings with the Osbornes and admitted he received a total of $23,000 from them. He stated, however, that most of the money was used to employ Leo Youngworth, prominent attorney and clubman, and to pay expenses attendant to his efforts to obtain the promoter's liberty. Meadows also declared several thousand dollars of the total sum was invested by him in a joint enterprise at the suggestion of John E. Osborne, father of the convicted promoter. He denied converting any of the total sum to his own use.

TESTIMONY REFUTED

Youngworth, who testified early in the trial for the State, denied he had had anything to do with a proposal to procure a parole for Osborne, Jr., or that he received any fees from Meadows in connection with the case. The State also called United States Pardon Attorney Finch, of Washington, who testified that the only application for a parole made in behalf of Osborne was filed by Clara Shortridge Foltz.

Mrs. Foltz declared she acted independently in the matter and was emphatic in denying that Meadows had anything to do with her effort to get a parole for the convicted promoter.

RAIL RATE TO BAY CITY CUT

A reduced rate of $15 round trip between Los Angeles and San Francisco over Labor Day was announced yesterday by C. L. McPaul, assistant passenger traffic manager for the Southern Pacific Railway. The tickets will be on sale the 30th and 31st inst. with a return limit to September 3, and are good only on coaches.

ONE city of California where it is possible to give a Spanish fiesta and get away with it 100 per cent is Santa Barbara.

The lovely Channel City has been settled largely by successful men with brains enough to keep the charm they found. "Progress," in their shrewd, far-seeing visions, did not consist of wiping out all the old atmosphere of the place and smearing horrible ugliness over it. The Santa Barbara of today is just the city that the padres would have made it had they had the money and the resources.

HA! HA! EARTHQUAKE!

The Santa Barbara Mission is the only mission that has been restored with complete success. The mission as it stands today is more beautiful than any of the missions as erected by the padres. The restoration was done with sympathy and understanding—and a lot of money. It has been rebuilt in such a way that it will laugh at the next earthquake.

"DOLLAR MAD"

If this lovely dream city had fallen into other hands Santa Barbara would have been by now a wretched little hick town full of ugly gas stations, real estate signs and boulevards named after punk politicians.

The next European writer who pans America as being "dollar mad" should be taken by the nose and dragged into Santa Barbara—here to see what the idealism of dollar-mad millionaires has done.

UNDISTURBED PLACIDITY

I don't know what it is. Either a place has an inherent quality from the soil, or the keynote, once struck by the earliest pioneers, always remains an echo in the air.

From the earliest days of the Spanish settlements Santa Barbara has always been serene, aristocratic, slightly upstage, friendly, self-confident and composed. When other California towns turned away the invading Russians and English in suspicious terror of invasion, Santa Barbara fed them, gave them fandangos; but overawed them by good breeding and stately etiquette. The invaders were afraid to start anything for fear they might commit a social error somewhere in the process.

With placid equanimity Santa Barbara saw one national flag after another go up and come down. Each new change of government was made the occasion for a charming party.

LOWBROW, BUT BUSY

Los Angeles, on the other hand, has always been a little weak on the aristocratic calm, but long on enterprise. Our original Plaza settlers were a rag-tag collection of half-castes of various colors and hues. The past records of many of them did not favor investigation; but when other colonies were found by relief ships on the edge of starvation Los Angeles always got along swimmingly. They didn't depend on relief ships. They hustled out and planted crops and built themselves good houses. Family trees did not flourish, but orange trees and grape vines did.

THE MISSION FATHERS

Of all the pioneers who ever settled any country, the mission padres were the most remarkable men. Under the brown cowls of humility were highly trained and

EMPLOYMENT LEVEL HIGH

Los Angeles Area Conditions Reported as Good by Federal Department of Labor

Employment conditions in the Los Angeles district are good, according to a United States Department of Labor bulletin made public yesterday for July. Director-General Francis I. Jones of the United States Employment Service for the Pacific Coast reported that industrial conditions for all California continued at a high level during July, and that there was an upward trend in employment. Oregon and Washington showed seasonal increases and activity.

In the Los Angeles district, including Long Beach, Santa Monica, Torrance, Pasadena and Riverside, practically all manufacturing establishments were in operation, many employing two and some three shifts. Skilled labor was in good demand. A slight shortage of skilled machine hands and tool and die workers was reported. Harvesting activities gave employment to many, though a labor surplus existed, chiefly unskilled. A large volume of building was under way, four Los Angeles projects involving expenditure of approximately $2,000,000, while $10,000,000 of additional work was contemplated. This, however, did not absorb all local craftsmen.

Many men have been employed on construction work, including municipal improvements totaling $11,-

FAT CHECK HIDES AMID WASTE

But Document Ordering Payment of $1000, Found on Steamboat at Tacoma, Out of Date Now, for Local Concern Stopped Payment on It

They are not so careless with their money in Los Angeles after all. Just because a $1000 check was found in a waste paper bale, away up in Tacoma, Wash., that originally was intended for a Los Angeles man, that was no reason to believe that some one had overlooked a bet down here where the oranges grow and the bathing girls cavort.

Newell Vanderhoef, realty dealer of 6517 Hollywood Boulevard, under date of May 31 sent a check for $1000 to E. J. Fleming, H. W. Hellman Building, Los Angeles.

Mr. Fleming did not get it. Mr. Vanderhoef promptly stopped payment on the paper and sent him another check.

Now the missing check has been found aboard a Columbia River steamboat, with the letter unopened, the stamp uncanceled and the check uncashed.

"I stopped payment the next day, when Fleming phoned me that he had not received it," said Mr. Vanderhoef. "Mr. Fleming was acting as agent for H. J. Helms of Beverly Hills and we sent the monthly rentals to him. It will be interesting but not important to get the check back. I am curious about it but my emotional reactions do not go further."

Dispatches from Tacoma tell of the crew of the Columbia River steamer Interstate, carrying a load of baled paper just received from Los Angeles. Seeing an unopened letter on top of a bale, Charles F. A. Mann picked it up. It was addressed to E. J. Fleming and was from the Vanderhoef company in Hollywood.

He opened the letter and found a brief business letter and a check for $1000, for June rental on a house in Beverly Hills.

The envelope had arrived in the bale through the waste paper basket route. It had been collected and baled and then shipped to the North to a Longview (Wash.) cardboard mill, having been transferred from an Admiral line vessel the day before.

Mr. Mann announced that he will send the check to the Vanderhoef Company.

FITTS DISMISSALS BACKED

County Counsel Mattoon Answers ex-Deputies' Suit; Legality of Election and Action Upheld

Affirming both the legality of Dist.-Atty. Fitts's election and his legal right to dismiss four of his deputies, County Counsel Mattoon yesterday filed an answer to the mandamus suit of Edgar T. Fee, former deputy, who was dismissed January 15, last.

The answer upholds Dist.-Atty. Fitts's contentions that his accusations against Fee and three other dismissed deputies were properly made and were according to the statutes made and provided.

Fee, with Thomas Hart, William B. Heinicke and Frank Ey, was asked to resign shortly after Fitts took office. The four refused to do so and as a result charges were filed against them with the Civil Service Commission asserting incompetency and inability to perform the duties expected of them.

After a civil service hearing lasting several weeks the commission, by a vote of 2 to 1, voted to uphold the District Attorney. Commissioner Mattison presented a minority opinion holding that Fitts did not have sufficient cause to dismiss the four men.

Fee subsequently filed with Superior Court a writ of mandamus asking that the District Attorney be ordered to pay his back salary from January 15, a sum amounting to about $4000 in all, and questioning the legality of the election of Fitts at the August primary.

Alexander Pantages Held to Superior Court for Trial on Charge of Attacking

THEATER TURNS TO COURTROOM

Session Conducted There as Witness Tells Story

Fitts Pledges Quick Action in Case's Prosecution

Defense Plans Kept Secret; Bail Set at $25,000

Alexander Pantages, millionaire theater owner, was bound over to Superior Court late yesterday by Municipal Judge Wilson on both counts of a complaint charging that he criminally, and with force and violence, attacked Eunice Pringle, 17-year-old university girl and dancer.

As he bound the defendant over for trial in the higher court, the judge read a written statement in which he declared at one point that there is sufficient evidence to believe that the attack was committed "and that there is sufficient cause to believe the defendant, Alexander Pantages, guilty thereof."

As the hearing ended, Dist.-Atty. Fitts and Chief Deputy District-Attorney Stewart, who handled the prosecution, declared that they will seek an early trial in Superior Court. They are allowed fifteen days in which to file information in the case, but asserted that the action will be taken before that time.

Pantages had nothing to say at the court's decision. His attorneys, W. I. Gilbert and Joseph Ford, however, asserted they are "satisfied with the progress of the case up to date." They called only one witness at the preliminary hearing, apparently reserving their forces for the coming battle in Superior Court.

TEXT OF STATEMENT

Judge Wilson's statement from the bench follows:

"On account of the prominence of the defendant and the wide publicity which has been given this hearing the court believes it proper to describe the nature of the proceedings which has just come to a close.

"This is a preliminary hearing. The court is not called upon, nor is he permitted to pass upon the guilt or innocence of Mr. Pantages at this time. Nothing said herein should therefore be construed that this point is being finally decided. He is now, and will at all times hereafter until the case is finally submitted to the Superior Court, be clothed with the presumption of innocence. The defendant has elected not to take the witness stand nor to put on any defense in his own behalf, nor is he required to.

"This case has been a particularly tedious and delicate one, for all the lawyers who have participated in it. Mr. Fitts and his able assistant, Mr. Robert Stewart, and Mr. Gilbert and Mr. Ford, who represented the defendant, have pursued their duties in a most courteous and able manner and the court takes great pleasure in saying that they have performed their duties ably on behalf of their respective clients.

"It is therefore, the court's duty to determine if sufficient facts have been presented which will warrant the court in holding this defendant for trial upon the above-mentioned charges before the Superior Court of this county, which the court now decides should be done.

"It therefore appears to me that the offense in the within - mentioned deposition, to wit: a felony on count one and a felony on count two, has been committed and that there is sufficient cause to believe the defendant, Alexander Pantages, guilty thereof.

"I order that he be held to answer to the same and that the bail which he has heretofore deposited in the sum of $25,000, remain in full force and effect."

GIRL ABSENT

Eunice Pringle, and her mother and father were not in the courtroom when Judge Wilson read his decision, they having retired to their home at 1116 North Mariposa street, after attending court in the morning.

The concluding day of testimony at the hearing was featured by more colorful events than have featured the case from its inception.

Due to the inability of a witness to illustrate adequately what he said he saw happen in the Pantages Theater Building a few minutes after the asserted attack took place a week ago yesterday, court adjourned shortly before 3 p.m. and reconvened twenty minutes later at the theater building at Seventh street and Broadway.

Here, while curious crowds jammed the street outside, Judge Wilson, prosecutors, defendant and attorneys, bailiffs, Court Reporter Ben Smith, detectives and witnesses filed through the corridors of the building as the witness took them from place to place and gave his testimony.

ACTION DESCRIBED

The witness was W. C. Hale, motion-picture actor, who testified that he was seated in the theater near an exit to the Seventh-street entrance to the building on the day of the asserted attack and hurried to the scene when he heard the Pringle girl's screams.

Hale's asserted activities on that day led the court attaches yesterday to make many trips up and down the stairs, to the little room on the mezzanine floor where the offense is asserted to have been committed, to Pantages's private office and other places.

With Hale's testimony complete the trial resumed in the courtroom and the prosecution announced that it rested its case.

DUNEAV CALLED

The defense called only one witness, Nicholas A. Duneav, 1172 North Kingsley Drive.

Duneav, a Russian actor and writer, is the man who wrote the skit in which Eunice Pringle played a leading part and which she hoped Pantages would book over his circuit. Duneav originally was supposed to be a prosecution witness, but was called by the defense to get his testimony on the record when the prosecution failed to put him on the witness stand.

The witness testified that he was introduced by friends to the Pringle girl about five months ago, and that he had gone voluntarily to the District Attorney's office to make a statement after the arrest of Pantages.

Questioning developed that Miss Pringle had purchased the skit written by Duneav for $350, he to receive 10 per cent royalties when it was produced on the stage. He stated he also directed the girl and other performers in rehearsals and declared that in April a Pantages official told him that they would book the act.

DRIVES IN CAR

During the time they were preparing the skit, Duneav said, he several times drove Miss Pringle and her mother, and on a few occasions Miss Pringle alone, about in his automobile, or one owned by Mrs. Pringle. A week ago last Friday, he said, he drove the girl downtown and told her that she might go up to see Pantages about the act, and he arranged to leave Mrs. Pringle's car in a parking station at Second and Hill streets.

At the conclusion of the hearing the District Attorney's office admitted the receipt of hundreds of letters from persons interested in the case. Scores of these, including many telegrams, came from Seattle, Wash., and Garden Grove, Cal., where the Pringle girl formerly lived. Practically all of the communications urged that justice be done, and persons who had known the girl were high in praise of her character. From Garden Grove, where Miss Pringle and her mother lived for nine years until moving here recently, came letters from business men, civic officials and organizations, one of the latter going on record in a resolution of confidence in the girl.

ACTOR TESTIFIES

The testimony of Hale occupied most of the morning session.

Hale testified that he was seated in the balcony of the Pantages Theater on the day of the asserted attack and heard a girl's screams through a near-by exit. Hurrying through this aperture, he met the Pringle girl running downstairs in a hysterical condition.

"She fell into my arms and then jerked herself away and continued running downstairs," testified the witness. "I continued up the stairs and saw Pantages standing in the little room off the mezzanine floor."

Hale here asserted that Pantages's clothing was in even more disarray than has been testified by other State's witnesses and he followed with further testimony of what he observed of the theater man's appearance.

OFFICER MENTIONED

Hale spiked his testimony on these points by declaring that he called attention to some of the things he observed to Traffic Officer Courtney, who had hurried into the building, drawn by the commotion.

Hale said that he and Courtney talked to Pantages in the latter's office on the second floor a few minutes after the asserted attack took place and that Pantages said to the officer:

"Quiet this all down; I don't want no publicity."

"You're not going to let him get away like this?" Hale said he asked Courtney, as Pantages walked toward the door.

"No, you go down and get the dicks (detectives,)" Courtney answered, the witness further testified.

Hale also corroborated other State's witnesses in statements that an as yet unidentified man hurried to Pantages's assistance in the matter of arranging his clothing and slammed the door in the face of onlookers. He also said he observed teeth marks on the arms and shoulders of Miss Pringle.

MERRIMENT CAUSED

On cross-examination, Hale provided considerable merriment for those in attendance. As has been the case with every prosecution witness, the defense counsel began a searching inquiry into his life and occupation, particularly his recent activities.

Hale answered all questions in a voice that boomed across the courtroom, and seemed particularly fitting to his robust frame and rugged countenance.

"You are an actor?" Gilbert began the cross-examination.

Hale admitted this to be true.

"Tell us something about it," pursued the questioner. "Where and what part you took."

"Well, I played the part of a gorilla in a circus serial for Universal," boomed out the witness, while the judge and court attaches tried unsuccessfully to conceal smiles.

LAUGHTER BEGINS

"Then I done a foot soldier in 'The Big Parade,'" he explained a moment later, "and I was the referee, announcer and general atmosphere in another picture."

By this time there was no attempt to hold back laughter in the courtroom, and the witness entered into the spirit of the occasion, his face widening into a grin.

"Yes, and what else," persisted Attorney Gilbert.

"Well, I done a big, bad western cowboy," farther explained the witness.

"Tough, eh?" commented the attorney.

"Tough," answered the witness, his smile lighting the assertion.

WISE BACK ON STAND

Fred T. Wise, on the stand for further cross-examination, was the first witness called when court convened at 9:30 a.m.

Despite his admitted nervousness, the defense attorneys were unable to break the substance of his testimony and their persistent efforts only brought more statements damaging to the defense.

Wise, one of the first witnesses drawn to the theater offices by the girl's screams, declared that after he had been taken to the police station he obtained the permission of a police captain to return to the Pantages Theater Building with two policemen and further search the room where the asserted attack took place.

When he returned, he said, he found a man in the room who declared he was an assistant manager of the theater cleaning up.

Yesterday morning was the first time that newspaper men were allowed to attend the hearing while court was in session, the defense having availed itself of a certain section of the Penal Code on the day the hearing started to have the public excluded. Pantages yesterday, however, was understood to have withdrawn his objection to newspaper men, who, during the period they were excluded, nevertheless got accurate reports of what took place from the transcript of testimony and from other sources.

AVIATRICES ALL SET FOR DERBY

Sixteen Planes in Hangars to Await Start Tomorrow

Other Entries Expected for Take-off on Long Grind

Valuable Prizes Sought on Dash to Cleveland

With the arrival at Clover Field, Santa Monica, of four women flyers yesterday, sixteen aviatrices put their planes in hangars last night to await the starting gun tomorrow afternoon which will send them away toward the National Air Races of Cleveland on the first National Women's Air Derby.

Four more stars of American women aviation circles are scheduled to set their ships down here today to swell the starting line-up to twenty on the 1700-mile race for cash, trophies and fame.

The first aviatrix will take to the air at 2 p.m. tomorrow from Clover Field, circle the field once and strike out for San Bernardino, end of the first leg on the eighteen-stop flight between Clover Field and Cleveland. The race will end on the 26th inst.

REPORTS DENIED

Dispatches from Tucson, Ariz., stating that that city had been cut out of the women's itinerary on account of Tucson not putting up a lap prize for the flyers was denied at Santa Monica race headquarters last night.

Officials stated that although Tucson failed to support the event financially, the women flyers will not disappoint the residents there and probably will stop for half an hour en route to El Paso, Tex. The matter will be settled this morning at a final meeting of the entrants.

The twenty women will fly from here to San Bernardino tomorrow, remain overnight there and reach Phoenix next Monday evening for another night's rest. Tomorrow's hop will be only seventy miles, but from San Bernardino the flights lengthen out to daily hops of around 400 miles.

LARGE PRIZES

Other overnight stops are scheduled at El Paso, Tex., Abilene, Tex., Fort Worth, Tex., Wichita, Kan., St. Louis, Mo., and Columbus, O. The racers will take off at each control point at one-minute intervals and will be clocked by official timers on departures and landings, their total hours in the air to decide the winner of the $8000 grand prize, and the intermediate times the winners of lap prizes averaging $500.

Opal Logan Kuntz, New York society matron, set her ship down at Clover Field yesterday, shortly before the arrival of the three other newcomers, Mary E. Von Mack, only aviatrix of Detroit; Phoebe Omlie of Memphis, Tenn., and Neva Paris of Great Neck, L. I.

OTHERS EXPECTED

Ruth Nichols, former New York debuntante, plans to fly her sport biplane here today from a mountainside near Salome, Ariz., where she was forced down en route here last Wednesday.

Edith Foltz of Portland, Or., is reported to have left Colorado Springs, Colo., yesterday noon and is expected to land at Santa Monica some time today or just before the deadline tomorrow.

May Hazilys of Tulsa, Okla., and Mrs. Keith Miller, also are expected as last-minute starters.

Preparations are under way today to handle the large crowd expected at tomorrow's take-off. The flyers will leave the field in the order in which their race entries were received, and a large roped inclosure will be provided for the ships still on the ground waiting for the individual starting flags.

Other entries in the novel race are Ruth Elder, Amelia Earhart, Claire Fahy, Marvel Crosson, Florence Lowe Barnes, Louise McPhetridge Thaden, Bobbie Trout, Thea Rasche, Margaret Perry, Gladys O'Donnell, Mabel Waters and Blanche Noyes.

ALL KINDS OF FLYERS

A majority of the women hold, or formerly held, some kind of an air record. There are altitude champions mixed in with endurance and transoceanic heroines, parachute-jumpers, in ships next to women transport pilots, and girls who have flown for only a few months.

All, however, will be on even terms in the long flying grind. Their ships have been classified according to motor power and everything made equal so that the winner of the race will come through to first place by smart flying and navigating ability rather than by being at the controls of a superior plane.

The derby is being sponsored and managed by the Santa Monica Exchange Club in co-operation with the National Exchange Club. The day of the women's arrival at the National Air Races will be set aside as Exchange Club Day.

P.E. Workers to Picnic Today

Pacific Electric Railway trainmen and station employees today will hold their annual picnic at Redondo Beach. An attendance of 15,000 employees, their families and friends is expected to make this the largest industrial outing in Southern California.

The railway company has installed a loud speaker system to enable all the picnickers along El Paseo to hear the announcements and the various speakers on the program. Hundreds of extra chairs have been provided for the comfort of those attending, and special arrangements have been made to amuse the young. Free tickets will be given to concessions, ice cream, souvenirs and other juvenile delights.

In addition to the Redondo Beach picnic, the Pacific Electric has provided a special outing today at Rose Hill Park for its Mexican employees.

Rayon has become so popular in Germany that plants turning out the material are working to capacity.

JAPANESE SINGER MAKES HER DEBUT

Miss Kyoko Inouye

Miss Kyoko Inouye, outstanding Japanese vocalist of Southern California, made her debut last night at the Japanese Union Church, 120 North San Pedro street.

She was born in Japan, but has lived here twelve years, and is a graduate of Lincoln High School. She is 22 years of age, and it is anticipated that she has operatic possibilities.

Last night she sang "One Fine Day" from the opera "Madame Butterfly," by Puccini. She also sang numbers in German, Latin and English.

Assisting her were Miss Julia Suski, piano; J. M. Kono, cello, and J. M. Yamamoto, violin.

AIR-MINDED ACTOR HOPS IN ON TOWN

'Hap Hazard,' Darts About 'Over' Vaudeville Circuit Accompanied by Wife

Heralded as the first vaudevillian to make his city-to-city jumps via the air, Hal A. Hart, a comedian known professionally as "Hap Hazard," arrived at the American Airport here late yesterday, piloting his own Waco Wright-motored plane. He was accompanied by his wife.

HAL A. HART

En route over Radio-Keith-Orpheum circuit, Hart started his tour in New York, hopping to St. Louis, thence to Winnipeg, Vancouver and down the coast to San Francisco and Los Angeles. He opens at the Orpheum today.

He claims to be the first pilot to fly over the Canadian Rockies from Winnipeg to Vancouver. This perilous trip required flying at altitudes ranging from 10,000 to 22,000 feet through tantalizing air pockets, the ground below a pot pourri of jagged mountain peaks. During the jaunt Mrs. Hart wore a parachute, but says it would have been folly to have tried to use it.

Throughout California demands for skilled labor absorbed practically all competent workers, except in the building trades. There was a surplus of unskilled labor in all localities. Harvest and cannery work absorbed quite a number of workers, and other agricultural activities are expected to increase this number in August. The lumber industry had satisfactory operations, though several mills worked on reduced time. In San Francisco, resident workers were well employed. Man Proves Arsenic Theory

To prove his contention against the popular belief that arsenic poisoning can be absorbed through the skin, Prof. Walker Hall, the distinguished English toxicologist, faced death recently. He rubbed a fatal dose of arsenic over his hand and waited a half-hour for the result. Nothing happened, so he repeated the experiment and proved his theory.

BOULDER POWER FUTURE BRIGHT

Water District Confident of Supply for Pumps

Delegation Returns After Session With Mead

Southland Cites to Share Dam's Electricity

Expressing confidence that the Secretary of the Interior will approve the Metropolitan Water District's application for Boulder Dam power needed to pump Colorado River aqueduct water to Southern California cities, the Los Angeles official delegation returned yesterday from a three-day conference in Denver with Dr. Elwood Mead of the United States Reclamation service.

The Los Angeles officials, headed by President Palmer of the Board of Water and Power Commissioners, and W. P. Whitsett, chairman of the board of directors of the Metropolitan Water District, were called to Denver by Dr. Mead to discuss the quantity of hydropower desired by the city of Los Angeles and the water district.

ALL CITIES EQUAL

The Los Angeles delegation took the position that every municipality in Southern California desiring power through its municipally owned system should be dealt with on the same basis, and that the needs of each should be given the same consideration. It is assumed that the Federal government, in allotting power rights at Boulder Dam, will give priority to municipalities, as is provided in the Federal Water Power Act and in the Boulder Dam Act.

"The delegation returned very much encouraged over the recognition given to the claims of the water district for water and sufficient power to pump it, and to the claims of the city of Los Angeles for power for distribution through its publicly owned power system," stated President Palmer.

FIRST CONSIDERATION

"Members of the delegation are convinced by the attitude taken by representatives of the Federal government, of other governmental units and of the private power corporations that the power needs for the pumping of water, to be brought here for the Metropolitan Water District, will be given first consideration. The power requirements for this are expected to equal more than half of the total capacity of the project.

"The delegation specifically requested that in consideration of the claims for power for distribution in the city of Los Angeles all municipalities of Southern California, establishing claims for allotment of power, be dealt with on a basis of equality, each municipality receiving such share of the power available to municipalities as their consumption warrants on a ratio basis. The city, the delegation declared, wishes its requests for allotment of power to be without prejudice to other municipalities that may make requests for power.

SOUNDNESS ASSURED

"Discussions of rates and of the market for power clearly established, the delegation believes, the financial soundness of the Boulder Dam project necessary for its construction.

"Allotment of the power that will be made available offers a major problem for solution, but that it will be solved with fair recognition of all of those with claims justifiable under the Boulder Canyon Act is the belief of those who discussed problems with the representatives of the United States government."

MATHEWS HIRED AS WATER DISTRICT COUNSEL

W. B. Mathews, special counsel for the Los Angeles Department of Water and Power, yesterday was retained by the board of directors of the Metropolitan Water District as legal adviser of that board.

The selection of Mr. Mathews was authorized through the adoption, by a unanimous vote of the board of a resolution which provided that steps be taken to make arrangements with the Los Angeles Water and Power Commission to the end that the Metropolitan Water District might use the services of Mathews and his legal staff in the water and power department as required. Under this arrangement, the Metropolitan District and the Los Angeles department will share in the employment of Mr. Mathews.

Rivera Suicide Laid to Worry Over Finances

Henry H. Spears, 50 years of age, ended his life yesterday by shooting himself in the right temple at his ranch house near Rivera, according to reports to the Sheriff's office. Hearing a shot, neighbors entered the house and found Spears dead, an obsolete Derringer pistol beside the body. He was a cousin of J. H. Talbot, oil man.

When Talbot learned of the suicide he told investigating officers his cousin had been brooding for some time over financial difficulties. The body was removed to the W. A. Brown funeral parlors in Los Angeles.

Spears is understood to have a mother and three brothers living in Lexington, Ky.

TERMS COME TO END AT VACATION SCHOOLS

The six weeks' term of the vacation schools conducted by the Los Angeles Board of Education closed yesterday. It was attended by more than 30,000 students, the last enrollment in the elementary grades being 19,176 and the enrollment in the junior and senior vacation high schools totaling 11,569. The latter figure includes students who attended the evening sessions of the Polytechnic High School and the Frank Wiggins Trade School.

CAFE LIQUOR SALES TOLD BY OFFICER

Policeman Testifies at Hearing on Padlocking of Tony's Restaurant

R. F. Southard, Los Angeles police officer, testified before Judge Finney yesterday that he and other members of the police force were served liquor at Tony's cafe, 901 East First street, on numerous occasions, but when raids were made later no intoxicants could be found.

Southard was on the witness stand most of the day yesterday at the hearing on a complaint for abatement brought by Dist.-Atty. Fitts on behalf of the State to close the restaurant for asserted liquor violations.

COURT VISITS CAFE

During the course of the trial Judge Finney adjourned court to the premises on First street to view the property and the cafe where it is asserted the liquor was sold.

The action is directed against the Title Guarantee & Trust Co., trustee of the property, represented in court by Attorney Rollin L. McNitt; the cafe owners, Tony and John Panzich and others, represented by Attorney Russell Graham. The State's case is being handled by Deputy Dist.-Atty. Richardson.

OVERTURES DENIED

In their defense the Panzich brothers assert that Southard came to their cafe and told them that unless they "got on the line" meaning, unless they paid protection money, their place would be raided repeatedly. Both stoutly maintain no liquor was sold at the cafe, but many raids were conducted.

Southard, under cross-examination yesterday, emphatically declared that he never told the Panzichs they would have to "get on the line." In fact, he said, he never had heard of the expression until he saw it printed in the newspapers and in the Panzich affidavit.

TEST CASE ON NEW LAW AWKWARD

Official Liability Act Needs Volunteer Victim; None Seeks Honor

Liability of cities, counties and school districts for acts of their employees under the terms of Assembly Bill No. 595, which provides that bodily and property damage resulting from negligent operation of automobiles shall be collectible from the public treasury, may have to be decided in a test case, County Counsel Mattoon said yesterday.

City Attorney Werner has given an opinion that the act is void, in so far as it attempts to create a liability on the part of the State, counties and municipalities.

Because it appears impracticable for an accidental personal injury to be arranged to order or for property damage to be incurred in a similar manner, Mattoon admitted that it will be difficult to create proper conditions for the prosecution of a trial case.

It was proposed that a dog be taken from the city pound to be run over, but the County Counsel dismissed this suggestion because of possible charges of cruelty if the animal were not killed instantly and because it would be difficult to prove any value for such a dog.

Alma Bennett, Actress, Weds

Alma Bennett, motion-picture actress, and Harry Spingler, her manager, were quietly married yesterday in the chambers of Judge Billings's justice court at Sherman. The ceremony was attended by only a few of their friends.

The couple left the courtroom in the afternoon without any definite plans as to their honeymoon. Their tentative plans, however, call for a trip to Honolulu as soon as possible. It was the second marriage for both.

AIR SERVICE LINKS CITY TO OKLAHOMA

Los Angeles and principal cities in Oklahoma were linked by a new aerial service yesterday following the announcement by Hal M. Shields, general passenger agent for Western Air Express, that his company has concluded arrangements with the Braniff Air Lines for the exchange of passengers at Amarillo. Under the arrangement air travelers may leave Los Angeles daily on the Western Air Express planes and arrive in Oklahoma City eleven hours later. The flying time to Tulsa is twelve hours, he said.

THREE BURNED IN ACID ATTACK

Jealous Suitor of One Victim Listed as Suspect

Sufferers Taken to Hospital for Treatment

A jealous suitor, believed by the police to be David Schleimer, 28 years of age, of 118 North Los Robles avenue, Pasadena, yesterday sent three women to the hospital for treatment of burns, when he hurled nitric acid at one of them as she labored as a baker in a pie shop at 5747 Camerford street.

DAVID SCHLEIMER

The most seriously burned of the three is Mrs. Mae Carter, 39 years of age, of 6031½ Eleanor street. At Dickey & Cass Emergency Hospital, where she was taken, she was reported suffering first and second-degree burns about the face, neck and arms. Two other employees of the shop, Mrs. Lillian Schaeffer of 3131 Eleanor street, and Mrs. Mabel Haynes of 6106½ Barton avenue, received less serious burns when some of the acid splashed on them after it had struck Mrs. Carter.

MRS. LILLIAN SCHAEFFER

RUSE DESCRIBED

Schleimer, according to Captain of Detectives Wallis of Hollywood division, entered the shop shortly before noon and exhibited a bandaged arm to Mrs. Carter, saying he had injured it in an automobile accident and requesting her to dress it for him. While she was engaged in removing the bandage, Mrs. Carter reported to police, he produced a bottle of nitric acid and, stepping back a pace, dashed the contents full in her face. Then he fled. Other employees took the three women to the hospital.

After an investigation Capt. Wallis reported Mrs. Carter's daughter, Hazel, told him that Schleimer for some time has been unduly jealous concerning her mother and frequently threatened to kill her because of her lack of response to his attentions.

SUSPECT'S RECORD

According to Capt. Wallis, Shleimer has a minor police record. He was arrested here October 11, 1927, and on July 31, 1928, on a charge of disturbing the peace. On February 7, last, he was booked on the same charge in Pasadena; and on March 15, last, a vagrancy charge was entered against him at Sacramento.

Schleimer has been disowned by his family, according to his mother, Mrs. Abraham B. Schleimer, at her North Los Robles-avenue home at Pasadena. Abraham Schleimer, the father, died about two months ago. He was a retired attorney. Mrs. Schleimer has been near collapse since her husband's death. She told reporters, however, that she has disowned her son, David, and that although he called at her home two weeks ago, he does not live there regularly.

WOMAN MAY TESTIFY AT TORSO TRIAL

New Witness Found in River Murder Case Due to Open Here Monday

A new mystery witness for the State in the prosecution of Dr. Frank P. Westlake, charged with the "torso" murder of Mrs. Laura B. Sutton four months ago, was revealed yesterday when it was discovered that Miss Edith Maudlin of 946 1-2 Bonnie Brae avenue, has been questioned extensively by the District Attorney's office regarding the physician's transactions since Mrs. Sutton's death.

Although deputy district attorneys declined to comment in any way regarding the matter, it is believed that the girl was questioned as to whether or not Dr. Westlake had given or sold her any of the effects of Mrs. Sutton following her death.

Dr. Westlake was taken into custody nearly a month after the limbless and headless body of a woman was found in the Los Angeles River bed near Lynwood last April. No identification was made until nearly three weeks after the torso was found and that was made possible only with discovery of the head more than a mile upstream from where the first gruesome discovery was made.

Shortly afterward, Dr. Westlake was questioned and later arrested when officers asserted that he had obtained control of virtually all of the dead woman's assets. The officers charge that they have obtained evidence proving that Dr. Westlake was a close friend and business adviser of Mrs. Sutton prior to her death, and was seen with her not long before she disappeared.

When the case goes to trial in Superior Court Monday Wayne Jordan, assistant Chief Deputy District Attorney, who played a prominent part in the original investigation, and George Stahlman are expected to prosecute the case for Dist.-Atty. Fitts.

PENNSYLVANIANS TO MEET

A. P. Loeslein, president of the Pennsylvania State Society yesterday issued a call to all Pennsylvanians in Los Angeles to attend a get-together next Tuesday evening at Fraternal Hall, 845 South Figueroa street. There will be a musical program, cards and dancing, for which six prizes will be awarded.

HUSBAND FINDS HIS WIFE GONE

He Went to Country to Look for Work, He Says, and She Then Left Him

Mrs. Mary Herbst left her husband, Herman Herbst, while he was out in the country looking for work so that he could support her, he testified yesterday before Superior Judge Yankwich when asking for a divorce.

The husband testified that when he returned from the country his wife was gone. He declared a neighbor told him his wife said she never had intended to live with him anyway.

The couple had been married a year, according to the complaint. A decree was granted.

MONTH IN JAIL CHOICE OF WOMAN

Elderly Offender Picks Cell in Preference to Paying $300 Fine

A 69-year-old woman yesterday found herself faced with a $300 fine or thirty days in jail when Municipal Judge Sheldon gave her the choice after finding her guilty of violating the Wright Act by possessing liquor. She is Mrs. Margaret Gill, whose only address was given as Studio City; and she indicated that she will choose the sentence behind the bars.

At the same time George Stoddard, codefendant with the woman, received the same alternative. He chose to pay the fine.

Both were arrested when investigators from the District Attorney's office raided Mrs. Gill's premises at Studio City and found several gallons of liquor cached in the chicken coop. Stoddard's complicity in the ownership of the contraband was traced through fingerprints on the jugs.

Carrying their search farther, the officers assert they found a still, for the asserted possession of which Mrs. Gill is scheduled to appear for trial on a felony complaint in Superior Court on September 19, next.

Nonagenarian Just as Busy as She Can be

Ninety-two years easily might be an excuse to most persons who attain those years for a surcease of activities of all kinds, but not so to Mrs. Anna Allen of 607 North Normandie avenue, who is celebrating her ninety-second birthday today by holding open house throughout the day for her friends.

MRS. ANNA ALLEN.

According to a daughter, Miss Bernice Allen, who lives with her, Mrs. Allen at 92 not only is in excellent health and spirits but also is more active in the matter of pursuing household duties than many younger women. There is nothing that she doesn't do, from ironing to cooking and garden work.

It being impossible for her to read very much, she never misses an occasion to listen in on news items over the radio.

Mrs. Allen was born in Waukegan, Ill., and until nine years ago, when she moved to Los Angeles, spent most of her life in that region.

NEW BEACON STATION TO BE OPENED TONIGHT

Announcement that the new highway-airway beacon station of the Richfield Oil Company, just completed at Castaic Junction, will be opened officially at 8 o'clock tonight when the beacon will be lighted for the first time was made last night by Richfield officials. The Castaic beacon station is the nearest to Los Angeles, thirty-seven miles away, of all the thirty or more stations of the border-to-border chain now completed or in course of construction. Twenty-four-hour service also will be introduced at all the beacon tower stations on the Pacific Coast with the beacon towers operating from dusk to dawn.

NEWPORT WINS POINT IN COURT

Not Guilty Verdict Ordered on First of Counts

Lengthy Arguments Precede Action by Judge

Conspiracy Evidence Ruled to be Insufficient

F. P. Newport, wealthy real estate developer, and John D. Clarke, former Municipal Court clerk, yesterday won a legal victory in their trial before Superior Judge Doran, where they are charged with conspiracy to bribe Municipal Judge Stafford and attempting to influence a public officer, when Judge Doran instructed the jury to return a verdict of not guilty on the first count.

The order was made by Judge Doran following lengthy arguments by Le Compte Davis, who, with William Neblett, represents Newport, and E. J. Dennison, who is prosecuting the case for the District Attorney. Judge Doran did not make the order until he had spent considerable time in reviewing the law references submitted during the arguments.

DECISION QUOTED

In making his decision Judge Doran pointed out that under the Kempley case decision made by the California State Supreme Court, the acts and declarations of the asserted conspirators are, in themselves, insufficient under the law to establish a conspiracy.

The evidence thus far presented during the prosecution of Newport and Clarke has been based principally on declarations asserted to have been made by them to other persons.

Immediately after this ruling Attorney Davis again arose and moved that the second count against Newport be dismissed on grounds that the evidence is insufficient to warrant prosecution. William T. Kendrick, Jr., attorney for Clarke, made no motion for his defendant, indicating that he would make a separate motion after the court disposes of the motion made in favor of Newport.

ARGUMENTS MONDAY

After Attorney Davis presented his second motion Judge Doran announced that court would adjourn until Monday, next, when arguments on the motion will be heard.

Newport and Clarke are accused of approaching Judge Stafford in an asserted attempt to persuade him to rescind a decision which he had made in a $1,000,000 suit favoring Charles Middleton in a civil action brought by the latter against Newport.

Judge Stafford in the early stages of the trial testified that he conferred with Dist.-Atty. Fitts immediately after Clarke is asserted to have made a $50,000 bribe offer and thereupon the District Attorney ordered a dictograph installed in the judge's chambers to gather further evidence.

In court, however, it developed that the men who listened in on the dictograph heard virtually nothing of an incriminating nature.

Should the pending motion be denied and the trial proceed, it is believed that the case will go to the jury Monday.

"Brother Tom" to be Tendered Farewell Fete

Arrangements were completed yesterday for a farewell luncheon to be tendered "Brother Tom" Liddecoat, founder of the Midnight Mission, at the Alexandria next Wednesday noon on the occasion of his departure for Europe and the Holy Land. It is being sponsored by the board of directors of the mission, the committee in charge being Col. William Eric Fowler, chairman; Gilbert Wright, William Rhodes Hervey, Frank X. Pfaffinger, H. E. Beman and W. A. Lollier.

The luncheon will be open to the public, reservations being received by Mrs. George Kutler at the Midnight Mission, Fourth and Los Angeles streets. Among those present will be Mayor Porter and his family, it is announced.

Accompanied by his daughter Mary, "Brother Tom" will leave Los Angeles Wednesday night. He is booked to sail from New York on the liner Carmania on the 30th inst. The tour, which will last four months, will take him to England, France, Italy, Egypt and the Holy Land.

MAYOR ON INSPECTION TRIP IN OWENS VALLEY

Mayor Porter left Los Angeles yesterday afternoon for the Owens River Valley, where he plans to spend the week-end inspecting the valley towns and talking with the people concerning the proposed purchase by the Bureau of Water Works and Supply of the five valley communities. He made the trip in answer to several invitations by valley residents and associations. He said he will return Monday night.

TALE SMACKS OF HALLOWEEN

Broomstick, Cats and Neighbor Dames' Mixup Catastrophic; Nine-Lived Feline's Mistress Flogged, She Says; Nine-Tailed One's Owner Held in Bail

A straying cat, a broomstick and a thirty-inch dog whip yesterday joined to land Mrs. Mary Beach, 58 years of age, in court to answer a charge of battery and sent her neighbor, Mrs. Helen Miller, 50, to her doctor for treatment of welts across her back.

According to the complaint issued by City Prosecutor Nix at the request of Mrs. Miller the latter's pet feline took a notion yesterday morning to stroll across the lawn in front of Mrs. Beach's home at 1907 West Seventy-Fifth street. Forthwith, it is charged, Mrs. Beach, wielding a broomstick, dashed from her house and took a swipe at Tabby.

Mrs. Miller thereupon rushed to the aid of her pet and in the argument that ensued she disarmed her irate neighbor. Mrs. Beach, the complaint charges, re-entered the house and returned to the attack with a leather lash, with which she proceeded to administer a sound thrashing to Mrs. Miller.

At this juncture Thomas Lowe, an inspector for a gas company happened along and separated whipper and whippee but not, however, without receiving a few stripes himself. Mrs. Miller then gathered Tabby up in her arms and made the complaint and Officers Anderson and Mesloh of the Seventy-seventh street division called and took Mrs. Beach in custody.

When later arraigned before Municipal Judge Stutson Mrs. Beach declined to enter a plea and the case was put over for Monday, bail being fixed at $1000.

Have you noted the expressions of pleasure with which each member of your family has greeted the grape juice you so thoughtfully made for them from Guasti's Concentrated Grape Juice? Why, each one is tickled to death to find that by adding three parts water to this ever-so-good product of the Italian Vineyard Company they have a beverage fit for the gods! . . . but not only can delicious drinks be made from Guasti's Concentrated Grape Juice but the most super-palatable, toothsome desserts as well. Why, when you stop to think about it our summer thirsts are going to be for once adequately appeased and our longing for good desserts well satisfied by the use of Guasti Concentrated Grape Juice. Have you used it? If not get a quart right away and then follow that quart with a gallon—so good is it. Suppose your grocer can't supply you as yet, don't be discouraged. Just phone MUtual 2124 (that's the number of the Italian Vineyard Company) and ask the order department to send you out the desired amount, reminding them that you also want included their free booklet known as "Grape Drinks and Desserts." Call now that you may be prepared to serve friends who drop in tomorrow some of that good old grape juice Guasti made possible.

To keep rugs from slipping cut a three-cornered piece of rubber sheeting to fit each corner and sew it firmly in place; old rainshoes may be cut up for this purpose. Another way is to take a piece of heavy, rough sheathing paper a bit smaller than the rug and lay the rug on it. Small rugs will not curl at the corners if a corset steel is basted under each end.

Do you realize that you can have your badly worn, tarnished knives, forks and tablespoons replated for $3.50 a dozen by the Peerless Platers, who are very fine gold and silversmiths. They only charge $2.50 a dozen for teaspoons. VAndike 5417 is the phone number.

To remove the rusty look from black suede shoes or slippers rub them with a mixture of equal parts of olive oil and ink. Remove grease marks from suede shoes by rubbing the spots lightly with emery paper; this brings up the nap again. Grease spots on suede shoes will also disappear if they are rubbed with a piece of cloth dipped in pure glycerin.

There is no doubt about it . . . The Conover Dish Washer which may be bought in three sizes (to meet the requirements of any size family) is what you need to wash your dishes and thereby take the drudge out of housekeeping. Wouldn't you like a week's free trial of one? Then write the Electric Utilities Co., 737 Terminal, or phone EMpire 9056 or TRinity 9581.

We know exactly the place to dine you are seeking! It's on the Coast highway halfway between Los Angeles and San Diego, and the name of the place is Travaglini's Cafe San Clemente. A more alluring spot in which to enjoy super-palatable food, would be impossible to find . . . So hospitable is the atmosphere; so courteous the host —Mr. Travaglini himself. If possible, motor down this week-end, won't you? Such a trip will be a gala event in your life, that is certain. In case you cannot get out of town, then stop at Travaglini's Roma Rotisserie and Food Shop at 1801 W. 7th. The same delectable food is served here under the management of Mr. Travaglini, Jr. They also have food here to take home, you know.

For shiny coat collar sponge it with a cloth moistened in ammonia or vinegar. Clean a soiled coat collar by rubbing it briskly with an old toothbrush dipped in naphtha or any good cleaning solution.

This is just the time of the year to dispose of articles you no longer want. Send everything of the sort to the Children's Hospital, Salvage Department, where they will be sold and the money used to help save some poor child's life. Here is the address to send your bundle to: 712 Maple Ave. Phone number, TUcker 1303.

To make an old rug as stiff as when new clean the rug, turn it upside down and paint it with starch; leave in the sun till well dried.

So attractive are Fluff rugs and colonial rugs for your beach house or mountain cabin. Wouldn't it be nice to have some made out of old carpets and rags you have accumulated? Then call up the Hoffman Rug Works right away. The address is 2914 W. Jefferson; phone number EMpire 2048.

To remove paint spots from hardwood floors apply kerosene and then rub them with a soft cloth which has been wrung from lukewarm water.

Your rugs and carpets—have you had them cleaned as yet? Don't wait a day longer, but send all of them to John Bloeser City Steam Carpet Cleaning Works. This concern, having been in business fifty years, is thoroughly reliable and dependable. Why not have them call today — their phone number is TRinity 4739.

Dressing for plain vegetable salads: To plain French dressing add one teaspoonful mustard, two teaspoonfuls Worcestershire sauce and one-third teaspoonful onion juice.

A most reliable concern to whom to take your valuable stones to be recut and reset and polished is the Peerless Platers, 239½ S. Spring (upstairs.) Mr. Kent does this work unusually well, while his low prices will astound you. He also repairs jewelry and does special designing and copies any piece you may wish duplicated.

What you all want and will fully enjoy is personal stationery, consisting of 200 sheets and 100 envelopes of fine-grade paper with your name and address printed on it in Prussian blue—all for 95 cents, at Schwabacher-Frey's, 736 S. Broadway. At this small cost there cannot be any deliveries or phone orders—you will have to stop in for it—which no one will mind, I'm sure.

Oh, so delicious are Mayflower Potato chips . . . really the best in quality you ever tasted! Have you tried them as yet?—if not get them today for the beach party or for home use. They are ideal for warm weather menus especially. If your grocer can't supply you phone ANgelus 6512 for the amount you desire.

Salad Suggestions: A little pat of cottage or cream cheese with a teaspoonful of current jelly on lettuce which has been well dressed with French dressing. String beans and shredded carrots with mayonnaise on lettuce.

Slip covers are ideal the year 'round in Los Angeles, you know, and this is a good time of the year to have them made by the West Coast Slip Cover Co. at 1425 W. 8th, for they do such splendid work and charge very modest prices. Remember, they make lovely draperies, too, so do give them a trial soon. Their phone number is DRexel 6728.

For a high polish on furniture use equal parts of lemon oil and turpentine; saturate a cloth and go over the entire surface; then dampen another cloth, wring almost dry and wipe off the excess oil; polish with dry woolen cloth.

By the way what have you done about your unframed pictures . . . and are you neglecting the lovely wood block etchings prints you have been collecting these many months—you really should take them into one of Mathew's Paint Company's stores and have all of them framed properly. They have some of the most ultra moldings I have seen anywhere—some of them possess lovely colors which blend in with the predominating color of your French frames—too lovely for words, they are. Just take note of these three addresses and visit one of their stores. One is at 1245 S. Hill; another in Hollywood is at 1559 N. Vine; and a third you will find at 742 E. Green, Pasadena.

A cheap floor wax which is excellent for use on hardwood floors: To one-half cake of melted paraffin add one teacupful of turpentine. Apply to the clean dry floor with a cloth; then polish with a woolen cloth or weighted brush. It gives an excellent polish and keeps floors nice and light.

Have you too found ants were driving you to distraction . . . then here is information you can't pass up—The "Calpro" System will forever eliminate these dreadful pests in half an hour's time. Now for prices and full information why don't you phone or write the Calpro Sales Company, 3616 W. Pico (EMpire 1038?) They have branches too, at 1329 Santa Monica Blvd. Beverly Hills; and 15 E. Canon Peridido, Santa Barbara.

To clean satin slippers take a little alcohol and drop three or four drops of lemon juice in it; apply it to the slippers with soft white cloth or linen.

Council Refers Tree Fund Veto to Committee

The City Council yesterday referred to the Finance Committee Mayor Porter's veto of a transfer of $11,000 toward the planting of trees in the parkway of Highland avenue, following a long discussion on the matter. The money was set aside by the Council from the permanent improvement fund only as a loan, so that the planting could go ahead in this season, without waiting for tax money to come in in November.

Highland avenue and its parkway, and the fight of its residents against heavy trucking, have occupied the Council on many occasions, and yesterday the same old arguments against the parkway were advanced by those who believe the street should be given over as a major traffic artery.

Septuagenarian Killed by Train

George McLaughlin, 70 years of age of 1300 Myrtle avenue, was injured fatally late yesterday when he was struck by a Pacific Electric train at Ninety-second street and Long Beach Boulevard.

According to Detective Lieutenants Penrose and Swope of the Watts division, McLaughlin alighted from a Watts local train at the intersection and, instead of waiting for it to continue, crossed in front of it, unaware that Redondo-bound train No. 1023 was speeding along in the same direction on the middle tracks. The train, in charge of Motorman W. D. Yarder and Conductor D. Wahl, struck him, throwing him clear of the wheels and inflicting injuries from which he died on arrival at Georgia-street Receiving Hospital.

Paris and Sweden may be connected by a new night air service.

GAMBLERS' SUBSTITUTE QUIZ ASKED

Court Orders Inquiry in Case of Man Who Came to Pay Fine and Was Jailed

Possibility that guilty defendants may be escaping punishment by means of substitutes who serve the jail sentences prompted Municipal Judge Bogue yesterday to inquire into the status of Harry Braun and suggest that the police conduct an investigation into the matter.

Appearing before Judge Bogue, Braun admitted he appeared in court on the previous day on the gambling charge on behalf of Morris Goldberg, expecting to pay a fine. Instead he was sentenced to serve sixty days in jail with no fine as an alternative.

The substitution was called to the attention of Judge Bogue by Deputy City Prosecutor Jack, who prosecuted the cases, following comparison of fingerprints by Detective Lieutenant Barlow, in charge of the police fingerprint bureau. According to police records, Braun, who is a cook and 52 years of age, has thirteen previous arrests against him and is known under the aliases of Harry Brown and William Alford.

Braun told the court that on the day he appeared in court for Goldberg he met a friend on the street who asked him to go into court and pay the fine and when Goldberg's name was called he answered.

"From now on you're Morris Goldberg," said Judge Bogue, "or at least until you serve the sixty days or tell all you know about the matter."

Further hearing was continued until next Monday at 2 p.m.

Five Missouri farm women are to be designated "master farm homemakers" and receive gold pins symbolizing the distinction. Selections will be made during the annual farmers' week at the University of Missouri.

Whiting Ends Tour Praising Houses Here

California homes are beyond compare, it was declared yesterday by Perry Whiting, president of the Whiting-Mead Building Material Company, after he and Mrs. Whiting returned from a tour of England, France, Italy, Turkey, Egypt, India, Java, China, Japan and Hawaii. Mr. Whiting studied architecture in these countries, and reports that no homes compare with those of America, particularly with those of California.

Mr. Whiting said that his study of living and working conditions abroad led him to assert that if the American workers could visualize the squalor, poverty and dejected misery in which the laboring classes of some of the countries visited live, they would be proud of their homes.

"No matter how humble they are, comparatively speaking, we live the lives and enjoy the luxuries of kings," he added. A group of friends and employees of the Whiting-Mead company greeted Mr. and Mrs. Whiting.

Moore Watches Chaplin's Antics

Alexander Moore, former Ambassador to Peru, watched Charles Chaplin, the film comedian, cut his capers for the screen yesterday at the Chaplin studio in Hollywood. Mr. Moore is Chaplin's house guest for three weeks.

The former Ambassador spent nearly all day on the set with Chaplin during which he discussed the recent Tacna-Arica dispute which ended in reconciliation between Peru and Chile and for which he was lauded for his statesmanship.

Mr. Moore is not in good health and is accompanied on his trip to the coast by a nurse. He plans on spending at least three weeks with Chaplin at whose home he was a guest on a visit in 1928.

Today's Bible Text

There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female; for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. Galatians iii:28.

SAVING A MONTH

Next thing folks will be taking to these aerial endurance contests in order to dodge the installment man.

THE POWERS THAT BE

A magazine writer intimates that the naval magnitude of the great nations depends more upon what the admirals think than what the politicians talk or the citizens want.

BEAT 'EM UP

Santa Monica man starts a crusade for a law which would provide the whip as a punishment for drunken drivers. That's the system. Let the slogan be: The lash for lushers.

THE WAY TO AFRICA

Four fine ships will form the new freight and passenger line between Los Angeles and South Africa—adding materially to the ease with which our citizens may slip away to all corners of the earth.

NAME YOUR POISON

There are folks who like their weather like their bacon—a streak of fat and then of lean. They want a cool fringe to a hot day. They crave chills with their fever. Well, this is a big country. We aim to please and the government experts are doing the best they can.

AN ATHENIAN BONNET

Among recent reported discoveries is the lid supposed to have been worn by Byron's well-known maid of Athens. Whether it had a feather in it or not is not mentioned, but it is a safe bet that no Hollywood girl would be found dead in it—careless as they are. Byron's poem mentions the maiden's eyes, cheeks, lips and waist, but there is nothing to suggest that she ever had a thatched roof, even when she went buggy riding.

SAVING THE JUNK

Said that certain communities have been able to get rid of their tin cans and broken bottles at a profit. These items of waste are said to have been purveyed at a rate of $6 a ton. The tin is reported as being melted up into sash weights and the glass was found of value in reproduction activities at the glass manufactories. It is a fine thing to be able to get rid of all garbage and junk at a profit, yet in a land of high efficiency there should be no such thing as waste. They used to say that our packing plants used everything of a hog but the squeal and now they can use that as inspiration for Ford horns.

SAVE YOUR SHIRTS

Regulations at Stanford as to apparel are quite liberal. The boys may dress pretty much as they please. Nevertheless, the professors have laid down one rule: Students must not lose their shirts. They are expected to keep the shirt on in any emergency—except, of course, when they are in the bath or plunge. But otherwise they must be ready to defend their shirts against any invader. No impious hand shall be suffered to filch from them this immaculate emblem of their manliness. No embarrassment of weather or drift of circumstance may lure them from the chaste environment of this historic garment. The class motto naturally is "Keep your shirt on."

THE RULING PASSION

A German who had lived long in this country and become an American citizen could not bring himself to accept the American flapper. He despised her bobbed hair and rouged lips and, therefore, when he craved a wife he went back to his ancient home in the fatherland to get one of the old-fashioned kind. Well, he found her and married her and brought her to the new home in America. But here the trouble began. The first business trip of the new wife was made to a beauty parlor, where she had her tresses bobbed and was otherwise dolled up to look like the American girls she so much admired. Now the question is, what is he going to do about it? He seeks a separation. He will probably have it.

CALIFORNIA WATER SURVEY

Commissions representing the Federal government and the State of California will soon begin a study of California's water supply and the question of bridging San Francisco Bay. The co-operation of Federal and State authorities on these two highly important matters is made possible by the initiative of President Hoover, whose genius for accomplishing results without resort to Congressional debates, investigations and delays is in this instance of tremendous service to his own State.

While it is, of course, obvious that the water resources of California constitute the State's foremost problem, the trans-bay bridge at San Francisco is essentially of State-wide importance and early removal of obstacles in the way of its construction will confer a benefit on the people of California as a whole.

A comprehensive survey of the water-conservation needs of the State, made both by California engineers and experts representing the views of the Federal government, should confer inestimable benefits to all sections, as it is assumed that Federal co-operation in this matter will entail consideration of the diverse local water problems of California as one general situation.

Flood control for the joint purposes of conservation and protection of property is the chief concern of the southern end of the State and both the central and northern portions of California face an increasing need for giving heed to scientific plans for water conservation.

For many years State and Federal engineers have independently studied the State's water resources and the potential conservation of water needed for agriculture and domestic use. The Hoover commission, working with a board of engineers to be appointed by the Governor of California, should be able to develop a program to which Californians without resort to local interest will be able to give effective support.

It may develop as a result of the Federal and State water survey that problems of navigation, power development and supply, irrigation and domestic water supply will be solved not only for the immediate future, but for many decades, thus eliminating waste and the possible retardation of development likely to arise through the absence of knowledge of the actual conditions.

Considered as a single problem, California's water supply can be made an effective instrument for furthering the prosperity and progress of all the people. Surplus waters of one section can be applied to correct deficiencies in another, with consequent advantage to each. The ultimate value of all such works—irrigation, conservation, navigation, flood control—will be greatly enhanced if they are considered in relation to one another.

Correlation and analysis of all the data now available and to be obtained on this vital subject may astonish not only those outside the State, but the people of California as well; for there is sound reason for believing that a State-wide conservation program will develop a water supply greatly in excess of that generally believed to be within the limits of possibility.

LIVING A CENTURY

No eighteen-day, seven-day, ten-day, thirty-day or any other diet was ever tried by Galusha M. Cole of Pasadena, who, nevertheless, is still hale and hearty at 103. On his birthday, which rolled around Thursday, he attributed his longevity to his being long-lived and to nothing else. The only secret of living, in his opinion, is to live.

No rule, of course, can be based on a single instance, but nevertheless the world awaits with a somewhat pardonably amused smile the comments of the food faddists on Galusha M. Cole's typical menu at 103: for breakfast, cereal, sometimes pancakes! sometimes meat! coffee! fruit only occasionally; doughnuts! For dinner, at noon: meat and potatoes, a vegetable, bread and butter, dessert. In the evening, a light lunch, contents undesignated, but presumably whatever Mr. Cole happens to fancy. He does not smoke, but he didn't quit because he thought it was affecting his health. He did it to win a bet from his wife.

In this menu are most of the substances and the combinations at which most diet advice is aimed, but which perverse human beings continue to hanker for. Apparently Mr. Cole has never parted with his tonsils or his appendix and has paid little if any attention to his hormones. He has worked hard and he has worked lightly—at farm labor and at music teaching; he has taken exercise and he has rested in his chair and watched the world whiz by. He strolled to the top of Mt. Wilson on his birthday eight years ago—"a crazy thing to do," his housekeeper commented, but the centenarian did not indorse her opinion.

Mr. Cole's rule of living has been followed by men who lived long and by men who died young, and about the only conclusion that can be drawn from his life is that the things he did were good—for him. Had he given more thought to the mechanics and chemistry of living, he might or might not have been better off, but it is certain he would not now have been any older!

Fads come and fads go. This year's meat is next year's poison; there is even a school of dietists now which believes in stuffing the baby with sugar plums, after a generation which has kept candy away from the child, and another school which declares that the youngster's own instincts are the very best guide to what it should ingest. There are those who declare that cow's milk is unfit for human consumption, and there are those who insist that it alone is the perfect food.

But this man who has reached 103 has had to do with none of them. Until they can produce a man who has followed somebody's diet regulations religiously and who also at 10? is well and strong, the world will continue to wear a somewhat amused smile.

A CASE OF SCOTCH

Sir Harry Lauder is arriving here on what he calls his sixth annual farewell tour of America. On the ship bearing him here from New Zealand he is said to have bought the drinks for all on board on a recent evening. Can it be that Harry is coming in a skiff?

The LEE SIDE O' L.A.

BY Lee Shippey

As we hoped, our little paragraph the other day, crediting Mr. Reid of the Pilgrimage Play staff with being the first hatless man hereabouts, has brought down wrath upon our head.

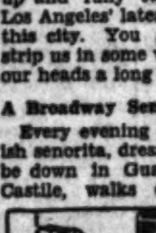
Especially from Santa Barbara. A. L. E. writes us that Santa Barbara clearly is entitled to credit (if that's what you call it) for starting the hatless fad. Listen to him:

"Thirty years ago the Honeywells of Santa Barbara and Boston and a Mr. Stillwell, a friend or secretary or something to them, began hatlessing around Santa Barbara. In those days a woman of position was expected to have a milk-white skin. Anything else was considered quite lower-class. But the Honeywells had the courage of their millions and Mrs. Honeywell was the first tanned woman of wealth and position I ever saw. She looked almost like that statue of Joan of Arc in Paris which is so ably copied on one of your Los Angeles boulevards—Beverly, I think—for adv. purposes. And Honeywell and Stillwell were just as tanned.

"The town people began taking it up and fully twenty-five years ago Los Angeles' latest was a going fad in this city. You Angelenos may outstrip us in some ways, but we stripped our heads a long time before you did."

A Broadway Senorita

Every evening at 6 o'clock a Spanish senorita, dressed just as she would be down in Guadalajara or over in Castile, walks demurely north on Broadway past The Times office. She wears her mantilla and her lace shawl gracefully and unconcernedly, as if unconscious of the vastly differing headgear all about her. Apparently she works in some store on Broadway and at 6 every evening walks back to her home, or lodging, in Sonoratown. Her skirt is rather long and the feet which show under it are very tiny. Her big, brown eyes look straight ahead, her olive cheeks are unrouged. She looks almost as if she had stepped out of some old Spanish picture into a modern American street.



We suppose it is too lovely to last—that after she has got a couple of pay envelopes she will change. But what a picturesque place our Sonoratown would be if the women there—more especially the girls—would stick to the costume in which they look enchanting instead of choosing those which make them look like muddy copies of their fairer-skinned sisters.

Barely Moistened His Whistle

R. L. P., writing us seriously and enthusiastically of his trip to Vancouver, says: "As soon as you get over there, where you can drink all you want to, the desire vanishes. Six bottles of beer was my limit."

How many barrels do you crave when your desire is all there?

Real, Citified Drug Store

Lee: What you write about Lake Arrowhead is all right, but when you go out to these California mountain resorts take along your own medicines, for those mountain folks all seem too healthy to ever need any. I was up in the San Bernardino Mountains, camping, and ate something which had been in the can too long. Result, ptummy-pain, which I thought might be ptomaine. "Where's the nearest drug store?" I asked. Nine miles away, they told me. So I drove over there and found it. But when I rushed in and told the "druggist" my trouble and asked what he had, he said: "Cold drinks, post cards, camera films, fishing tackle, beach balls, tennis balls, golf balls and bathing suits are all the drugs we carry." Then I got so hot it cured me.—Andy Howe.

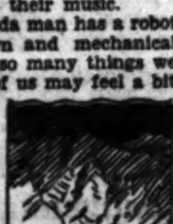
Still Uses for Mere Human Beings

Every Hollywood Bowl concert demonstrates the superiority of human over mechanical appeal.

You can sit at home and hear an occasional Bowl concert over your radio. Yet from 10,000 to 15,000 people drive long distances—and often carry blankets—in order to get human appeal along with their music.

Now that a Reseda man has a robot sprinkling his lawn and mechanical devices are doing so many things we used to do, some of us may feel a bit discouraged over the outlook. We may fear the screen, the radio, the robot and so on may make incumbrances of the earth of many of us, leaving us no essential niches to fill. But let us visit the Bowl and reflect on the number of people who go there in the course of a season and we will be comforted and reassured.



A NEW INHERITANCE TAX

By the provisions of the new California inheritance tax law, which becomes effective today, California enjoys equal advantages in this regard with any in the United States, according to State Controller Riley. The rates have been reduced and exemptions have been raised, it is declared, so that the State tax will always be no greater than the 80 per cent of the Federal income tax which is rebated in those States which charge an inheritance tax, and there are other provisions concerning reciprocity, insurance exemption and the like which make the new law much more liberal than the old one.

Though temporary loss of revenue is expected at first, it is believed that the favorable features of the law will soon induce enough wealthy persons to become residents of California to more than make up for any falling off. This loss would have been, on last year's collections of $11,000,000, approximately $1,700,000.

The revision of the inheritance tax, like the revised tax on intangibles, is calculated to make changes of residence to this State possible without financial sacrifice. The inheritance tax is now virtually the minimum that will be collected anywhere, since no State can decrease the Federal levy.

The law also sets a definite time limit for the classification of ante-mortem gifts as having been made in contemplation of death. Those made four years before decease are now presumed not to have been with such a contingency in mind. This will decrease the litigation over estates very materially, it is expected.

PLAYGROUNDS

Playgrounds no doubt have much to do with the astonishing drop in juvenile crime lately recorded in this State. According to Clarence Morrill, superintendent of the State Criminal Identification Bureau, the arrests of the juvenile female in California have dropped from 308 in 1927 to fifty-eight in 1928, and the last year only forty-three small girls fell into the clutches of the law. Among the boys the decrease, though not so striking, has been marked.

Any citizen who has boys and girls of his own knows that the occupied child is the happy child and also he is the "good" child. Never before have there been so many delightful things for boys and girls to do as in California today. Nowhere in the United States is recreation for the growing youngster given such complete and intelligent attention. There are few communities without playgrounds and swimming pools. And in providing real outdoor fun at small expense—camping, hiking, picnicking and the harmless merrymaking of the barbecue, Los Angeles easily leads all other American cities.

The Times airplane school for boys has completely engrossed the attention of hundreds of eager-minded, active and restless youngsters. The competitive stock judging by boys, the part taken by boys and girls both in competitive agricultural work and other such plans for combining recreation with usefulness have supplied the youngsters with a genuine interest in life.

Of course they aren't making so much trouble. They have something to do.

POETRY FOR THE PEOPLE

By James J. Montague

Supposing you haven't a dollar;
Supposing you haven't a job.
Keep up a stout heart and enact a man's part,
Don't sit in a corner and sob.
Forget all your troubles and sorrows.
Be sure that you soon will win out,
And say with a grin, "Though I may be all in
There is nothing to worry about!"

Supposing you nudged a policeman
As you scorched down the street in your car,
Do not sigh with regret; do not futilely fret,
Or think how unlucky you are.
If it cost you six months for your error—
As it will, beyond any sane doubt,
Though the future looks dark, just serenely remark:
"This is nothing to worry about!"

If the girl you adore takes a fancy
For a chap with more money and brains,
Observe to yourself: "It's the lads with the pelf
That get all the good-looking Janes."
Far better than take up hard drinking
Or sit on a park bench and pout
Is to say: "Well, that gal was a pretty poor pal,
But it's nothing to worry about!"

If a poet assures you that troubles
Are usually all for the best,
Do not pick up a stick or a stone or a brick
And bash the poor bard on the chest.
At heart the good cheer-monging rhymster
May really be quite a good scout,
And whether or not it don't matter a lot
And it's nothing to worry about!

Elephant Ears

PASADENA, Aug. 13.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I have just been reading about Mr. Charles Bowes's caladium ears, believed to be the largest in the United States. Well, they may be this year, but in the year of 1896 I grew them to be nearly seven feet long and so wide that I could wrap them around me; in fact, I could hide behind them. They were grown in the State of Arkansas, as I lived there nearly four years. These caladiums also bloomed. I feel as though I am still champion although it has been some years since this happened.

MRS. J. C. WEBB.

Encourage the Birds

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 13.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Some years ago I was a farmer in Indiana growing fruits, vegetables and grain. Imitating nature, I planted my plum trees in a cluster, close together. In the spring when these trees were in bloom the cluster was alive with English sparrows seeking bugs, insects and millers and I always had a good yield of plums.

One summer I noticed the sparrows diligently examining the cabbage that had reached the heading stage, and found they were picking off the cabbage worms.

Our cornfields were infested with cut worms which would climb the little stalk and behead it. Then I noticed many little holes dug in the ground near the corn and looking carefully I found tracks of skunks that had been seeking worms.

We had been guarding our young chickens by a systematic and persistent war upon minks and weasels. One day a weasel come from under a building carrying a young rat. It took its victim to its nest under another building, returned and carried away another rat.

So, maybe nature and its God know best what ought to people the earth.

Shoot the Birds

ROSCOE (Cal.) Aug. 13.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I just came in from my orchard, disgusted with the damage done to the fruit by birds, picked up The Times, to which I have been a regular subscriber for seventeen years, to find in the letters column the plea for birds and particularly the one signed by Herbert H. Hallett, who styles himself secretary State Commission for Protection of Children and Animals.

These letters read pretty, but if their writers were depending upon the products of their orchards for a living they would sing a different song. One season's experience and they would buy a gun and declare war on the whole feathered tribe.

Suppose the birds do eat some bugs, etc., that prey on the fruit; how much worse are these pests than what they do themselves? And they say, "Don't kill them."

The greatest fruit pests are not controlled by birds. They do not help to control scale. On the contrary, they help spread it. Although there are millions of birds in the San Fernando Valley, we must spray several times a season or our fruit will be wormy. The birds don't destroy the moths that lay these eggs. They eat the centers out of the buds in the spring and what fruit does get by them they peck and destroy a large proportion of it when it is ripe. They get it both ways.

The fruit rancher, particularly in the foothill regions, must destroy the birds or quit trying to raise fruit on a profitable basis.

FRESNO, Aug. 12.—[To the Editor of The Times:] This in appreciation of your new set-up of the New York Exchange quotations, that is, all on one page and a perfect rectangle. This is a great convenience in reading and especially advantageous in filing them for future reference.

I have been a subscriber to The Times for years and think your financial section the best on the coast, although there are sometimes errors in the N.Y.S.E. quotations.

That Point Fermin Crack

SAN PEDRO, Aug. 14.—[To the Editor of The Times:] We wish to respectfully call your attention to the article appearing in today's Times, in which it is stated that the landslide at Point Fermin is moving three inches a day. As a matter of fact, the greatest movement has been but three inches in one week and previous to that time has been less than one-half inch a week. Only a few property owners are affected.

We have received clippings from Washington and Philadelphia papers, stating that 100 families have been swept into the sea, so you see how news travels. The photograph shows a large crack on the surface, but this crack pinches together at a depth of about thirty-five feet.

THE ALFALFA HABIT

BY EUGENE BROWN

Out our way we are prolific punishers of tea.

When prohibition came I dashed out and bought me a couple of pounds of the leaf. Naturally I took the gunpowder brand in the belief that it had the greater kick. But, anyhow, we have lapped up a lot of the stuff. You see a scientist once told me that there was as much wreckage in two or three cups of powerfully brewed tea as there was in a dozen rounds of foamy hops. I wasn't sure that he was right.

But I hoped so.

Now the doctor suggests that I taper off on alfalfa.

This is being urged on a lot of folks who have become slaves to the oolong habit. In the health-food shops alfalfa tea is put up in fancy packages and sold at a price that would make the average ten-acre alfalfa patch pay a dividend of more than a million per cent.

I think maybe I will get me an alfalfa ranch and then blackmail Tom Lipton into buying it at swollen figures under threats of putting him out of business. It would, indeed, go hard with him if the world should get the alfalfa craze.

But the dried leaves and blossoms of the alfalfa do make a comforting beverage when properly steeped and even so conservative a bozo as Doc Lovell commends it cordially to ladies who would shrink.

It isn't exactly what you would call hot stuff when measured against some of earth's potions, but it is competent refreshment for the average householder.

Also I have found staunch nourishment in biscuits made from alfalfa meal. They also have been highly commended by the country's hay trade and a few doctors. When my innards are packed with alfalfa biscuits, bran muffins, water cress and alfalfa tea I find that I can moo exactly like a contented cow.

But with the alfalfa habit spreading California will be in the heart of production. Honestly we do seem to have all the luck. No fad or passion arises but what we are in the thick of it.

We deliver the goods.

First thing we know some of the sad-faced agrostologists will be paying off the mortgages on their alfalfa fields.

Anyhow, when my interior is flooded with alfalfa tea I tell the cockeyed world that I feel bull-y. With the accent on the shorthorn.

Fusion Welding Engineering?

BY LOUISE L. TEMPLE

[Prepared in co-operation with the Los Angeles evening high schools. Questions concerning free evening classes will be answered if stamped addressed envelope is inclosed. Address Louise L. Temple, care of The Times.]

A class in fusion welding engineering, as applied to all welding operations performed by the oxyacetylene electric arc and thermit welding processes, is scheduled for the coming school year, beginning September 10 and meeting Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 7 to 9 p.m. in Polytechnic Evening High School. This class is free to all.

The course gives each student one hour of technical instruction and one of shop practice during each evening of attendance and students may come as many evenings as suit their convenience. The course gives a working application of all welding equipment; a short course in A.C. and D.C. electricity; the fundamentals of general chemistry, as applied to the welding trade; a thorough course in "iron and steel," including heat-treating and tempering; aluminum and its alloys and the best method of welding the various metals and alloys.

The average student will acquire a working knowledge of welding in five months. The processes of welding, in all its phases, are not detrimental to the eyes or health of operators, provided they adhere strictly to instruction as is given to all students.

BYRD BOOKS

What books would you choose to spend the winter with you at the South Pole? This is the modern version of what books would you select for a desert island existence and has been satisfactorily answered by Commander Richard Byrd, who evidently considered brain food as necessary as brawn builders when he selected a library of 1200 books as necessary equipment for the Antarctic expedition. Every type of reading from philosophy to detective thriller, from pole studies to Chaucer, seems to be included. And the best of it is that, apparently, the men find nothing too tough for digestion in these cold-storage months. Perhaps all any of us needs to acquire a fair education is enforced isolation and a well-chosen library!

"Petrified Lightning"

A fulgurite is a peculiar corkscrew-like formation which is occasionally found in the sand dunes. The more common name is "petrified lightning." They are formed when the rock or sand is fused as a lightning bolt enters the sandy soil. This fusion follows the path of the electrical discharge, usually forming hollow tubes, but sometimes taking other shapes. The interior of such tubes is usually smooth, and the outside rough. The tube formation begins at the surface and continues downward until the power of the lightning stroke is dissipated. The tubes usually taper down somewhat with the lessening power of the stroke. Sometimes when the electrical discharge takes two paths a forked fulgurite results.

The great value of home refrigeration is that it keeps the molds, yeast and bacteria in a quiescent state where they do not increase.

It is said that Nero enjoyed the cooling tinkle of ice, even though we are not sure where he got it, but it was probably carried in from ice houses in the mountains at great expense.

The cost of ice or of refrigeration is so low today that practically anyone who can afford to eat can afford to keep his food in a clean, wholesome, cool state without danger of putrefactive changes.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Cheesy Formations in Throat

Question: M. K. asks:—"What causes the white cellular formations which periodically form in the throat opposite the palate? They cause a slight soreness until they loosen and come out. What can be done to prevent their formation?"

Answer:—The cheesy masses which form in the crypts of the tonsils can be prevented from forming if you will be more careful with your diet. A good local treatment may be taken with the ultraviolet light. This aplication of actinic rays will kill any bacterial growth in the tonsils, and also tends to shrink the membranes to normal size. If your physician does not have this equipment he can treat your throat with some medicinal preparation such as silver nitrate.

Chili

Question: C. T. asks:—"Does chili contain any nourishment?"

Answer:—Chili is very high in nourishment, being made mostly of meat. It is highly flavored with peppers and, therefore, is irritating to the stomach and cannot be considered a wholesome food except for those who have been accustomed for years to its use.

Arms Get Numb

Question: Mrs. E. S. asks:—"Will you please tell me what to do for my arms? They get numb up to the elbow every night."

Answer:—You are probably suffering from some kind of circulatory disorder, possibly due to some heart derangement which is usually caused by the pressure of excessive gas in an over-loaded stomach crowding the heart. Try eating a smaller meal at night, and be careful about the food combinations.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

BY MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope, forwarded to this office, will bring a personal reply.

This department offers leaflets on weaning and feeding the child from 6 weeks to 6 years, prenatal care and diet for the nursing mother, constipation, eczema, outfits for the new baby, sleeping, walking, teething, thumb-sucking, ammoniacal urine, bed wetting, training in cleanly habits, periods of nursing, cod liver oil, orange juice, hives, worms, vomiting, refractory children, prune juice, lime water, rupture, styes and boils and cradle cap. Before asking a personal question about one of these subjects, it is better to send a self-addressed stamped envelope for the leaflet you need. If your particular problem is not covered in the above list, Mrs. Eldred will be glad to give you a personal reply.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Forced Feeding Never Successful With Children

To make psychology sound less difficult one can call it common sense, for that is exactly what it is. The mother who intuitively understands in what manner she should act to get favorable response from her child is equipped with a knowledge of psychology, even if she has never opened a book on the subject.

There are mothers who seem singularly lacking in any understanding of human nature, or else they believe children to be different from themselves. One shrieking example of faulty treatment, and an absolute blindness toward cause and effect, is the practice of some mothers of spanking their children to make them eat. I have two letters in front of me from mothers who admit having used every known method of making a child eat, including spanking them "black and blue." One says, "What is the answer to this problem?" And the answer should be: "Use common sense."

Why does a child eat? Is it because his mother tells him he must? Is it because his mother benefits by his eating? Is it because it pleases the family? NO, to all these questions. A child eats because eating is a pleasurable method of ending hunger, an unpleasant sensation. Having remembered that past indulgences in food have been satisfying and comforting, he repeats the experience. Just as soon as the mother makes meal time disagreeable by scolding or nagging, or forcing the food on the child, or punishing him for refusing to eat, she makes eating unpleasant and food hateful to him. Discovering by accident that by forcing himself to vomit he can end his mother's persecution, he uses this method daily. The habit of ejecting food is easy to learn and hard to break. Very shortly the child actually cannot keep down a meal. His habit has made him its victim.

When things reach this stage the one way to end the situation is to change the child's surroundings. Let some one else eat with him, or let him go somewhere else to eat. Usually these children will be found to eat quite happily when away from home and their mothers. This would be quite natural, for meals in other homes are pleasant. I doubt whether these children would ever be able to enjoy a meal in their homes. Even if they are able to forget their early experiences, they will find that when they go to "Mother's" the food disagrees with them. That is the price they will have to pay for their repressed remembrances of past punishments.

No one needs a course in psychology to know that unless meal time is a happy period, unless eating is an enjoyable ceremony, the child will certainly refuse to eat.

GUIDING YOUR CHILD

HER INDEPENDENCE

By Mrs. Agnes Lyne

Mother walked into Cecily's room on the morning of her birthday.

She kissed her and said, "You are thirteen years old today, Cecily. Dad and I are giving you some gifts which you'll find beside your breakfast plate. But we are giving you another present, too. It's the most exciting one of all but we couldn't wrap it in a package. My dear, we thought that on this birthday we should give you your independence.

"From now on you are free to decide for yourself all sorts of things you've always had to ask us about before. But we've been watching you and we are confident that you are quite level-headed enough to manage your own affairs.

"You may go back and forth to town quite by yourself. You may do your lessons whenever you see fit—we won't remind you of them. You may shop for your own clothes. We are giving you a monthly allowance out of which you must pay all your current expenses. You need give us no accounting of what you spend, but there will be no help from us if you run short. If you want help in planning we will give it to you, but we won't make your decisions for you."

Cecily was a little overcome when she realized the new responsibilities which went with the new freedom, but she accepted them gladly, determined to prove that her parents' trust in her good sense was entirely justified.

Have you ever thought of giving your child his independence? The gift is a fine one but it requires years of preparation on your part. Train your child from his baby days to make small decisions for himself and to assume small responsibilities. Then when he is thirteen you, too, may wish him happy birthday and give him the gift of his independence.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

The Bottle Baby

When there is a bottle baby in the house, the formula upon which it thrives should be written out and kept in a place where each member of the family can find it. Mother's memory is a wonderful thing, but should an unfortunate accident occur or a sudden call away, baby is apt to become upset over food to which he is not accustomed.

Linen Threads

POLICE GUN TEAM CAN'T GO TO MEET

Bartley's Injury Coupled With Other Things Makes Mayor Veto $1500 Fund

Injury to Detective Lieutenant Bartley, one of the crack shots of the Police Department's champion pistol team, will prevent the team's participation in the National Rifle Association meet at Camp Perry, O., it developed yesterday. Lieut. Bartley's right hand was amputated two weeks ago after several fingers had been blown off by the accidental discharge of a cartridge he was tamping.

In view of this loss to the team and because another member is ineligible to compete, Mayor Porter and Chief Davis decided that sending the team would not be advisable. The Mayor therefore vetoed an ordinance appropriating $1500 for the expenses of the trip. The ordinance had been approved by the Police Commission before it was known that only four men could go.

The police pistol team for years has been rated at the top of the nation's sharpshooters, and is a subject of extreme pride in the department. Last year the team won the police championship at Camp Perry and was runner-up for the national championship.

GIRL VIEWS SUSPECT IN FOSTER QUIZ

Miss Taylor Declares He Resembles One of Bandits Who Killed Manufacturer

Arrested on suspicion of burglary and suspicion of robbery, a red-haired youth who described himself as Mickey Samaran, 18 years of age, was partly identified by Miss Beth Taylor, according to a police report, as one of the two nervous bandits who on the night of July 29, last, killed A. Frank Foster, wealthy soap manufacturer, as he sat in his automobile in front of his San Marino-street apartment.

Samaran was traced to his room at 420 South Gless street and taken in custody by Detective Lieutenants Gibson and Mailheau on information which they assert links him with the recent robbery of a service station at 1626 East Fourth street.

Face to face with him, the officers noted that he answered Miss Taylor's description of one of the slayers, the girl having been the sole eyewitness of the fatal shooting. She immediately was summoned to Central Station where, she stated, the officers reported, that Samaran bears a resemblance to the red-haired bandit of the pair.

Koer and late research regarding cancer, was presented by Dr. William Sauls. An illustrated lecture on "Diagnosis of Acute Appendicitis," was given by Dr. George W. Robbins.

AIR-RAIL LINE CUTS PASSENGER TARIFFS

Reductions in passenger tariffs covering not only air line divisions, but also affecting its coast-to-coast air-rail service operated in conjunction with the New York Central and Santa Fe railroads, have been announced by the Universal Aviation Corporation, through L. O. Kennedy, its western traffic representative. A reduction of approximately 5 per cent was announced in the tariff for the coast-to-coast air-rail journey, which covers slightly more than two days of travel between Los Angeles and New York, with one day of flying.

CHEF WYMAN'S RECIPES

PEACH POT PIE

Select well-ripened peaches, peel and slice them thin, keep two or three of the pits, and place the pits in the bottom of a baking dish, cover with the sliced peaches, and sprinkle with browned sugar, and dot with bits of butter, add a third of a cupful of water, make a biscuit dough, very short, and cut in squares, or rounds, and place on top of the peaches; place the dish in a hot open for the first ten minutes, then reduce the heat, and continue the baking until the biscuits are brown, serve with cream.

BROTHER ISAIAH TAKES TO AIR

Miracle Man Makes His First Flight

The Venerable "Healer" and Capt. Clarence Woods

THIRTY-SIX years ago Brother Isaiah stood on a levee in Louisiana and told his followers that some day the sky would "be full of buzzing craft carrying passengers."

Yesterday at the Grand Central Air Terminal Brother Isaiah, now 86 years of age, boarded a specially chartered Maddux air liner for his first trip in the "buzzing craft" he foresaw nearly four decades ago.

Brother Isaiah, it seems, contemplates removing his colony of followers from Florida to Oroville and a group of executives of the Associated Realty Owners, Inc., chartered the trimotored ship to take the busy "miracle man" to Oroville for an inspection and final plans for the establishment of the colony.

"No, I wasn't scared a bit," Brother Isaiah said in discussing his first flight.

Accompanying him were Rolden Borden, Harry Halberstadt and A. D. Thompson, president, vice-president and secretary of the Associated Realty Owners; Brother Joseph, a disciple; Freeman Lang and Max J. Hammel.

PAINT AND GLASS TO COOL CLUB CARS ON DESERT RUN

Once in California the summer traveler has no quarrel with the thermometer. From the sea breezes of the coast to the warmth of the interior valleys and on to the snow-covered mountain peaks the State has a variety of temperatures suited to all temperaments.

Tourists complain of heat only while crossing desert and plain on the way to the Pacific Coast. And this, the only objectionable feature of the rail journey, is about to be eliminated by the use of a new type lounge car on Southern Pacific lines, it was announced here yesterday by C. L. McFaul, assistant passenger traffic manager for the company.

The secret of keeping car interiors cool in the warmest climes has been found in application of aluminum paint and the installation of a new kind of heat-resisting window glass, according to McFaul. With these improvements Southern Pacific's new lounge cars will shed heat, he declared.

The heat-absorbing quality of aluminum paint is not a new discovery. But until recently it had not been demonstrated successfully on rail equipment.

The special glass, which "admits light but excludes heat," is the product of an English factory. It has not been used heretofore in the cars of any American railway, although it has proved its worth on trains operating in tropical India and Africa.

The glass has a slight green tinge, but after the first impression the color is not noticeable and only the restful character remains. Recent tests by the Pullman Company have proved that aluminum paint reduces materially the temperature of car interiors. From 20 to 25 per cent of the sun's heat is kept from the cars, according to reports.

Ten of the latest type lounge cars are nearing completion for the Southern Pacific Company. They were ordered some months ago at a cost of $600,000.

Sea-Marathon Barrel-Sitter Piles Up Hours

By "Times" Staff Correspondent

OCEAN PARK, Aug. 16. — Porky Jacobs in his deep-sea barrel continued to defy waves and a merciless sun today as at noon he entered the 118th hour of his "sitting-in-a-floating-barrel" marathon.

The barrel, a large hogshead with a hole cut in one side for a cockpit, is moored off the Ocean Park pier.

"This ship would make China and way ports if it wasn't tied, and if it had oars or a sail," Porky told the crowd on the pier as he waited for his luncheon.

A coat of tan that would make an island beach-comber look pale, and a growth of beard giving him a piratical appearance, seem to have insulated Porky against the sun's rays.

Porky has local chronic protestors literally over a barrel with his novel stunt. Marathon dances and other long-distance contests have been protested against annually by various groups, but Porky's case is something of a puzzle. The only physical suffering he has evidenced was an attack of seasickness last Sunday, when the swells bobbed his barrel around like a cork.

CITY GRANTS PERMIT FOR MORE TAXIS

Company Asking Rights for Twenty-two New Cabs Allowed Fifteen

An order of the Board of Public Utilities and Transportation yesterday granted to the General Cab Company permits for operation of fifteen more taxicabs in Los Angeles and provided for seventeen new stands for company vehicles. The company had asked twenty-two taxicab permits, but Attorney Elmer Robinson, for the company, accepted the decision as satisfactory for the present.

The decision of the board was the result of a hearing conducted several weeks ago, when the company reduced its request for sixty-eight permits to twenty-two because it was taking over the assets of the Crown Cab Company, which has 102 taxicab permits and 102 stands. The decision was voted on favorably by Commissioners Burgeson, Marcell, Haffer and Cummins, but was opposed by Commissioner McCoy, who held that an insufficient showing had been made by the company for the fifteen permits granted.

Attorney Robinson informed the board that the General Cab Company and the Crown Cab Company shortly will be incorporated as one concern under the name of the Red Top Cab Company. He made formal application for the withdrawal of the sixty-eight permits sought by the General Cab Company more than a month ago.

NEW EGGERS STORE WILL OPEN TODAY

Dollar Establishment to Offer Many Surprises in Merchandise and Values

BY OLIVE GRAY

Opening today, the Albert E. Eggers Dollar Store, at 440-442 South Broadway, will present many surprises in the way of high-class merchandise at lowest possible cost.

This concern, headed by Albert E. Eggers, H. A. Haile and J. A. Sinesch, as executives, began business at Huntington Park in 1924. So great has been its success that now there are six stores in operation, including the one opening today. The stores are located at Alhambra, Pomona, Santa Monica, Huntington Park, Belvedere Gardens and Los Angeles.

The newest link in the chain is located in the building formerly occupied by the Parmelee-Dohrmann Company. This store has been rearranged and redecorated, the entire lower floor having been converted into an exceptionally commodious salesplace. The merchandise is arranged most conveniently.

Particularly strong in ready-to-wear garments for both sexes, all kinds of habiliments, from underthings to accessories of dress, are carried in the Eggers stores. The stock also includes household linens, shoes, drugs and handbags in addition to the many items that go to complete good attire for men, women and children. There is an extensive section devoted to baby's garments, and the line of dresses, for girls and women includes creations of silk, cotton and other modish materials for street, house and porch wear—in surprising and attractive variety.

The policy of the Eggers establishment is somewhat out of the ordinary, as explained by Mr. Haile. "All merchandise is priced in single units," he says. "We feature outstanding merchandise at $1. Many items, however, are priced at a lower figure. We do not expect the buyer to purchase two, three or four items to complete a dollar purchase. The customer may buy what he or she wants or needs."

The opening of the Los Angeles store today promises to attract large crowds, judging by the attention given to merchandise displayed in windows, and by the many inquiries regarding the new store.

Cult Case Trial Date Postponed

Trial of Mrs. Eunice M. Martin, asserted cult leader, and Mrs. G. M. Caldwell, her sister and assistant, on petty theft charges, yesterday was continued until October 22, next, by Municipal Judge Bogue.

It was brought out in court by Deputy City Prosecutor Jack that Mrs. Martin, asserted head of the Society of the New School of Applied Christian Psychology, now is being sought by warrant officers and Mrs. Caldwell is seriously ill in a local hospital.

The charges resulted from asserted pledges made to members of the society in return for memberships, according to the complaint.

Nearly 21,000 miles of highways in China are now open to motor traffic.

MISS TALMADGE PLAYS DUBARRY

Mary Pickford, Fairbanks, to Spend Months in Orient; Duncans May Film "Two Orphans" as Next Vehicle; Marie Prevost, Star of "Ringside," Ill

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

Many a noted star has had a chance to portray the role of the famous Du Barry. Theda Bara, Pola Negri and others have all given us a chance to judge the character of the noted courtesan.

And now Norma Talmadge is to have an opportunity to show us Du Barry as the star conceives that character.

Miss Talmadge will make a talking version of David Belasco's play, "Du Barry," for United Artists. Joseph Schenck stated yesterday that Miss Talmadge would make an elaborate production of the play. Research for historical details has already been started.

It is likely that color photography will figure somewhat in the production.

So far no director nor leading man has been designated, although it is likely that Gilbert Roland will play opposite the star.

MARY AND DOUG TO CIRCLE THE GLOBE

No mere jaunt of a month or two will Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks take during their forthcoming vacation.

Fairbanks said yesterday that they would be absent about six months, and during that time would travel around the world.

"Mary and I have long wanted to visit India and Egypt," said Fairbanks yesterday. "Now we plan to spend several months in those two countries alone."

Asked whether they might film scenes for a picture while abroad, Fairbanks said he did not think they would, although he hesitated long enough before answering to make one feel that the two might have considered such action.

The star expressed himself as pleased with the result of their efforts at producing Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew," and intimated that they or one of them at least, might star in another of the great bard's works.

"Filming one of Shakespeare's plays opens up such a vista of opportunity for screen talking pictures," declared Fairbanks enthusiastically. "Placed on the screen, they are somehow simplified. The multiplicity and diversity of scenes are easily handled in the films, for one thing, and the plays are all tremendously colorful and full of action. Mary and I may work together in another of these plays, or we may not."

Marie Prevost Ill

R.-K.-O. have been in a quandary during the last few days, due to the illness of Marie Prevost, featured feminine lead in "Ringside," which R.-K.-O. is making into a picture, adapted from the stage play in which Jack Dempsey and Estelle Taylor appeared in New York last season.

Miss Prevost's illness may keep her from playing her role. R.-K.-O and Mal St. Clair, who is directing, do not know whether to wait for her to recover or to engage another actress for the part. Miss Prevost worked but one day in the picture.

Duncans May Play "Two Orphans"

VIVIAN DUNCAN

While the noted Duncan sisters, Rosetta and Vivian, along with their supervisor, Larry Weingarten, are much too engrossed in the filming of their first Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer talking picture, "Cotton and Silk," to definitely consider their next vehicle, it is known that M.-G.-M. officials are earnestly considering costarring the sisters in a talking-film version of John Oxenford's old play, "The Two Orphans," in which as a silent version, Lillian and Dorothy Gish starred so successfully a few years ago.

In the meantime, "Cotton and Silk," which Sam Wood is directing, promises to furnish these two young geniuses with a vehicle which will at once place them at the top among talking-film stars.

Kay Francis in Wharton Story

KATHARINE FRANCIS

The dark beauty and splendor of Kay Francis will add allurement to Paramount's forthcoming film version of Edith Wharton's novel, "The Children," it was announced yesterday by B. P. Schulberg, who let it be known that Miss Francis has been cast for the part of Lady Wrench.

In "The Children," Miss Francis will have an opportunity to live up to her reputation for knowing how to wear beautiful clothes.

Laura La Plante's New Story

Another local newspaper man seems destined to make a big success in story writing for the films.

Jack Townley has written "Love and Kisses" and has sold the story to Universal. The story will serve as Laura La Plante's next starring vehicle. Carl Laemmle, Jr., has announced the purchase of the story.

The picture is not only a talker, but is furnished with songs and other incidental musical features. Director and supporting cast have not yet been selected.

Miss La Plante was all ready to start work in another picture, but when the new story came to the attention of studio officials, an immediate deal was made with the author, and it was decided to film "Love and Kisses" first.

WAGNERIAN OPERA IS PRESENTED

Alexander Kisselburgh Pleases in Walfrom's "O, Evening Star"

BY ISABEL MORSE JONES

Thumbs down on any more Bowl concertized versions of beloved operas. Last ni[illegible] performance of "Tannhauser" was billed: "Great Moments from the Opera," but there was only one really fine moment in the whole evening, and that was Walfrom's aria, "O, Evening Star," sung by Alexander Kisselburgh with the artistry and beautiful quality of voice which has made him a success in the East as well as the West.

Conductor Goossens is apparently not interested in Wagnerian operas, therefore the orchestral excerpts were indifferently done. The prelude to Act III sounded like a good park band making a special effort for a Sunday afternoon concert. Legato phrasing was conspicuous by its absence.

The duet between Venus and Tannhauser, essayed by Elfrieda Wynne and Otto Ploetz, was creditable if one takes into consideration their inexperience with the roles. Good stage presence and enthusiasm contributed to their performance, but it was far from smooth Wagnerian singing.

Alice Gentle singing two arias in the role of Elizabeth was warmly received by the audience. She is not at ease in the part and her work lacked its usual warmth and interest.

Mr. Kisselburgh, as I have intimated above, redeemed the evening. The song of the star is a grateful one. Everyone knows it and loves it, it suits the Bowl and its sentiment is accentuated by the real stars overhead. Last, but most important, Mr. Kisselburgh has made that song his own and it has form, color and a haunting loveliness when he sings it. When he reaches the point where he can put the same consummate artistry in every song he sings he will be a great artist.

The concluding ballet arranged by Fokine around Mme. Vera Fokina with innumerable nymphs, fauns and bacchantes, was interesting in its color effects and certain of its costumes, but the dancing ensemble was not of a high standard. It left an impression of having been hastily prepared.

Gilda Gray to Take Dual Role at Hillstreet

"Piccadilly," Gilda Gray's screen starring vehicle starting at the Hillstreet today, where she is also making her final stage appearance, was produced and directed by E. A. Dupont, the European director who was responsible for "Variety," the foreign film which was presented in this country with much success.

"Piccadilly" has the same touch as his "Variety," and it, too, deals with the show world, telling in thrilling scenes of the dance to death of two dancers on London's gay white way. The story embraces the romantic and notorious Limehouse district as well as the high society of the English metropolis, and has for its background all the colorfulness of the Old World. Anna May Wong has a leading role in the supporting cast.

In Miss Gray's stage offering are ten dancers picked especially to appear with her in this special production. Other Radio-Keith-Orpheum stage features will be Redmond and Wells, Chas Chase and Gil Bert Brothers.

Albertina Rasch Ballet to Head Midnight Show

Among special attractions listed for the gala midnight matinee performance of the M-G-M. "Hollywood Revue of 1929" at Grauman's Chinese Theater tonight is the noted Albertina Rasch ballet. Mme. Rasch, once premier danseuse of the Metropolitan Operahouse, is noted for the inspiring beauty, grace and originality of her dance ensembles.

Music for the ballet was written especially by the Russian composer, Dimitri Tionkin, whose compositions have achieved wide renown throughout Europe and now are being accorded similar tribute in America.

Another headline feature of Grauman's midnight frolic is the three Brox sisters and their unique harmonies. The program also includes Karl Dane, Joey Ray, Bobby Dolan and Frankie Richardson to complete the notable list.

"BAD BABIES" MOVES TO FIGUEROA HOUSE

The Figueroa Playhouse will stage the world premiere of George Scarborough's new play, "Bad Babies," beginning Monday night, according to announcement by the author. The initial showing was to have been held Saturday night at the Mayan, but the theater had already booked a talking picture for the first week in September.

The Mayan announces that ticket-holders for Saturday night's premiere of "Bad Babies" may return them to the Mayan office to be exchanged for Monday's Figueroa Playhouse seats.

GIRL BEGINS FIFTH

Joan Bennett is busy working opposite Joseph Schildkraut in "The Mississippi Gambler," at Universal. On the 28th inst. Miss Bennett is scheduled to begin work in her fifth talkie, "The Song of Broadway," which Tay Garnett will direct for United Artists. In this production Miss Bennett will essay the feminine lead opposite the well-known musical comedy star, Harry Richman.

NEW TALKIE AT RITZ

Scotland Yard plays a prominent part in "Behind That Curtain," which will be at the Ritz Theater Sunday and Monday. The film is an all-talking Fox Movietone production of Earl Derr Biggers's best seller. Irving Cummings directed and Warner Baxter, Lois Moran and Gilbert Emery are featured.

New Farce Boasts Versatile Cast

Olive Tell

Who will portray one of the leading feminine roles in "Expressing Willie," starting at the Vine-street Theater tomorrow night. The play marks Franklin Pangborn's return to the stage.

Goossens Ends Engagement at Bowl Tonight

Eugene Goossens divides his farewell program tonight impartially between the old masters and the moderns. He will present three representative compositions of each school. One of these is to be an absolute novelty. The popular conductor introduces on tonight's program a name new to local music annals, Horace Johnson, residing abroad at present.

The work to be performed tonight is his first orchestral composition to reach these shores. It is a suite he has called "Imagery—after Tagore."

The complete work is in three parts, two of which have been selected by Conductor Goossens for performance tonight.

The program opens with Weber's overture to "Oberon," one of the most significant works of the last century. Its romanticism foreshadowed the advent of Mendelssohn. "Sketches from the Caucasus," a Bowl favorite from its earliest days, having been first performed there in its first season, is revived. Rimsky—Korsakoff's iridescent "Spanish Caprice," will also be given.

The melodic sweep of "Finlandia," work of Jean Sibelius, brings Goossens's engagement to an end.

"Light Fingers" Tells Story of Unusual Crook

Subtle drama and clever dialogue are to be provided at Pantages Theater during the current week, starting today, in Columbia's all-talking production, "Light Fingers." The leading character is not the ordinary type of thief so often found upon the screen. Light Fingers's tendency to do wrong is inspired through a desire for thrills and an ambition to match his wits against the force of law and order.

Light Fingers delights in baffling Kerrigan, a detective who has a hunch that he is on the right trail, but is never able to prove anything on Light Fingers. Ian Keith has the leading role and Dorothy Revier creates the love interest.

The vaudeville program will be headed by "Keep Moving," a colorful and fast dance and song revue displaying many pretty girls and a wealth of talent; Cholet and Jones, South and Jacobs, William Bence and company and the Canary Opera Company.

MONTMARTRE OFFERS HUNGARIAN CONCERT

Gypsy airs and Hungarian love songs, said to be presented for the first time in this country, will feature the Sunday evening concert given at the Montmartre by Margit Hegedus and her Hungarian orchestra.

Eddie Brandstatter, owner of the Hollywood cafe, has arranged an attractive evening, characterized by the quiet charm which has made the Sunday-night events among the most popular of the week with moving-picture and stage celebrities. Arrangements are being made for a gala fiesta Wednesday night, when Jean Arthur, Paramount featured player and 1929 Wampas baby star, will be the guest of honor. Proff Moore and his orchestra will provide the dance music.

FAWCETT HAS OFFERS

George Fawcett has two offers to consider for stage productions. The actor made his last appearance on the stage as a star in "The Great John Ganton" and "Treasure Island." The former was one of his favorite plays, and following an American tour he went to London with it, where he had two most successful seasons.

PASADENA PLAYERS REVIVE "TRILBY"

Burr McIntosh, Member of First Cast, Attends, Lauds Participants

BY KATHERINE T. VON BLON

Again Pasadena Community Playhouse sponsors a revival in the immortal "Trilby," that "fin de siecle" of the gay nineties from the pen of George Du Maurier, which thrilled and shocked and wrung anguished tears from the deal souls of our mothers and grandmothers.

The fact that Burr McIntosh, the original Taffy of the first cast to present "Trilby" in New York some forty years ago, was an interested spectator added to the eclat of the evening, and he spoke a few words, incidentally warmly praising the Pasadena performance.

How the feminine contingent of the "gay nineties" must have thrilled over the delectable naughtiness of "Trilby." Think of an artists' model, and a roystering Parisian studio party all in one evening. And then there were the aristocratic little Billee and his proud and properly disdainful Mama, and the poor but beautiful artist's model, victim of Svengali, the terrible, the mad musician; in fact everything for a perfectly good melodrama. Yet somehow the humanity, the sympathy of Du Maurier shine forth in the accuracy and plasticity of his character drawing, and in spite of our modern, sophisticated selves, we shed a tear over the fate of the adorable Trilby.

The settings were realized with the usual meticulous particularity which characterizes Gilmor Brown's productions. The attic studio, with its hair cloth sofas and chairs, each in proper place, the square piano of ancient lineage, all add their quota of atmosphere.

There were many new faces among the players, quite a number being recruits from the "workshop." The performance for that reason perhaps rather lacked that cohesion, rhythm and sense of nicety to which we have accustomed ourselves in the work of this organization. However, the cast managed to bring back more than a vestige of that period of refined and delicately palpitating emotions.

Of the players, Charles Levison distinguished himself in the part of Svengali, a difficult characterization, sensitively realized. It was a nicely modulated and finely repressed picture, never overdrawn. His gesturing and effective representation of those strangely prehensile hands was deftly considered. Margaret Tupper, who won encomiums in "Gentlemen Be Seated," essayed the part of the romantic Trilby with very good effect. As Madame Vinard, the voluble, concierge, Lisa Thompson was delightfully clever. David Loring's Little Billee was appealing and Robert Christman was amusing as the effervescent Zou-Zou.

John Robertson Directs Many Film Players

John Robertson, who directed "The Single Standard," now at the Boulevard Theater, has directed practically all of the noted women stars in pictures. Roberston directed Anita Stewart in a series of productions when he first came into pictures a little more than ten years ago.

He has directed Lilliam Gish, Mary Pickford, Dorothy Gish, and many others of the well-known feminine contingent of film players. Greta Garbo is the star in "The Single Standard." At present Robertson is directing "The Shanghai Lady" in which Mary Nolan plays the title role. Roberston has also directed a group of the well-known men stars, among them being a series of Richar Barthelmess and Ramon Novarro starring vehicles.

EL CAPITAN WILL STAGE NEW DRAMA

Charlotte Greenwood to Enact Leading Role as Guest Star

Charlotte Greenwood, noted comedienne, comes to El Capitan starting with the matinee tomorrow as guest star with the Henry Duffy Players in the farce comedy, "She Couldn't Say No."

For seasons Miss Greenwood has been one of the outstanding comedy stars of the stage and she has starred in "So Long, Letty," "Linger Longer, Letty," "The Ritz Revue" and in vaudeville in her memorable humorous skit, "Her Morning Bath."

For the last year she has been appearing in motion pictures and has just completed a talking picture based on her successful musical comedy, "So Long, Letty."

Bryant Washburn, the picture star, will appear in the leading male role of Walter Turnbull, while others in the cast are Eddy Waller, who will be remembered as Mickey Shannon in "The Shannons of Broadway;" Stanley Taylor, Edward McWade, William Robyns, William Turner, Jane Morgan, Doris Brownlae, John MacKenzie and Wilbur Higby.

"She Couldn't Say No" has been staged under the direction of Edwin H. Curtis.

Charles Irwin Held Over on Orpheum Bill

Complying with many requests, Radio-Keith-Orpheum last night re-engaged Charles Irwin, late featured comedian of Earl Carroll's "Vanities," "A La Carte" and other show hits, for a second week at the Orpheum, starting today. In addition to presenting a new act of his own, Irwin will be master of ceremonies.

His introductions will include Harry Richman, musical comedy and night club favorite, who headlines the bill; Nance O'Neil, noted actress, appearing in a condensed version of David Belasco's "The Lily;" Hal Jerome, "laughologist," just back from European successes, and assisted by Gloria Gray; Fay Adler and Teddy Bradford, local dancers featured recently in George M. Cohan's "Merry Malones;" Slate Brothers and Hap Hazzard, vaudeville's aviator-comedian.

Motion-picture folk are planning a gala send-off for Harry Richman tonight. Many celebrities will attend, with sun arcs and broadsides embellishing the theater front.

"Argyle Case" Shows Meighan as Detective

Thomas Meighan, who plays the leading role in "The Argyle Case," Warner Brothers Vitaphone production, starting at Warner Brothers Theater Monday, has been in motion pictures so long that few of his film fans are aware of the fact that he has spent many years on the stage. During his many years on the stage his work included three years as leading man with David Warfield. He also starred in many other productions in London, New York and Chicago.

In "The Argyle Case," originally a stage play written by Harriet Ford and Harvey J. O'Higgins, Meighan takes the role of a noted detective who is called in to investigate the murder of John Argyle, which forms the basis of the story.

Supporting Meighan in this production are H. B. Warner, Lila Lee, Bert Roach, Zasu Pitts, John Darrow, Wilbur Mack, Douglas Gerrard and many others. It was adapted to the screen by Harvey Thew and Howard Bretherton directed.

Stars Plan to Attend 'Lucky Star' Opening

The western première of "Lucky Star," at the Criterion Theater Wednesday will be attended by the many friends of Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell. A block of seats will be roped off for the stars. Frank Borzage, director, will not be able to attend the premiere.

Greater Movie Season officially starts at the Criterion on the day of the opening of "Lucky Star." Before the Gaynor-Farrell talking picture was secured weeks of negotiations took place, the Criterion endeavoring to secure the greatest possible production for the debut of Greater Movie Season.

Immediately after it was learned that "Lucky Star" had broken the long-standing record of "Street Angel" at the Roxy in New York, the Criterion arranged with the Fox studios to be permitted to give "Lucky Star" is premiere on the West Coast.

Experience as Reporter Used to Advantage

The excellent use which Wallace Smith, prominent scenarist and author, has made of his many years of experience as a reporter in the Chicago underworld, may be seen to advantage in "Bulldog Drummond," the newest Ronald Colman vehicle now current at the United Artists' Theater. Smith is responsible for the screen play.

Smith, author of "Are You Decent?" and other novels, is one writer of note who appears to have successfully bridged the gap between literature and the screen. His work in the Colman opus is said to be listed with the most noteworthy scenario writing of the year.

At the present time, Smith, who is contracted to R.-K.-O., is putting the finishing touches to the screen play and dialogue of his own original story, "A Woman Decides," which this organization is producing as "The Beloved Rogue," starring Rod La Rocque.

MASTER MINDS' HOME TO RISE

Atheneum of Caltech Campus Will Cost $400,000

Structure Will be Ready by Fall of Next Year

Will Provide Living Quarters for Noted Scientists

PASADENA, Aug. 16.—Ground will be broken at once for the $400,000 Atheneum which will be erected on the California Institute of Technology campus as a rendezvous for intelligent leaders in Southern California, it was announced today by George Israel, secretary of the Pasadena Builders' Exchange.

The first unit of the institute's residential group will be ready for occupancy by fall, 1930, according to Israel. The contract had been awarded to William C. Crowell, local contractor.

Dr. Robert A. Millikan, chairman of the institute's executive council, mentioned the structure in outlining the building program at the June 7 commencement exercises.

"The hall," he said, will rise on Hill avenue at the axis of the campus. It will be the starting point and center of domestic architecture, around which will revolve the social development and activity of the institute."

The building is designed on the Italian style as a two and one-half story reinforced concrete structure, with a full basement and mezzanine floor.

The Atheneum membership will be composed of the scientific and literary staff of the institute, Huntington Library, Mt. Wilson Observatory and visiting research scholars.

Living quarters, dining-rooms and lounge rooms will be included to provide complete residential facilities.

Boy Thought Shell Explode Only in Gun

SIERRA MADRE, August 16.—"Gee, I didn't think that the shell would explode unless it was in a gun," 8-year-old Alphonso Tagles told Nurse Barker at the City Health Office yesterday when he appeared for treatment.

According to the boy's story he was playing with some other children on Highland avenue, when the accident occurred.

"We were playing with the shotgun bullet when it exploded, and my face began to hurt," Alphonso said.

The powder badly burned his face, especially about his chin and mouth. The burns will not mar his features, it was said.

As far as Alphonso is concerned, Nurse Barker is an "angel from heaven," as "she surely makes my face feel a lot better," he managed to say while the adhesive tape was being applied to hold the bandages over his chin.

Childish Glee Brings Tragedy

ANAHEIM, Aug. 16.—Struck down by an automobile as she tripped gayly across Lincoln Boulevard at Cypress street last evening to buy an ice cream cone, Colleen Ledbetter, 4 years of age, today lies near death in the Anaheim Sanitarium.

The little girl had been given a nickel by her grandmother, Mrs. Ella Gray, as a reward for being a good girl. As she hurried gleefully to the corner drug store to make her purchase she is said to have dashed into the path of a machine driven by Ralph J. Merriman, Pasadena attorney.

The motorist took the little girl to the Artesia Hospital, whence she was removed to Anaheim. Her mother, Mrs. Caroline Ledbetter, working in Placerville, has been notified. The child has a fighting chance to recover, physicians declared.

REDUCTION URGED IN WATER RATES

MONROVIA, Aug. 16.—As a part of an investigation being made relative to the increase in irrigation water rates, a committee appointed by water users to make the survey, made public their report today, setting forth a recommendation that surplus funds of the water department be employed in improvement of service or reduction in rate, rather than placed in the general fund. The water committee was appointed following a controversy with the City Council over a 50 per cent rise in irrigation water rates. The report also recommended that domestic rates be lowered to a figure where surplus of receipts over operating expenses be reduced from 30 per cent to 10 or 12 per cent.

CORONA HIGHWAY TO BE WIDENED

CORONA, Aug. 16. — Work will start soon on widening of the East Sixth-street highway from Corona to Arlington. Preliminary work is being done on the construction of a paved road on the north side of the Pacific Electric Railway with the intention to ultimately carry the double road through to Arlington where connection will be made with Magnolia Drive. Approaches to the Auburndale bridge over the Santa Ana River are being completed. The last section of the Rincon Road is being paved and many dangerous curves are being taken out of the Santa Ana Canyon road.

BOY'S IDEA OF BATHING NEAR FATAL

Plunges Infant Sister Under Water and Firemen Have to Revive Her

LONG BEACH, Aug. 16.—When the front door bell interrupted the ceremony of bathing Norma Jean Benert, 10-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Benert, this afternoon, their 2-year-old son grasped a long sought opportunity to bathe the baby according to his standards. The result was that the Fire Department inhalator crew worked for three-quarters of an hour restoring consciousness to the baby.

Leaving the daughter in care of her son, Mrs. Benert went to the door, telling junior to hold his sister until she returned. The boy plunged the baby into an adult bath tub and held her under water until she ceased to struggle. The mother returned to find the child unconscious and nearly drowned.

After the firemen resuscitated the baby physicians ordered special care to prevent relapse as Norma Jean recently recovered from an attack of pneumonia.

Dam Builder Forfeits Bail

AZUSA, Aug. 16.—Harvey M. Slocum, superintendent of construction at the San Gabriel Dam, who was arrested by local police Tuesday night during a liquor raid on a house at Alameda and Fifth streets, forfeited $15 bail this morning by not appearing in Police Judge Durrell's court.

Slocum was arrested on a charge of drunkenness, and Naomi Shannon, in the house at the time of the raid, was arrested for possession of liquor and fined $50, which she paid. The officers reported finding 200 bottles of beer in the house.

COUNCIL ACTS TO PROTECT EUCALYPTI

TORRANCE, Aug. 16.—Official protection for the eucalyptus trees along El Prado avenue has been given by the City Council following the filing of a request, signed by eleven property owners along the street, that the trees be removed. The request was made on the grounds that the trees create an untidy appearance due to falling leaves and are tearing up the sidewalks. The street superintendent will investigate and attempt to find a remedy for the situation as the trees are among the oldest of the district and have long been considered landmarks.

HISTORIC DANCES REVIVED

Two Old Spanish Families Present Annual Pageant at Santa Barbara During Fiesta

SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 16.—Hundreds of spectators flooded the patio and sunken garden of the new Courthouse here this afternoon to join in the festive spirit of the third day of the Old Spanish Days Fiesta as expressed by the annual Ruiz-Botello pageant.

More than a dozen artists, dancers and musicians, talent mostly from descendants of the two old Spanish families, were assisted by a troup of professional dancers.

The two oldest heads of the families, M. A. Botello and Miss Maria De Los Angeles Ruiz, again danced the old California dances amid the plaudits of the multitude. Each fiesta these two, each 74 years of age, who in their youth danced together when Santa Barbara was a village, repeat the dances of old times.

El Paseo, fashionable restaurant, was the scene of its annual elaborate program. There the film stars, prominent people of the city and of the nation gathered to make merry while in other parts of the city there were free street dancing, serenading and general merrymaking.

With the re-enactment of the arrival of the first train over the Southern Pacific Railroad, the sixth annual fiesta will close. This pageant will be at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow.

The historic pageant, "Romantic California," which was given the opening night of the fiesta, will be repeated tomorrow night.

MAN SEEKS DEATH ON HIGHWAY

Unidentified Pedestrian Steps in Front of Auto and Dies from Injuries

VENTURA, Aug. 16. — An unidentified man, about 60 years of age, turned to watch an approaching car and, as it drew near him, stepped in front of it, two miles west of here on the Rincon yesterday.

L. E. Gilbert of Los Angeles, driver of the car, swerved to miss the man, but a machine coming from the opposite direction made only a small allowance, and the wind-wings of the car struck the man.

The victim was taken to the County Hospital, where his injuries were diagnosed as a fractured skull, concussion of the brain, a broken arm and serious bruises. He did not regain consciousness before dying, about a half-hour after the accident.

Child's Death Laid to Heart

BUENA PARK, Aug. 16.—Six-year-old Lillian Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Davis of this city, died yesterday as the result of a heart ailment, a Coroner's jury decided today. An autopsy performed on the body revealed an absence of red corpuscles which is said to have contributed to death.

When the little girl was fatally stricken yesterday after refusing to eat her breakfast the Fullerton fire department was called to administer first aid. Dr. G. A. Elvin, attending physician, was unable to fix the cause of death.

AIR MAIL INCREASING

HUNTINGTON PARK, Aug. 16.—Reduction in air-mail rates which became effective about a year ago, has greatly increased the volume of air-mail business at the local postoffice, according to Assistant Postmaster James Fox, who states that the number of pieces of air mail leaving here was about 100 letters and cards daily, while now the average has mounted to about 400 pieces of mail daily.

Driver's Hair 'Flesh-Colored'

GLENDALE, Aug. 16.—Applicants for new automobile licenses here must fill in all the blanks on their application forms, and Officer J. H. Carter, in charge of the license bureau at the City Hall, will not stand for any omissions whatever. One candidate today presented his application without having filled in the color of his hair. The clerk pushed it back to him and told him to fill in the blank space.

"Impossible," said the customer.

"How come?" asked the clerk. "Don't you know you can't get a license unless you fill in all those answers?"

The argument raged until the applicant removed his hat to show that he was as bald as an egg, and the clerk grabbed the blank and wrote on it that the hair of the motorist was "flesh colored." The law had finally been vindicated.

BAND CONCERTS CUT SHORT BY FINANCES

MONROVIA, Aug. 16.—Due to a loss of $2400 in taxes this year, the City Council has notified Harold Scott, director, and Ralph Densmore, manager of the Monrovia Community Band, that the concert tomorrow night at Library Park will conclude the summer series. This will be the seventh of the summer series presented by the local band. The $2400 decrease in taxes is accounted for by the reduction of county assessed valuation, city officials said.

According to a statement issued by the Council, directors of the band were not guaranteed any certain number of concerts. Instead, city officials said the number of concerts would be dependent on the assessed valuation report which was received yesterday by City Clerk Frank Dupar.

SPEEDER PLEADS WEDDING DATE

GLENDALE, Aug. 16.—Miss Margaret A. McLeod, 19 years of age, of Eagle Rock, was late for a wedding to which she had been invited, and she depressed the accelerator until her car was making forty miles an hour in a twenty-mile zone, according to Motor Officers Reppell and Coombs, who overhauled her after a brisk chase on East Broadway. When she explained the reason for her haste and signed the customary ticket, Miss McLeod was permitted to join the rest of the wedding guests.

PASTOR TRANSFERRED WEST

Fullerton Four-Square Church Will be Placed in Charge of Minister from Michigan

FULLERTON, Aug. 16.—Members of the Four-Square Gospel Church here today denied having received any announcement that Rev. George F. Fink, pastor of the Detroit Four-Square Church, is to be transferred to this city, as was reported in press dispatches received here.

It was disclosed, however, that Rev. N. P. Nonorgaard, who recently came here from Pasadena to assume the local pastorate, was transferred to Los Angeles two days ago, so the church here is without a pastor.

TRANSFER FOLLOWS YEAR OF STRIFE

DETROIT, Aug. 16. (AP) — Rev. George F. Fink, field secretary for Michigan and pastor of the Detroit Four-Square Gospel Lighthouse Church of Aimee Semple McPherson, was transferred today to the Fullerton (Cal.) pastorate following a year of friction between him and his congregation. Rev. William J. Watson of Denver succeeds Fink.

Despite the action, church members denied any connection between Fink's transfer and the withdrawal five weeks ago of 100 members, who said they had been antagonized by the pastor's policies. The seceding group was led by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Waugh, founders of the local Lighthouse, and a separate church was established.

Fink was sent here from Denver as field secretary and acting pastor. A week before Mrs. McPherson opened her recent campaign here, he was elected pastor and the incumbent church board was voted out of office and replaced by a new group.

SCRAPPERS DECLARE TRUCE

Jury Picking Seems Hopeless in Elsinore Fight Case So Principals End it Themselves

ELSINORE, Aug. 16.—Within a few feet of where they exchanged blows in a fierce fistic encounter a week ago, Chief of Police Ward and Roy C. Ferrell, former police head, today met again and shook hands.

"No hard feelings, I hope," said Ferrell, as they shook hands.

"None at all, thanks," replied the younger officer.

That was the dramatic climax to a court hearing that started off like a whirlwind and ended like a zephyr, as attorneys, foiled in their attempts to get an "unbiased" jury for the trial of Ward on Ferrell's assault and battery charge, threw up their hands and asked the plaintiff and defendant if they could do something to help.

CAUCUS CALLED

A conference in an anteroom between the two officers, Dep. Dist.-Atty. Nelson and Defense Attorney Seymour followed. A few moments later the four filed back into the tiny justice courtroom which was packed and surrounded by twice as many persons as were inside. A silence ensued. Spectators leaned forward expectantly.

"We will move for a dismissal of the case, Your Honor," Nelson addressed Justice Beatty of Perris, serving in the place of Justice Kalina, who disqualified himself.

"It would be my suggestion that the plaintiff and defendant shake hands, forget their difficulties and be friends."

Ferrell and Ward arose, both reached out a hand and the friendly token was completed.

APPLAUSE DEAFENING

The courtroom burst into prolonged applause and as word spread to the hundreds milling around the windows and doors snatching what they could of the happenings inside, the cheering became deafening. There seemed to be none opposed to the amicable settlement of the trouble which has been brewing between the two officers for several weeks.

Ferrell had Ward arrested after a fight in the corridors of the City Hall last week. Each gave a different version of events leading up to the exchange of blows. Ward charged he was defending his wife's honor against an insult by Ferrell and Ferrell asserted he only accused Ward of associating with questionable women and that Ward started to fight.

Attorneys found it practically impossible to obtain twelve persons suitable to both the prosecution and defense as jurors. Sixty veniremen called for duty had withered under the torrid blasts of questions and challenges, to fifteen when the court battle was truced into a peaceful finale.

REASON FOR DEATH TOLD BY AUTOPSY

Alhambra Wife's Demise Caused by Tuberculosis; Police Release Husband

ALHAMBRA, Aug. 17.—Sigmund Konarski, 42-year-old World War veteran, of 421 East Hellman avenue, was released by local police today after an autopsy showed that his wife, Mrs. Helen Konarski, 28, had died of pulmonary tuberculosis in an advanced stage and had not been the victim of an asserted "starvation diet" prescribed for her by her husband.

The body of Mrs. Konarski was found yesterday at her home by an inhalator squad summoned by her husband. The woman had been dead for several hours. The emaciated condition of the body led police to believe the woman had starved to death. The story told officers by the husband bore out this theory when he admitted that Mrs. Konarski had been upon a strict diet for four months. The autopsy was performed by A. F. Wagner, county autopsy surgeon, and Chief Deputy County Coroner W. A. McDonald.

In normal health, Mrs. Konarski was a woman of about 130 pounds in weight. At the time of her death she weighed no more than seventy pounds, police stated.

Konarski served during the World War with the One Hundred and Seventeenth Engineers, according to the Veterans' Bureau at Sacramento. He was shell shocked at Chateau Thierry. He is a native of Poland and has been in the United States nineteen years. He was discharged in 1918 with a 40 per cent disability rating.

Assessed Value of Coronado to be Halved

CORONADO, Aug. 16.—While the City Council, sitting as a board of equalization today, denied all petitions for reduction of city valuations, a resolution was passed by unanimous vote to give notice of the board's intention to lower by 50 per cent the assessments and valuation of real estate and improvements on the entire assessment roll. Hearing on the proposed action was set for the 24th inst. at 9 a.m. in the Council chamber at the City Hall.

Nineteen petitions for reductions of city valuations had been presented to the equalization board. The outstanding protests were filed by the San Diego and Arizona Railroad, the J. D., and A. B. Spreckels Investment Company, and the A. B. Spreckels Security Company.

LARGE SLASH IN RIVERSIDE TAXES

CORONA, Aug. 17.—One of the largest tax rate cuts ever made in Riverside county was forecast by the Supervisors in their budget hearings held today, according to T. C. Jameson, chairman. As the result of economic pruning of departments and of an increased valuation of $4,635,000 as a result of a wide program of equalization, the Supervisors announced a slash of 43 cents.

The county rate inside cities drops from $3.22 to $2.79, and outside cities from $3.82 to $3.39. The tax rate is based on one-third valuation.

Heart Attack Takes Lawyer

PASADENA, Aug. 16. — George McLane, local attorney, died suddenly today at his home, 1773 Walworth avenue, following a heart attack. He went to his office as usual yesterday and appeared in the best of health and spirits, according to friends. He had practiced here nine years. He practiced law in Lawrence, Mass., before coming west, for twenty years, and served one term in the Massachusetts Legislature.

Stevens, secretary; Marjorie Huston, treasurer, and Ruble Caerbert, George A. Alligre and Robert Miller, directors.

Wailing Pup Calls Police

GLENDALE, Aug. 16. — Screams that poured forth on the night air from the house at 910 1-2 East Windsor Road last night, took Patrolmen Edgar and Gage to the scene on a run, with the siren on their car blaring.

When the officers rushed into the house, prepared to cope with attempted murder or some other form of violence, all they could find was a little dog wailing in a tremulous soprano and raising a noise out of all proportion to its size.

Edgar patted the pup on the head and stilled its screams temporarily, but the official record on the blotter at headquarters states that the dog was making a noise just like some person in acute pain.

Last year's valuation was $22,665,470. Although the City Council did not act on the 1929-30 budget as submitted by the City Manager, it was indicated that the cost sheet will be passed with little or no change.

RANCHMAN KILLED BY AUTO GAS

Prominent Resident of Hemet, in Ill Health, Found Dead in Garage

HEMET, Aug. 16. — Charles E. Goodhue, 60 years of age, prominent Riverside county insurance man, was found dead in the garage at his ranch home here early this morning, a victim of carbon monoxide poisoning. He had been in ill health for more than six months.

Apparently he had left his bed about the middle of the night and gone to the garage. The body was found, seated in the car, the motor of which was still running, at 6 a.m. by an employee of the ranch. The garage doors were closed.

For nearly twenty years, Goodhue has been prominent in community affairs here. He had served as president of the Chamber of Commerce, and was elected president of the Kiwanis Club this year, but declined the office because of his health. Until this year he had been a member of the Ramona pageant cast.

Goodhue leaves his widow, a son, Howard, of Orange county, and a brother, W. C. Goodhue of Los Angeles. Funeral services will be conducted here Monday.

MANHUNT ENDS IN DENVER

Suspected Check Manipulator in Glendale Faces Colorado Charge, Police Informed

GLENDALE, Aug. 16.—Search for Dr. W. Menella, posing as a wealthy Spaniard, wanted here on charges of manipulating fraudulent drafts and checks ranging as high as $18,000, was ended when he was arrested by police at Denver Tuesday, according to advices received here by Police Chief J. D. Fraser, who, with Detective Lieutenant Charles P. Blake, has been trailing the suspect through several States.

Menella first attracted attention here when he deposited a draft in the American National Bank for $18,000, drawn on the National Bank of Rochester, Minn., which later denied any knowledge of Menella. At that time he gave the impression that he was in affluent circumstances but ignorant of American business methods.

When he attempted to cash a check for $356 in the bank, drawn against his draft, he was warned not to issue checks until the bank was assured that the draft had been honored, police were told. In spite of this warning, however, small checks began coming into the bank, and a complaint was filed in Police Court, based on one check for $10 that was cashed in a local drug store.

Menella left town but was traced to Flagstaff, Ariz., where he is said to have issued more checks, then to Raton, N. M., to Colorado Springs and later to Denver, where he was arrested after he is said to have tried to cash a $2000 check.

Local police plan to await the outcome of the Denver case before going to the expense of bringing Menella back here on the $10 check charge. The suspect is said to have served terms in San Quentin and Folsom on similar charges, and also to have been involved with the authorities in Fremont, Neb.; New Orleans and Pomona. He is also said to be known to the police under half a dozen aliases, usually posing as a doctor.

POLICE ARREST SUSPECTED RED

Taken in Act of Distributing Communistic Circulars

Trial Set for September 11 and Jury Requested

Literature Advertised Mass Protest Meeting

Arrested by police yesterday under the city ordinance which provides against the distribution of Communistic literature, Mack Roberts, 22 years of age, was arraigned before Municipal Judge Bogue and asked for a trial by jury, which was set for September 11, next. Bail was placed at $25.

Roberts, according to police, was arrested at Twenty-first street and Griffith avenue while in the act of distributing Communistic or "red" literature to houses on the street.

Copies of the reading matter, according to Detective Lieutenants McClanahan, Bradford and Wylie, who conducted the investigation and made the arrest, solicited attendance at a Communist mass meeting to take place last night at 8 p.m. at the Co-operative Auditorium, 2706 Brooklyn avenue.

"Fight Against Police Brutality" and "Come in Mass to Protest Against the Destruction of the Workers' Children's Summer Camp," were the heads of one of the circulars being distributed by Roberts. Robert Whitaker and Leo Gallagher, attorney, were announced as speakers.

The circular advertising last night's meeting bore the names of the Young Communist League, Workers' International Relief, International Labor Defense and the Women's Cons. Educational League.

Another piece of literature sought attendance tonight at 7 p.m. at a meeting of the Trade Union Educational League at the headquarters of the needle trades workers' industrial union at 656 South Los Angeles street.

Detective Lieutenants Wood and Gardner of the Hollenbeck Heights division last night arrested two other men charged with distributing handbills in violation of the same ordinance. They are Sol Erenberg, 25, a carpenter, of 3127 Wabash street, and John Riscevic, 42, a machinist, of 820 West Florence avenue. The detectives arrested them at 2000 City View, where they were accused of distributing handbills advertising the meeting last night in Co-operative Hall.

NINE RED FLAG WAVERS HELD FOR TRIAL

REDLANDS, Aug. 16. (Exclusive) Judge Potter tonight, after a preliminary hearing lasting until dark, held nine men and women to answer to Superior Court on a charge of displaying a red flag in opposition to organized government as a result of the raiding and closing of a children's camp in Yucaipa. There were fifty children there and older people. Many pamphlets on Communism and red flags were found by raiders and shown in court.

The nine defendants held to answer are Catherine Hruback, Bella Mintz, Esther Karpileff, I. Berkowitz, Sarah Cutler, Sarah Rabbhin, Yetta Stromberg, Emma Schneider and Jennie Wolpin. All live in Los Angeles. They were represented by Leo Gallagher and John Beardsley and the prosecution was conducted by Dist.-Atty. George Johnson.

CALIFORNIA CONTENDER BACK HOME

Young Robinson Makes Trip With Parents After Taking Edison Test

After journeying back to New Jersey as the California candidate in the Thomas A. Edison scholarship examinations, Herman Robinson, 17-year-old Venice High School boy, has returned to his home at 9726 Charnock Road, Palms. But before anyone had an opportunity to ask him his experiences in the East, Herman left with his mother and father for a short trip, from which he will return sometime today.

At the time of his choice from among forty-three candidates throughout the State by State Superintendent of Instruction Kersey and other members of the State Board of Education, Herman declared he had no hope of winning when he reached New Jersey but to have been chosen from the whole State of California as its representative he felt was honor and satisfaction enough to last him for some time.

The tests, which were conducted on the 1st inst., at the Edison Laboratories in Orange, N. J., were designed for the purpose of selecting the boy of greatest promise for a technical education under the personal direction of Mr. Edison and a four-year course in any university the winner might wish to attend. Wilbur Huston of Seattle was the choice of Edison and the judges for the coveted prize.

LEGIONNAIRES CITE MENACE OF REDS

CHINO, Aug. 16.—Pointing out the menace to the American flag caused by activity of Reds in Southern California, Bob Frady, commander of Chino Legion Post, and James G. Galanis of Ontario Legion Post in a strong plea to the local Rotary Club, urged relentless war against the practice of Red propaganda being spread by radical elements. The Legion men reminded the Rotarians of the proximity of the recently raided Red camp in Yucaipa Valley to Chino's school children and hinted at another similar little soviet republic now flourishing in the district.

FILLMORE TAX RATE INCREASED

FILLMORE, Aug. 16.—With a valuation of $1,006,620, the tax rate for this city has been set at $1.70. The valuation increase is $80,000, with the tax rate increase being 45 cents.

Hawaii's Insects

Hawaii is a paradise for students of evolution as well as for the seekers of romance, scenery or climate. The islands have developed their own very peculiar populations of plants and animals, with thousands of species unknown elsewhere. At the meeting of the American Association of Economic Entomologists at Berkeley, Cal., O. H. Swezey of Honolulu told of the development of Hawaiian forest insects, many genera of which have developed large numbers of species. Usually each species has its own particular tree or plant species, on which it feeds exclusively; or where more than one species are found on the same plant host the species are distributed on separate islands. Similarly, the parasitic and predatory insects that prey on them have their particular host preferences; so that vast numbers of different kinds of insects can be found on this group of islands.—[Boston Transcript.

MRS. LEILA CASTBERG

"Perfect health for everybody is no longer an impossibility, since we no longer depend on physical cures alone, but include the changing of wrong mental states and acquainting the patient with those inner healing forces which are of God," says Mrs. Leila Castberg, pastor of the Church of Divine Power, who will preach at Belasco Theater tomorrow morning on "Health for All." A song service, with Morris Stoloff as violin accompanist, will precede the address.

Church Clock from Scraps

Wootton Rivers, Eng., has a new church clock composed of scrap materials. John K. Spratt made it from old steel sinples, iron bars and parts of bicycles, fireirons and agricultural implements supplied by the people of the parish. Spratt also has constructed a grandfather clock which plays 140 tunes on its chimes.

Hunter Uses "Mercy Bullet"

Wild animals are to be captured painlessly for the zoo at Pretoria, Transvaal. Authorities have commissioned Capt. Burnett Harris, inventor of the "mercy bullet," to carry out the work. The bullet contains drugs and is equivalent to a hypodermic needle. The animal which receives it will feel no more pain than if it were brushed by a thorn.

Tire Shop Blast Causes Fire Loss

Explosion and fire last night wrecked a vulcanizing plant of the Los Angeles Tire and Sponge Rubber Company at 1346 East Slauson avenue. Two dwellings adjoining on either side and a garage at the rear were burned. P. J. Barker, owner of the plant, put the loss at $8000, partly covered by insurance.

The origin of the fire is undetermined. An explosion of inflammable material in the factory at the start spread the flames so alarmingly that when Capt. Powell of Engine 9, county fire department, arrived, he turned in a second alarm. This brought Battalion Chief Williamson of the Eighth district, city fire department, with Companies 21, 22, 31, Truck 13 and Engine 14. The fire was extinguished without further loss.

Shafter, who served on the Supreme Court bench from 1852 to 1870. Miss Shafter, who was 68 years of age, was born in San Francisco, and lived most of her life in this State, although she had resided also in Hartford, Ct., and Ithaca, N. Y. She leaves a sister, Bertha Shafter of Pasadena.

Funeral services for Miss Shafter will be conducted tomorrow at 4 p.m. at her late residence. Interment will be at Oakland.

SAN DIMAS, Aug. 16.—Designated as a "suppression crew," three additional men have been added to the personnel of the San Jose division of the Los Angeles County Forestry Department, with headquarters here. It will be the duty of the supplementary crew to respond to all fire calls, going ahead of the regular force, which will remain at headquarters unless the blaze is too large for the smaller crew to handle. Fire Warden K. P. Carter is reorganizing the local force. A caterpillar crew started for San Dimas lookout today to reconstruct the firebreak between Sycamore Flats and San Dimas Canyon. Eighteen men are now employed in the San Jose division.

ONE HELD AFTER WRECK MIX-UP

Autoist's Lawyer Declared to Have Posed as Driver

John Boyd Being Questioned Concerning Accident

Victim of Smash-up Likely to Expire in Hospital

John V. Boyd of 1141 West Thirtieth street was held for questioning by the Sheriff's office yesterday following an automobile accident on Valley Boulevard near Bassett's bridge Thursday night, in which one man received injuries which may prove fatal, after Boyd had disappeared for some time, while an attorney friend posed as driver of the car which caused the accident.

As a result of the accident Julien Atilamo of 701 Gutierrez street, Santa Barbara, is in an El Monte hospital suffering from injuries which may cause his death.

BACK BROKEN

He received a broken back and his thighs were mangled, according to Deputy Sheriffs Perdue and Torrance.

The accident occurred when Boyd's machine, traveling west, sideswiped two other eastbound automobiles, the officers report. Atilamo was riding in an eastbound machine driven by Andreas Aguilera of 245 South Union avenue, Los Angeles. The victim was seated on the door of the tonneau of Aguilera's car when it was sideswiped by Boyd's automobile.

HITS ANOTHER CAR

After striking Aguilera's car Boyd also crashed into another machine directly behind it driven by C. J. Rothenberg of 241 Lexington avenue, El Monte, according to investigators.

When officers arrived they met a man who said he was the driver of the Boyd car. But when the officers announced that he was under arrest the man said his name is E. O. Shattuck, Boyd's attorney, and was driving in his car directly behind the Boyd machine at the time of the accident.

Boyd was taken into custody for questioning later. The officers stated he was not intoxicated.

VALLEY LETTUCE SOWING DELAYED

RESEDA, Aug. 16.—The peak of lettuce planting for fall market in San Fernando Valley will not start until about the middle of next month. Growers have been informed that they cannot have a full supply of irrigation water until citrus, alfalfa and lima bean growers have been given the usual quota needed about this time each year. In some parts of the valley water pressure is not what it was during the earlier part of the summer because of the large amount of water now being used by various small and large ranchers.

FARM EXPERT SEES SHORTAGE IN COWS

VAN NUYS, Aug. 16.—San Fernando Valley is facing a shortage of good cows to replace the natural losses to herds, it is stated by dairymen. C. V. Castle, an assistant farm adviser, following his survey, confirms such a report. Castle states that the valley is growing fast in population and that patrons of dairies naturally are on the increase. He intimates that dairymen must start a plan at once to raise more heifer calves to restock their herds or else find a source where they can buy producing cows of high grade.

VAN NUYS TO FINISH SIDEWALKS LAYING

VAN NUYS, Aug. 16.—Bids for the installation of sidewalks and curbs on every street in the Van Nuys townsite where they have not already been put in, will be received until 10 a.m. on the 28th inst., by the Board of Public Works. Most all property owners here have built concrete sidewalks in front of their homes, using private contractors. The remaining work is now to be done by the city, the cost bill to be sent to the property owners.

DU ROSE TO BUILD PORTO RICO AIRPORT

VAN NUYS, Aug. 16.—Capt. Ralph M. Du Rose will assist in the practical work of bringing into use the airways which have been mapped out by Col. Charles A. Lindbergh. He has left here for Porto Rico to take charge of the airport construction in San Juan for the Pan-American Airways. Capt. Du Rose resides here. He has been with the United States Department of Commerce doing similar work in Salt Lake City. After he is located in San Juan his wife and family will join him there.

FOUR SONS HERE MAGNET TO MEXICAN EX-OFFICIAL

More than once affairs of state have been held up by the smile of a bright-eyed boy—but when there are four boys and you are their father and you haven't seen them for a year, you just naturally toss things overboard for a long visit.

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Puig Casauranc, former chief of the Federal District and former minister of Education of the Republic of Mexico, are at the Biltmore and the big idea of the visit is a reunion with their four children who attend school here.

"We come up each year to see our children," said Dr. Casauranc yesterday. "We are immensely proud of them, of course. Charles is 14 years of age; Gonzales is 12, Lupe is 9 and Enrique is but 7.

"Something about Mexico? Certainly! We believe that revolutions are over in Mexico for good. At least we hope so. With each outbreak the military arm is purged and purified of those who put their selfish aims above that of the people. We believe the present government to be a strong one and a government that will be able to cope with any situation that may arise.

"We feel that Mexico is due for a great era of prosperity and happiness. Things are normal again and we feel that we are about ready to make a tremendous advance.

"Indications are that many great American business houses are planning to establish branches in the City of Mexico. There is a great market there and a great future. I am interested in the development of aviation, and I hope that the line recently established from Los Angeles to Mexico City will be a success. If people could see more of our country I am sure it would be of great advantage to both nations.

"We watch with the greatest interest the development of the West and we are certain that the quickest and best understanding of our problems will come from the people of this district."

Dr. and Mrs. Casauranc will be in the city until Tuesday, when they will return to Mexico City. The children will remain here. Charles is attending junior high school this year.

They will be seen at Grand Central Air Terminal in tableau at start of Pickwick's Guatemalan service.

GUATEMALA PLANE POISED

Celebration Tomorrow Will Mark Opening of New Passenger Line to Central America

Carrying autographed photographs of governors, mayors and Chamber of Commerce heads of California, Oregon, Washington, Arizona and Lower California to President Portes Gil of Mexico and President Chacon of Guatemala, the first official passenger plane of the new Pickwick Latin-American Airways line to Mexico and Guatemala is scheduled to hop off from Grand Central Air Terminal at 9 a.m., tomorrow.

Inauguration of passenger service on the thrice-a-week air mail and express line connecting San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego with Tia Juana, Nogales, Mexico City and Guatemala City will be preceded by inaugural ceremonies participated in by Lieut.-Gov. Carnahan, Mayor Kimlin of Glendale, representatives of the foreign consular offices and the city and county of Los Angeles.

TABLEAU TO BE GIVEN

Miss Barbara Young, daughter of Gov. Young, will enact the role of Miss America in a tableau illustrative of the transition from ox cart to airplane travel, as applying to many districts along the 2400-mile air route from Los Angeles to Guatemala City. Miss Marianita Servin, daughter of Dr. Guillermo Servin, will take the part of Miss Mexico, and Senoritas Berta and Marta Paniagua, twin daughters of the former consul for Guatemala, will represent Guatemala. The tableau will show the Misses Mexico and Guatemala transferring from a Mexican ox cart, drawn by a span of oxen, to a Pickwick plane, assisted by the welcoming hand of Miss America, in the person of Miss Young.

Victor Clark, secretary of the Flying Club of California, will officiate as master of ceremonies. Speakers also will include P. P. O'Brien, postmaster of Los Angeles; William Krowl of the City Prosecutor's office; Ray T. Brockmann of the American Legion, Glendale; Thomas E. Morgan, general manager of Pickwick Airways, Inc.; Senor P. A. Pesqueira, consul for Mexico; Dr. C. E. Bobertz, vice-consul for Guatemala, and Gov. Rodrigues of Lower California. Gov. Rodriguez is scheduled to arrive in Los Angeles late today from Mexicali in a Pickwick plane.

ANOTHER PLANE ADDED

Addition of the ninth plane to Pickwick Latin-American Airways' fleet was announced yesterday by Mr. Morgan. The new plane is a Ryan brougham similar to six others purchased recently by the Pickwick company from the Ryan Aircraft Company of St. Louis for its Latin-American service. It was delivered at Nogales, Ariz., last week and immediately placed in service. Heavy increase in the volume of mail and express business on the new line since its inauguration July 29, last, made the addition necessary, Mr. Morgan said. Further additions to the Pickwick fleet are anticipated with the inauguration tomorrow of passenger service.

Tentative schedules provide for Pickwick Latin American line planes to leave Los Angeles weekly at 7:15 a.m. Sundays, Tuesdays and Thursdays. North bound planes will arrive in Los Angeles in the early afternoon of Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.
